CALLED TO LE PAS, MAN.: Mr. Orville B. Darrach of Kensington, who has been in an official capacity with the Maritime Foundation Co. at Borden, P.E.I., which is nearly finished with the plans, received a telegram recently from the Montreal branch of the company asking him to proceed soon to a large contract of airfield construction in the northern Manitoba territory. His new position will be more lucrative and consequently more responsible. It is obvious that his services at Borden were duly appreciated. -K.

KENSINGTON BUSY: The ham of industry and transportation is very noticeable in Kensington. Being a six road centre, there is much traffic into and through the town. The street committee attend assiduously to the grading of streets and building of new sidewalks. A new sidewalk is being laid at present on the Malpeque road portion of Main Street past the churches and King George Halls. Building and remodeling is going on apace. There are three fine restaurants and refreshment parlors, transient tourists may be accommodated quickly and reasonably. The remodelled "Nellie's Restaurant" has a special ox-bow counter designed primarily for quick service. People are heeding the advice and admonishment of Governor Bernard to orient and beautify their premises. The future for Kensington looks bright. -K.

PRESENTATION: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dennis, nee Edna MacInnis, were waited upon at their home at Margate on Friday evening, June 25th. Inman-Magee Wedding

The marriage of Miss Doris Betty Magee, daughter of Mrs. Frank Huestis, Summerside, and the late C. Stanley Magee, Daytona Beach, Florida, and Mr. Stirling Weston Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Warren Inman Hampton, P. E. I., was solemnized in the First Baptist Church, Summerside last evening at 7 P.M. Rev. Ernest J. Barras officiating, the double ring ceremony being used.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with lupines, peonies and ferns. Mrs. William E. Forbes, Summerside, cousin of the groom, presided at the organ and the full church choir very beautifully rendered "O Perfect Love" and "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden". The guests were shown to their seats by Mr. Sheldon Cameron, Albany, and Mr. Harry Crossman, Summerside.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, Mr. Frank Huestis, looked charming in a floor-length gown of net over white nylon taffeta, with a finger-tip veil held in place with a haze of orange blossoms. The dress was made with train effect net over taffeta skirt, plain fitted bodice, with long pointed sleeves and net yoke. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of Bettertime red roses. Mr. Garth MacLean, Lot 16, was best man, and the bridesmaid was Miss Mina Dye, Summerside. She wore a gown of pale pink nylon taffeta, pink coronet of pale pink rosebuds, shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of Tallman roses.

Little Misses Pauline Leard and Fred Crossman, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They were daintily attired in floor-length dresses of white taffeta, with blue sashes and matching headsets and carried nosegays of mixed flowers. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Huestis chose a two-piece black and white model with white embroidered top with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore black crepe with French lace trimming, black and white accessories and corsage of pink roses. After the ceremony upwards of seventy guests were received at "The Birch-Hill", where the bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake, white tapers and a bouquet of columbine.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. E. J. Barras, and responded to by the groom. Miss Anna Harris was in charge of the guest book and the bride's bouquet was caught by the bride's cousin, Miss Norma Leard.

Immediately following the reception the happy young couple left by motor for Onset Beach, Cape Cod, and The White Mountains, where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride looked very attractive in her going away suit of aqua wool with swing back coat and black accessories. Her corsage was white gardenias.

Upon their return they will reside at their home 4 Hillcrest Avenue, Charlottetown.
