SUPREME COURT OF YESTERDAY

The Supreme Court, adjourned from last week, met yesterday to deal with motions, the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Fitzgerald presiding. In the case of Stanway vs. Paton, on motion of Mr. Stewart, K. C., the time for moving for a new trial was extended. In the case of the Canadian Bank of Commerce v s. Andrew Livingstone and another, Mr. Johnston, K. C., showed cause against the rule for a non-suit granted in Trinity term, 1908, Mr. McQuarrie, K. C, argued in support of the rule. Judgment was reserved in the application of W. K. Rogers for certiorari to remove a conviction made by J. A. Macdonald, Stipendiary Magistrate, for unlawfully using and operating a motor vehicle on a public highway in the City of Charlottetown, Mr. McLeod, K. C., argued that the conviction be quashed. He was supported by Mr. McQuarrie, K. C., and Mr. Bentley. Attorney General Haszard K. C., and Mr. Johnston, K. C., argued contra. The quashing of the conviction was asked for on the ground that the running of an auto is a nuisance at common law, and as such it is an indictable offence, which is dealt with by the Criminal Code and constitues a crime, and, being a criminal matter, the Provincial Legislature cannot legislate on it. The other side argued that it is a matter of purely local concern, dealing with civil rights within the Province, and, as such, is within the powers of the Provincial Legislature to deal with, after considerable argument on both sides judgement was reserved.

SHRUBB-LONGBOAT RACE POSTPONED

NEW YORK, January 27—Patrick Powers, promoter of the proposed race on Tuesday night between Shrubb and Longboat, announced that the contest has been postponed by him until the night of Friday, February 5, on account of injury to Shrubb, sustained to one of his feet through rubbing of a tight shoe.

Powers said that although the wound showed signs of rapid healing he thought it better to put the race off until the date mentioned, because he has sold tickets in cities as far away as Montreal. An arrangement for postponement was therefore made with the Garden management.

The cause of the mishap was a wet shoe. On Thursday the Englishman ran on a soggy track and afterwards found the toes on his left foot so swollen that he could not pull on his shoe. Inflammation set in, and when Shrubb came to New York he was limping and wore a shoe with a hole cut in it.

Lon Marsh says:—"If the Indian had gone wrong I would not have been surprised. Yet I cannot conceive of the Englishman quitting. In fact he cannot quit and get away with it without there is something redically wrong with his feet, for Pat Powers is too deep in with the affair to stand for it. He had his own doctor in consultation."

THE GREAT BIG TRIP BECOMES INTERESTING

All Young Ladies Should Nominate at Once So That Their Friends Could Give Them Their Support and Votes.

Nominations will be recieved at any time for The Guardian's big free trip. Either coupon in this issue can be used, the candidate nominating herself or a friend nominating her.

The coupons are merely inserted as matter of convenience, and neither one is necessary, for any lady of sixteen years of age or upwards and unmarried can write "Tour Editor" Guardian, Charlottetown, stating that she will be a candidate for the big free trip to Boston, New York, &c., and it will be just as satisfactory. All nominations should be forwarded without delay, so that when the list is published some days later the friends of each candidate will be thus advised and in a position to give their votes and support.

All young ladies everywhere would enjoy the trip and thus should nominate, as there is an old saying that "the unexpected always happens," and even those who may think it doubtful if they can be elected should nominate, and thus they may be one of the fortunate eight. The entire party will have transportation tickets, hotels, meals, and sight seeing, all free, and what is best of all not a care or thought as to what "will come next" on the trip, for that will be looked after in a most competent and painstaking manner by a member of the Guardian staff and his wife. Just think of the delights of a trip of unalloyed pleasure without any expense to the participants.

Tomorrow's issue will give most encouraging information as to the value of ballots etc., the first one of which will appear in Monday's issue, and the way to roll up hundreds of thousands of votes to be successfully elected to this big free trip which will be without a parallel in Provincial journalistic enterprise.

No nomination fee required, not even a new subscription, only the consent of the contestant being necessary.

Charlottetown and Royalty will form a district, and the two young lady residents therein who receive the largest number of votes will enjoy the trip.

Queen's County, not including Charlottetown and Royalty will form a district, and the two young lady residents therein who obtain the largest number of votes will enjoy the trip.
