U. S. ADMIRAL TAKES STAB AT BRITAIN

Declares British After Merchant Marine and Not Naval Limitation.

(Canadian Press)

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 19.— Great Britain dominates the League of Nations and the commerce of the world and inspired the Washington conference for limitation of armaments in order to prevent the United States from having sufficiently strong a navy to protect a merchant marine which would compete with that of Great Britain, said Rear Admiral W. L. Rodgers of U. S. navy, retired in a statement today at the Institute of Politics.

"Our limitation of the armaments treaty of three years ago played into England's hands, and indeed she originated it," said the Admiral.

"She does not wish us to interfere with her, as our nautical growth might permit us to do. It was the competition of our merchant fleet with that of Great Britain which she hoped indirectly to limit by direct action upon our navy. It is not to be thought that she was contemplating the rivalry of the navies as the primary issue.

"In regard to the prospective international loan to Germany, it is alleged that the American bankers are waiting for England to take the initiative.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION

On S. S. Hochelaga Last Night Enjoyed by a Large Number.

Almost a hundred ladies and gentlemen enjoyed the complimentary excursion given last night by the owners of the S. S. Hochelaga to the members of the Charlottetown Board of Trade, the provincial members of the Federal Government, the members of the Provincial and Civic Governments, and the Press.

The excurstionists embarked just a little after nine o'clock and were accommodated on the after deck, which was under awning, and in the main saloon. Mr. Simons, the owner was on board and he and Captain Balcomb did everything within their power to make the trip a comfortable and memorable one for the passengers.

The Hochelaga steamed down the harbor, out its mouth and into the smooth waters of Hillsborough Bay, the half-speed maintained being well adapted to the occasion, moderating as it did the cooling sea breeze and allowing the excursionists the fullest opportunities for the appreciation of a beautiful night sail under a sky illuminated by a glorious harvest moon.

Violin and piano music by Messrs H. A. Tanton and Harry Porter added to the pleasure of the voyage and elicited many approving remarks by the appreciative of good music. While the steamer was in the bay all repaired to the well appointed saloon where refreshments were served.

Just before the ship returned to the dock, Mr. E. T. Higgs of the Charlottetown Board of Trade moved a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Simon for his generosity and considerateness in providing those present such a delightful evening. Mr. Higg's motion was supported by Premier Stewart and Mr. A. A. Pomeroy, who spoke of the splendid service being given the Island by the Hochelaga and hoping that this service would be maintained.

Mr. A. W. Harris, Secretary of the Pictou Board of Trade who was mong the guests, added to the commending remarks already made

GERMANS ARE PLEASED WITH RESULT

Of London Conference--Prospect of Sanction by Reich is Bright.

(Canadian Press.)

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—It is generally expected that the Reichstag will meet Friday and that its decision on the results of the London reparation conference will be taken at the end of next week.

Yesterday's meeting of the cabinet under the chairmanship of President Ebert unanimously approved the German Delegation's attitude during the London negotiations and the government is determined to dissolve the Reichstag in the event of the latter failing to sanction the London pact.

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—With the return of the German delegates from the London conference there is a conspicuous moderation in the tone of the editorial discussions on the outcome, and political experts are busy figuring out the party lineup in the Reichstag when the Government's action is up for approval or rejection.

Foreign Minister Stresemann

The members of the Cabinet are inclined to view the parliamentary situation with a degree of equanimity both of the conviction that once the opposition forces are given a complete opportunity to examine the balance sheet brought back by Chancellor Marx and Foreign Minister Stresemann and allowed to contemplate the economic and political effects involved in a disavowal of the present government they will be less inclined to maintain the intransigent attitude reflected in the current editorials.

The Chancellor entered upon a series of conferences with the

NAVY FOR DOM. DEFENCE MINISTER'S AIM

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—A Canadian navy for Canada, that is the ambition of Hon. E. M. MacDonald, Minister of Defence—but such a navy must wait on Canadian public opinion says a Montreal Star special from Quebec giving an interview with the minister.

The interview continues: "It is not the policy of Canada to contribute money to the unkeep of the British navy," he said. "We want a navy of our own—Australia has set the example in that respect and we want to follow it. Just at present we are not able to do so. Our railway constitutes too heavy a drain upon our resources to enable us to do so but it is our hope that the visit to our shores of the British squadron will create such a public sentiment as will in the future enable us to expend the necessary funds to build such a navy as will be a credit to Canada."

P. E. ISLAND SEED POTATOES MAKE PROMISING SHOWING

Half Canada's Acreage in Seed Potatoes Now in This Province.—Chief of Potato Inspection Service Declares Crop Here Compares Favorably With Best He Has Seen.

Mr. George Partridge, Chief of the Potato Inspection Service, Ottawa, is in the city for a few days and has visited a number of the largest potato farms in the vicinity. He will continue his inspection tour in other parts of the province. Mr. Partridge speaks very favorably of the seed potato prospects here this season and says that the crop compares very favorably with any he has seen elsewhere. There are under inspection throughout the Dominion, approximately 20,000 acres of seed potatoes. Of this quantity 9,500 acres are in this province, a remarkable increase in the acreage here, which, last year, was 3 200 acres. It will also be noted that practically half the acreage of the Dominion under this crop is in Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Partridge says that a very favourable reputation has been created in the United States seed consuming areas by the Prince Edward Island product. This reputation, he wishes to express, can be maintained only by the strictest observance of the standards adopted by the Department and eternal watchfulness and care on the part of the producers and inspectors. It must not be lost sight of that competition is becoming very keen and only the best quality can hope to hold the market. Mr. Partridge declares that Prince Edward Island has an excellent advantage in the Potato Growers' Association, its secretary, Mr. Boulter and the Chief Inspector, Mr. S. G. Peppin and his staff working most harmoniously together with the one object in view, namely, making Prince Edward Island seed potatoes better than the best that are being produced.

Made Fortune of $20,000 From Junk

Canadian Press.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 19.—Twenty thousand dollars represents the fortune made in junk by Levi Staring, 76 years old, nicknamed the "Midas of Myrtle Street." It was learned when police recovered a safe stolen from his dingy apartment. The contents of the safe revealed documents and bankbooks which showed that he had amassed $20,00 during his half-century of dealing in rags and scrap iron, his only assets in his business being his devotion to his work and a small, two-wheeled, soap-box cart.

Staring is a recluse and is said to have hoarded away his money for years, having no dependents and never associated with people save in business. His fortune is said to have been accumulated from articles picked up in the various public dumps of the city.

$20,000 Barn Burns In Presque Isle

(Canadian Press)

PRESQUE ISLE, Me., Aug. 19.—The fine barn of W. R. Christie, built at a cost of $20,000, was burned on Thursday on his farm on Caribou road, about 1¾ miles from this village. There was nothing could save it, for the upper interior where the fire started from some unknown cause, was a mass of flames when discovered. It is understood 80 tons of hay were consumed and besides two tractors there were many other valuable pieces of machinery, including a hay loader and manure spreader. The beautiful set of farm buildings where the most valuable horses are kept were so situated that they were not endangered by the fire with the wind blowing from the south.

HERRIOT APPEALS TO U. S. TO HELP COMPLETE WORK

Declares American Public Opinion Needed To Carry Out Dawes Plan.—Sees New Era For Europe And World

(United Press)

Premier Herriot

LONDON, Aug. 19. —"I appeal to the United States to support Europe in carrying out the Dawes plan"—and we will depend upon America's help.

In an exclusive interview with the United Press just before leaving for Paris today, Premier Herriot of France discussed what he believes to be the outstanding results of the successful conference on applying the Dawes reparations report and appealed particularly for U. S. help to make the Dawes plan effective.

"We have reached an agreement —now comes the work of executing the Dawes plan in the same spirit in which it was conceived," Herriot said. "We are writing 'finis' on the old volume of European history and are beginning a new one.

"Upon the public opinion of the various nations depends whether our successful work here means the dawn of a new era for Europe and for the world."

Public Opinion Needed

"American public opinion has been helpful in the present conference and it will be needed to carry on the work of removing the war's scars and starting anew.

"I feel that the conference is a success, but upon our work hereafter depends whether we consolidate that success. The good spirit of all participants is necessary if we are to trust instead of distrust."

"The present conference differs widely from past ones in its general atmosphere," Herriot continued.

"I feel that it was due to the spirit of the French people that an agreement was possible. It was their ardent desire for peace that enabled those who suffered most in the war to sacrifice most in bringing peace.

The French Formula

"I feel that the success of the conference is due to the fact—aside from the general inter-allied feeling of mutual trust and the valuable aid of the U. S. delegates—that France, at the breaking point in the first phase of the conference, offered a completely new formula to overcome the disagree-

Community Dance Last Night

An even larger crowd than that which enjoyed the initial Community Dance was on hand last night to take in the second of these events which have become a Charlottetown institution.

Yesterday evening's dance was held on Queen Street giving a much greater area and an opportunity for better lighting arrangements, strings of electric lights overhead being supplemented by store lights, and the whole constituting a most satisfactory form of illumination. As almost the whole length of the street block between Grafton and Kent formed last night's dance floor ample room was furnished the large number of dancing couples, who found the syncopating harmony of the Casino Orchestra all that could be desired. At the Grafton street end space was set apart for the old fashioned square dances which were patronized by quite a number.
