LATER

PARIS, Nov. 23—The condition of Georges Clemenceau, wartime Premier of France, was described by Dr. Degennes early today as still most critical, but he was hopeful that the patient might pull through the night. After a consultation lasting an hour with two other physicians summoned to the bedside late last night, Dr. Degennes said that Clemenceau had obtained slight relief from the uremia from which he has suffered for two days and which was a dangerous drag on his heart action. Despite his belief that Clemenceau might live out the night, death he said was merely a question of hours.

Waters Are Now Too Shallow For Navigation

Tidal Wave Makes Important Change In Configuration Of The Land At Burin, Nfld.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., Nov. 22—A definite and important change in the configuration of the land at Burin, resulting from the earthquake and tidal wave that wrecked the Peninsula on Monday was indicated today by Hon. George Bartlett on his arrival from the devastated community, where he witnessed the disaster from the deck of the small steamer Daisy, as the ship was lifted on the crest of the huriling wave and dropped back as the tide receded. Where vessels of fifteen tons could once lie safely at anchor in the Burin neighborhood, Mr. Bartlett said, the disturbance has left the coastal waters too shallow for navigation. Property damage was estimated by Mr. Bartlett at not less than one million dollars.

MUST HANG

Alleged Confession To Shield Mother In The Shooting Of His Father.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 22—John Pesowesty was today sentenced by Mr. Justice Taylor to hang on February 21, 1930, after a jury had found him guilty of the murder of his father. When the jury announced its verdict, a slight flush rose to the cheeks of Pesowesty, but otherwise he appeared unmoved. During the course of the trial, which lasted three days, statements made by the accused were filed as evidence by which John admitted he had shot his father and gave details, which coincided with evidence of the police. Pesowesty from the witness box testified, his mother had told him how she had shot his father and taken the gun to pieces and had hidden it. He stated his mother had requested him to say he had done the shooting and take the blame and she would get him off. He made his alleged confession to shield his mother, he stated.

BEATS WIFE TO DEATH

ST. Amyot, when he attempted to aid the woman. Amyot was in a critical condition in a hospital tonight. The tragedy was discovered this afternoon, when neighbors, aroused by a disturbance in the Leduc home, found the woman lying on the kitchen floor dead. She had received a fractured skull and numerous other injuries and had died within a few minutes after the attack. Paul Amyot was found outside the door to the flat, unconscious from blows on the head.

CAUSE FOR DISCOUNT ON CAN. DOLLAR

"Dabbling" by Canadians in Wall Street, is Offered as a Reason for the Decline in Some Quarters—One Guess Good As Another.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—Dabbling by Canadians in Wall Street, involving an exchange of Canadian for U. S. funds is offered in informed circles here as probably the major cause for the discount on the Canadian dollar in New York. For several weeks, the dollar, nominally worth one hundred United States cents has fluctuated at around 97 to 98. Last year at this time it was quoted at a slight premium. "One guess is as good as another" it was carefully explained to the Canadian Press today. But taking the trade balance for the end of August in 1928, favoring the Dominion to the amount of $115,000,000 and in 1929, $19,000,000 it was suggested that the difference either in whole or large part represented the extent of Canadian interests in Wall Street during the interim. "Dabbling," it was said, has now stopped and it was understood a part of the funds had been repatriated. The annual purchase of coal from the United States, amounting to 17,000,000 tons, upon which payment is now being made, and the holding by the Canadian pool of 250,000,000 bushels of grain would, it is said here, be discounted in the present rate on the Canadian dollar in New York. These factors were offered in other quarters as being largely responsible for the situation.

Yesterday Was Maritimes Day at The Winter Fair

(Special to the Guardian) TORONTO, Ont. Nov. 22—In accordance with the policy of dedicating each day to one of the Provinces of the Dominion, yesterday was British Columbia Day, at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. This honor accorded the Pacific coast provinces was proclaimed in great silver banners stretched in the centre and across the ends of the arena, bearing the legend "British Columbia Day." The distance separating the Province from Toronto prevented British Columbia celebrating its particular day in the same fashion as has been arranged for the other provinces, which will hold a parade of their livestock exhibits on their respective days. But British Columbia has no live stock exhibits at the Fair this year owing to the difficulty and distance the shipments would involve. Yesterday was what will prove probably the heaviest judging day of the Fair. Classes in horses, cattle, swine and sheep were judged in addition. The building was vocal with the high crowing notes of roosters and the clucking of hens as the poultry show opened. Today is maritime (Continued on Page 3)

Premier Rhodes is making an inspection of liquor control systems operated by the various provincial governments with a view to establishing a system to suit his own province. He said that Nova Scotia would greatly benefit by the experience of the other provinces. He thought however, it would be only a matter of time until the control of liquor would be standardized throughout the Dominion.
