

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

SYMPATHY EXTENDED—The sympathy of the Summerside friends and congregation of the Baptist Church is extended to Mrs. Wilson, widow of Rev. H. B. Wilson, pastor of the Baptist Church, in the death of her mother, Mrs. Cox, who passed away at her home in Truro, N. S., on Friday evening. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon.—S.

M. T. D. A. Purves, Halifax, is in the province at the present time investigating for the Dominion Government various proposed projects for unemployment relief. Several schemes, including highway building projects are being looked into, but the whole matter is still in a state of investigation. Mr. Purves states. Up to the present Prince Edward Island has been continuing this year the unfinished projects which began last year. Unemployment in Nova Scotia also has done well. Mr. Purves was formerly connected with the Nova Scotia Department of Highways arrived in the city Saturday evening. He has been looking after unemployment relief and relief projects in Nova Scotia for the Dominion Government for some time.

The officers of the P. E. I. Light Horse tendered a complimentary dinner to their newly appointed Honorary Colonel, His Honour Maj. R. H. Duvar, Lt. Col. F. I. Andrew the M. C. DeBlols at the Hamilton National Hotel on Saturday night. After the toast to His Majesty had been proposed by the Mess President, Major R. H. Duvar, Lt. Col. F. I. Andrew and announced the commanding Col. DeBlols and after extending a warm welcome to him called upon his officers to drink a toast to their new Colonel. His Honour in reply expressed a very real appreciation of the honor done him and hoped that he would prove an asset to the unit, and extend his utmost cooperation in everything tending to the welfare of his new regiment.

Prof. L. W. Shaw left Saturday morning for Toronto to attend a conference on Adult Education which is called to meet there Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. It is expected that about two hundred educationalists from all parts of Canada will be in attendance at this conference which is being held under the auspices of the Dept. of Extension of Toronto University. It is hoped that the Adult Education movement, which has been going quite well throughout Canada, will receive considerable impetus as a result of this gathering. Prof. Shaw who is to report on the survey work which he has been carrying on throughout the Maritime Provinces during the past winter will go first to Ottawa to meet the Canadians who attend to meet the previous to attending the Toronto Conference.

In the death recently of Mrs. Mary E. MacWilliams of Cambridge, Mass., the community has lost a very good citizen and the congregation of the Church of Scotland to which she belonged a most faithful and esteemed member. After an illness of one week, she passed peacefully into rest. The deceased leaves to mourn for her, three sons, Theodore of Somerville, Mass., Norman of Cambridge, and Franklin of Detroit, with one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Fisher, and her two sons of Cambridge, together with several brothers and sisters. Mr. MacWilliams died about ten years ago. They were both natives of Cape Traverse and went to the U. S. shortly after their marriage, many years ago.

WEDDED AT SILVER FALLS—Silver Falls United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Florence Lella Watt, youngest daughter of Charles Watt of Castalia, Grand Manan, and the late Mrs. Watt, was united in marriage to John Edward Llewellyn Watson, son of Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Watson of Silver Falls. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father in the presence of relatives and friends who filled the church. Girl friends of the bride adorned the church with ferns, potted plants and spring flowers. The bridal couple stood an arch of birch boughs during the ceremony. As the church choir preceded the bride party up the aisle they sang as a procession, "O Perfect Love." During the signing of the register Donald Bustin sang "O Promise Me," Maurice McIntyre, organist, played Mendelssohn's wedding march at the close of the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Allan Bustin, looked winsome in a gown of pale blue pointe d'esprit over pale blue silk with hat, shoes and stockings white. She carried a bouquet of fern, carnations and maidenhair fern. Miss Vera Bustin was bridesmaid and wore a pretty dress of canary yellow silk crepe with hat and accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and daffodils. Grover Crothers was groomsmen. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a wedding trip by automobile to Prince Edward Island. On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Watson will reside in Castalia, Grand Manan.—St. John, N. B., exchange. Mr. Watson was born at Montague, when his father was pastor of the Methodist Church of that place.

TUESDAY

An adjourned meeting of the Summerside town council was held last night with Mayor Lidstone presiding and all Councilors present except Coun. Grady. Motion was passed to issue bonds for $40,000 payable half yearly at 4 per cent for permanent street work and the purchase of the airport. A motion was passed appointing R. B. Rankin inspector of permanent street work. The matter relating to the purchase by the Irving Oil Company of Queen's Wharf was laid over. A motion confirming purchase of airport was passed with Coun. arrangers dissenting. Meeting adjourned.

Mr. J. Everett Phillips was the guest of honor at a select gathering at the Crown Restaurant on Water Street, Summerside, on Thursday evening when a number of citizens tendered him a farewell on the eve of his departure for London, N.B., where he has a position with the Crown Life Insurance Co. at their head office for the Maritime Division.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED—The class mates of Miss Frances J. Dougherty and Mr. L. James Taylor, both of Victoria, P. E. I., were pleasantly surprised on Convocation Day by the announcement of their marriage which took place on November 11, 1933. Mrs. Taylor received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Dalhousie University this spring, and Mr. Taylor received the Bachelor of Science degree from the Nova Scotia Technical College. He was also presented with the Alumni medal which is awarded for personality, scholarship and service. Mr. Taylor will reside in Halifax, where Mr. Taylor has accepted a position.

SUCCESSFUL ISLAND GRADUATE—The "Evening Telegram," Toronto, publishes the names and pictures of the twenty-six graduates who received their diplomas from Emmanuel College, which is the largest of the seven United Church Colleges in Canada. One of the twenty-six graduates is a P. E. I. student, L. D. MacDonald, Kilmuir, Alberton. Mr. MacDonald, who is now in the province at the present time, in the course of his tour of the Dominion, Col. Munro states, he is consulting provincial auditors and provincial treasurers on the plan for uniformity arrived at during the conference last September. Col. Munro, who arrived last evening from Halifax, will be in the city for several days, during which he will confer with provincial officials. He will then leave for Fredericton, and thence will go to Quebec.

In this province, Mr. W. E. Massey, Provincial Auditor, states that the 1933 public accounts were set up on the uniform basis as requested by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The Charlottetown Male Chorus gave its third concert for this year last night in the Prince of Wales College Hall. The delightful musical event, which was heard by an audience which nearly filled the hall, was held under the distinguished patronage of His Honour Lieutenant Governor George D. DeBlols and Mrs. DeBlols, the Premier, Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan and Mrs. MacMillan, and His Worship Mayor Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated on Monday afternoon at 7 o'clock in the Convent Chapel at Summerside when Miss Anna Wedge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Wedge was united in marriage to Mr. George Gallant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Gallant of Summerside. The nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. C. J. MacLellan, V. G., in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride was prettily gowned in a blue satin dress with picture hat to match and grey accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Vera, who wore a dress of grey crepe with hat to match. Mr. Reginald Gallant ably supported the groom. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate relatives. The happy young couple left by motor on a wedding tour of the Island. Mr. and Mrs. Gallant will reside in Summerside.—S.

On Monday evening May 14 a goodly number of neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Affleck, Albany, to bid them farewell, ere their departure for their new home. The evening was very pleasantly spent with vocal and instrumental music and cards, after which the ladies served lunch.

Mr. U. J. Pineau then called the gathering to order, while Mr. S. M. MacKay read the following address: To Mr. and Mrs. Affleck, Jean and Margaret, on behalf of the residents of the Albany Village School District we wish to present you with this small token of our esteem and regret at your departure from our midst. With it goes our best wishes for your happiness and success in your new home. We shall miss you at our occasional gatherings; but as you will not be so far away from us, we hope to see you quite often. Mr. Affleck was taken completely by surprise but rose to the occasion and made a fitting reply on behalf of himself and Mrs. Affleck and family, and extended a cordial invitation to all to visit them in their new home. All joined in For They Are Jolly Good Fellows.

WEDNESDAY

It was with feelings of deep regret that the many friends of Richard Philip Bagnall learned of his death at his home, Hunter River, April 22nd, at the advanced age of 88 years. Although in failing health from about the first of the year, Mr. Bagnall was able to be about until within a month of his death.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Frederick Griffin took place yesterday morning from his late residence on Alley Street at 9:45 to St. Dunstan's Basilica. The pallbearers were Messrs. P. N. Manuel, Herbert Conroy, Aeneas Curley, Watson MacKinnon, Vernon Kiggins and Patrick McTague. Service at the basilica was conducted by Father C. J. O'Neil and at the grave by Father Dalton.

RETURNED FROM ENGLAND—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. MacInnis returned last evening from England, where they spent several months. While in England Mr. MacInnis suffered from shock. His friends will be glad to hear that he has sufficiently recovered to return home. Mr. and Mrs. MacInnis are registered at the Canadian National Hotel.

FUNERAL SERVICES—Funeral services for the late W. Bruce Campbell, who died in Edmonton, Alta., on May 15th, were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Irishtown, on Tuesday May 15th. Burial took place at Goodie Memorial Cemetery, Springbrook. Rev. Victor Osborne conducted the service at both house and grave. The pall bearers were: Fred Henderson, Fred Tupling, Casey, Garnet, Lorne and Edwin.

RECONSTRUCTION OF RIFLE RANGE—Reconstruction of the Kensington Rifle Range has been started this week under the direction of Mr. G. Welsh, Dominion Government engineer, and will continue for about three weeks. On Friday evening 19 men were employed. Six additional carpenters, including four returned men, will go on the job this morning. While an effort has been made to employ as many Legion members as possible, the necessary men have had to be considered and the work is being distributed on a basis of fairness to all concerned.

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Forum Ltd. was held in the Board of Trade rooms on Wednesday evening. There was a fair attendance of shareholders. The President, Dr. I. J. Yeo, occupied the chair. Formal business included the president's report and the financial statement, presented by Mr. H. S. Henderson, secretary-treasurer. A number of shareholders spoke in commendation of the work of the directors during the past year. The board of directors was re-elected for the ensuing year, as follows: Dr. I. J. Yeo, Messrs. J. P. Simmonds, H. S. Henderson, Col. D. A. MacKinnon, T. W. L. Prowse, H. A. Horne, A. C. Sinclair, W. L. MacEachern, W. H. V. Dunbar.

Mrs. MARY A. SHANK The death occurred last week at Dorchester, Mass., of Mrs. Mary A. Shank, a former well known and highly esteemed resident of Gloucester. Her husband, the late John R. Shank, predeceased her several years ago, passing away a few years after the family left Gloucester to reside in the United States. Mr. Shank had been an official of the coal company store staff in Gloucester for many years. The late Mrs. Shank was sixty-two years of age. Her death occurred on Tuesday and funeral services were held at the Greenwood Memorial Methodist Church, Dorchester, of which she was a member. Mrs. Shank was a native of Prince Edward Island.

Yesterday was a day of pleasure excursions and sport. Large numbers of people left the City for the day by many to frequent the trout streams in various parts of the province. Although conditions were not entirely favourable for fishing, some good catches are reported, and, as usual, numerous stories of the "one that got away" were being circulated. The Rocky Point ferry made its usual trips and was laden with crowds in the holiday mood. The golf season officially opened at the Belvedere Links, where several matches were played, and where numerous golfers tried out after the inactivity of winter months. Two baseball games at Victoria Park were witnessed by large crowds of fans. A few hardy individuals even ventured into the chilly waters of the harbor for their first plunge.

ISLAND LADY DEAD—Mrs. Nell McDougall, Upper Prince Street, received the sad news that her aunt, Mrs. E. Learned, (E. McNevin) had passed away yesterday morning at the home of her nephew George McNevin, M.L.O. Lot 9. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

POST NUPITAL SHOWER—On Tuesday evening May 15th, a jolly group of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Batt to tender them a miscellaneous shower. A large basket laden with gifts was brought into the living-room, and the numerous parcels of silver, cut-glass, etc., were opened by Miss Connie Coyle assisted by Miss Florence Baker. The amusing and witty verses which were read by Miss Doris Harris, caused much laughter and merriment. Mr. and Mrs. Batt thanked their many friends for their beautiful gifts after which a dainty lunch was served before the guests departed wishing the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

FRIDAY PENSIONS OFFICIALS HERE—Mr. J. P. Connolly, Halifax, and Mr. B. Bray, Toronto, officials of the Pensions Tribunal, are in the city at the present time in conference with Mr. L. W. Lowther, pensions advocate.

BEREAVEMENT—Death came suddenly to the mother of Rev. W. A. Paterson, Cavendish, P. E. I., who resides at Upper Kennetcook, Hants County, Nova Scotia. Sympathies of the community have been extended to him in his sad bereavement.

CONVOCATION DANCE—The graduating class of Prince of Wales College held its Convocation Dance last evening at the I. O. O. F. Hall. There were about 250 in attendance. The enjoyable dances were choreographed by Mrs. W. J. MacDonald and Mrs. J. F. MacMillan. Elliot's Orchestra was in attendance to supply the dance music. Lunch was served and dancing continued till a late hour.

DUTCH SUPPER—A most enjoyable Dutch Supper sponsored by Zion C. H. I. T. was held in Zion Hall yesterday afternoon. The hall was tastefully decorated in C. G. I. T. colors, blue and white. The caterer was Miss M. G. novel and afforded the chaperones an opportunity of choosing their own menu. The girls serving in the cafeteria were dressed in Dutch costume which presented a very original appearance. The tea-tables were suitably decorated with the national colors of the girls in C. G. I. T. costume. During the afternoon appropriate music was played by Miss Daisy Swan.

There passed away in Kensington last evening Mr. Earl Kennedy, for some years manager of Kennedy Bros. Mr. Kennedy was in his fortieth year and had been ill for about one month with pleurisy. He was a native of Kensington, the son of the late James and Mary Kennedy. He was a busy business man, and his early demise is a distinct loss to the community. There are left to cherish his memory, his widow who was before her marriage, Carrie Easter, daughter of the late George Easter of Kensington and seven children, namely: James, residing in Prince Edward Island; Malcolm and Shirley all at home, also three brother, Preston and Charles of the firm of Kennedy Brothers, Kensington, and Dr. Roy Kennedy of Alberton, and two sisters, Miss Rachael and Miss Marion at home, and to whom the funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Presbyterian Church of which the deceased was a member.—S.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED—Many old friends in Summerside and Berensville will regret to learn of the death in Calgary on Sunday, May 13th, of Miss Jeannie G. Price, at 55 years of age, after a long illness. The deceased lady was the daughter of the late Robert and Mrs. Price, who formerly resided in Summerside and later in Summerside. Miss Jeannie was a registered nurse and practiced her profession in the United States. For some years before her death she was nursing in California. She will be kindly remembered by many old friends for her beautiful character. She was well known on the Island and in many parts of Massachusetts. Much sympathy goes out to her sisters, who are left to mourn, and are as follows: Priscilla, Mrs. William Reynolds, of Calgary; Orefia, Mrs. William Cameron, in the Eastern States; Bertha, Mrs. Charles Barbour, of Winnipeg; Gertrude, Mrs. Charles Sample, Calgary; Lois, Mrs. Willard Lowther, Calgary; Ruth, Mrs. Paterson, of Calgary. Interment took place in Calgary, where the late Mr. and Mrs. Price are buried.—S.
