ALLIES CONTINUE

immediate sea approaches to the great port of Naples have been seized by allied naval units, allied headquarters announced Saturday.

They are Ischia, 16 miles southwest of Naples, Ponza, 65 miles west of Naples and Procida, 12 miles southwest of the port. A special communique announced the taking of Ischia, which fell Thursday. The regular Saturday communique told of the capture of the other islands last Wednesday.

(Berlin broadcast an announcement Saturday that the Germans had occupied the Island of Elba, Napoleon's first home in exile, 32 miles east of Corsica and eight miles from the Italian coast. Seven thousand Italian troops were claimed by the Nazis to have surrendered there.)

Bombers and fighters of the Allies' northwest African air forces, operating in skies swept clear of enemy opposition during the week end lashed out once more at German air bases in the vicinity of Rome in a continuation of aerial attacks similar to those on the Naples-Salerno area before allied assault troops landed there.

Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's 8th army advanced at a rapid pace. His column pushing up the coastal highway already had joined with the 5th army at the southern edge of the Salerno bridgehead near Agropoli and oficial reports did not say how far the swift thrust had carried into the mountainous interior where enemy troops and motor convoys were fleeing toward the north.

The Sunday communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters also failed to indicate whether any allied troops yet had landed on the Island of Sardinia, surrendered officially to the allies along with the Italian mainland Sept. 8.

At any rate, the German flight across the 7 1-2-mile-wide Strait of Bonifacio to Corsica paved the way for easy allied occupation of Sardinia, which long has been a cherished goal.

coats with fatigue caps stuck in their pockets, as they sat next to the worried Italian general.

With lights dimmed, the car crept through Rome's blacked-out streets for a quarter-mile, when suddenly a sentry challenged. The car halted and the sentry walked over, flashed a light into the backseat of the car. The Italian general, feigning casualness, which certainly he did not feel, produced credentials which satisfied the sentry and he allowed them to proceed. This was repeated seven or eight times enroute to Badoglio's home.

Badoglio, in civilian clothes, received the Americans in the study of his ornate villa. The Marshal, whose personal situation was highly dangerous because of the armistice plans, looked tired and old.

A brief and pointed conversation followed, at the end of which Badoglio took Taylor's hand and, with tears in his eyes, said:—

"I swear on my honor and my 55 years as a soldier my loyalty to the allied cause."

Taylor and Gardiner were driven back to their quarters again but were stopped frequently enroute by Italian sentries. Taylor then hurriedly wrote a message to send by previously arranged (radio) communications. He and Gardiner then settled down to await further instructions from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. They were informed to hurry back to Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters. Passage by plane had already been arranged.

Taylor suggested that an Italian general return with them. An interpreter accompanied him.

A motor car drove into the courtyard and Taylor, Gardiner and the Italian general quickly stepped inside from the portico.

Just before they turned into Centocello airport their car passed a squad of German infantry marching along the road so close, Taylor told me, "that I could have reached out the window and tapped them on the shoulder—Needless to say I didn't!"

The plane flew high and only once enroute another aircraft was spotted in the sky. It was an American fighter. The plane landed safely at a North African airfield after a two-hour trip from Rome.

P. J. Noel Baker, parliamentary secretary to the War Transport Ministry, said in a London address that "the war is won, or will be won very soon."

SAINT JOHN, N B., Sept. 19—(CP)—St. Croix edged Saint John Eagles 8-7 Saturday afternoon in the opening game of the New Brunswick Junior Baseball finals. The second game, and a third if necessary, will be played at St. Stephen.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning worship service the Rev. Donald Noble who is taking the duties of the Rev. I. Judson Levy during Mr. Levy's absence, took as the subject of his sermon "One Result of Prayer." The opening words of the 18th chapter of the gospel of Saint Luke are "and he spake a parable unto them, to the end that men ought always to pray and not to faint." One modern translation has the expression "men ought always to pray and not to go to pieces" We are living among conditions that tend toward personal disintegration against which the sure defense is prayer, constant, faithful and persistent, the spirit of friendship and association with the Most High. Prayer is a necessity to strong, healthy, victorious living. Through prayer comes the courage and patience to protect us from the disintegration of pride, self sufficiency, moral confusion. Bitterness, discouragement, sorrow may menace our lives with life at loose ends and cross purposes. Through communion with God in prayer are our lives preserved in consistent wholeness.

The anthem of the morning was Handel's "A Prayer." The Church School met for its study session at 2.30 P.M. Evening worship was observed at 7 P.M. with sermon by Mr. Noble on "Regret." Farrant's anthem "Lord for Thy Tender Mercy's Sake" was sung by the choir. LAC. Arthur Lawson in his solo, gave fine expression to the selection from Elijah. "Lord God of Abraham."

The music of the day was directed by John Inch, Mus., Bac., organist and choirmaster.

In Memoriam

In memory of our father Wm. F. Morrison, who died Sept. 12, 1941.

He little thought when leaving home,
That he no more return
That he in death so soon would sleep,
..And leave us here to mourn.
To think we could not say good bye
Will always bring regret
But the hearts that always loved you
..Are the ones that can't forget..

Ottawa Gives Oats, Barley, Flax Bonuses

OTTAWA, Sept. 19—(CP)—Hon. J.A. MacKinnon, Trade Minister, has announced that at time of delivery prairie farmers will receive payments of 10 cents a bushel on oats and 15 cents a bushel on barley in addition to market prices to give the farmer "full benefit" on exports to the United States.

Mr. MacKinnon also announced that the fixed price to farmers for flaxseed has been raised 25 cents a bushel to $2.50, basis 1 C.W. flaxseed in store at Fort William.

The arrangements cover oats, barley and flaxseed marketed during the crop year of 1943-44, which began August 1.

The additional payments on oats and barley, said Mr. MacKinnon, represent a "guaranteed initial advance" against equalization fees being collected by the Canadian Wheat Board on exports of those grains to the United States.

No change has been made in ceiling prices on oats and barley which remain at 51 1-2 cents for oats and 64 1-2 cents for barley basis Fort William.

Expected Profits

The increase of 25 cents in the price of flaxseed, bringing fixed and overall price to the farmer up to $2.50 per bushel, also represents an adjustment by reason of expected profits on export sales to the United States.

"Provided United States demand for flaxseed continues active and prices remain close to present levels, the Wheat Board is likely to realize an average of approximately $2.50 per bushel on sales in Canada and for export of flaxseed acquired from farmers during the present crop year," said Mr. MacKinnon.

Crushers and other domestic users of flaxseed will continue to be protected by ceiling prices on their purchases.

There is an equalization fee on exports of oats and barley to the United States. Under arrangements now in effect the proceeds from these fees, which are collected on the portion of grain exported, are paid into separate accounts for distribution to farmers on the basis of all oats and barley delivered by them either for sale on the domestic market or for export during the current crop year. In this way the farmer receives the full benefit of the export price on oats and barley shipped to the United States.

WET WEATHER DELAYS HARVESTING — Wet weather has been delaying grain harvesting operations in this province. The bulk of the grain has been cut, it was learned over the week-end, but most of it is still in the fields. Very few potatoes have been harvested yet and indications are that not many will be taken from the ground this week as most farmers are concerned just now with getting their grain under cover. Potato digging began at this time last year and then was delayed for a whole week as the province was visited by one of the heaviest rain storms for many years. Farmers report that they are behind with their field work generally because of the weather. They said they had been able to get only a small amount of fall plowing done.

SALVATION ARMY SERVICES —Special services were conducted in the Salvation Army by Lieut.-Colonel Hobkirk of Chicago U.S.A. assisted by Major and Mrs. Green of St. John, N.B. The Service in the afternoon was held in the Baptist Church when the Colonel delivered a lecture entitled "Blacksheep." The evening Service was held in Salvation Army Citadel at which a large crowd was present. The speaker based his remarks on the words found in Matt. 21: 3. The Lord hath need of thee. The Colonel sang a number of his favourite songs with the accompaniment of the banjo. The Colonel leaves tomorrow for Newfoundland.

SHOOTING SEASON OPENS. The duck shooting season in this Province opened today and for hours before dawn gunners were on their way to favorite spots. Not even gasoline rationing, worn out tires and hard to obtain ammunition was keeping them home. Several men, dressed for the marshes, were observed getting into cars in the city shortly after midnight. Others were preparing to leave later, in time to be at their favorite blinds by daybreak. The weather was favorable—at least it was fine—and good bags were anticipated by most gunners.

INJURED BY EXPLOSION — Junior Murnaghan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murnaghan, City, was burned about the face and eyes yesterday as the result of a slight explosion caused when he held a lighted match to the gas tank of an old wrecking truck. The wrecking truck is one of a number of vehicles partly destroyed when the Seaman's Auto Body Works building was razed by fire some time ago.

An appropriate address was then read by Mrs. Frank Lund and Mr. Allison Mutch made the presentation of a generous gift of money. Ralph replied in his usual pleasing manner thanking all for their good wishes and tangible expression of good will. The bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor by Mrs. Vernon Noy and Mrs. Preston Rackham to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Ruth Dickienson and presented with a bouquet of roses by her little niece Miss Muriel MacNeill. ST. JAMES CHURCH

Preaching last evening on the text "And Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day" (Genesis 32:24) the Minister, the Rev'd T.H. Bussell Somers said, If we were novelists we could write the conversation between Jacob-of-the-sky and Jacob-of-the-earth. No, we would not need to be novelists. The earth-born man speaks and his radiant counterpart each time answers: "I am good enough" —"Good enough? Not even good enough for God until the day break and the shadows flee away!"

"But it does not matter"—"Doesn't it? Just now there is nothing else that matters more. "Other men do it"—"That's no excuse for you. The line of judgment is not horizontal, from man to man. It is vertical from man to God." "But I will make it right in other ways"—"As if you ever could. The past is past—for you like water spilled on the ground." A wrong ought to die of old age in twenty years. But in the memory nothing dies. We think we have forgotten. Then a postmark on an envelope, or a strain of music, or the mention of a name and the whole thing comes back.

The honour of being perhaps the biggest Scout in Canada goes to Chief of Police Horace E. McLeese of Saint John, N. B. The Chief stands well over six feet and weighs upwards of 230 pounds. He was invested as a Scout by Chief Executive Commissioner John A. Stiles of Ottawa, while the latter was on a tour of the Maritimes.

Sir Percy Everett, Deputy Chief Scout of the Empire planted some of the garden seeds sent this year by Canadian Scouts to their British brothers. In a letter to Canadian officials Sir Percy said: "I have just been enjoying some of the lettuces grown from Canadian seed. They were distinctly better than anything I have been able to produce in my garden from home-grown seed."

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

The morning service opened with a hymn of thankfulness as we sang "Safely through another week God has brought us on our way." Professor Kendall presided at the organ and assisted by a choir of 30 voices rendered the Anthem "Rejoice in the Lord"—Elvey.

Rev. T.E. McLennan's sermon was on Christian Loyalty, Matt 6.33 Jesus teaching about the Kingdom.

(1). His recognition of the close relationship of the every day necessities of life to the Kingdom.

(2). The futility of making our material necessities the end in our living.

(3). He put in the place of such thought and action, the Kingdom of God and the justice of God.

(4). Seek these—Make them the end of all our efforts and the material necessities with spiritual fulness are ours—This is the great call of Christ to you individually. This is the call of God to our age.

In the evening Rev. Mr. McLennan spoke on the text Romans, 12-1 and 2 "Renewing your mind and body"—Our bodies are the instruments of our minds. Physically if in normal health, they are being constantly renewed. All the organs and elements in our bodies are always in need of renewal. Our minds are the Guardians of our bodies. Every movement every action of the body is directed by the mind. Paul exhorts the Romans to offer their bodies as a living sacrifice that is, that all the efforts and acts of the body must be directed to the service of God and man. This can be done if our minds are being renewed in the Spirit of Jesus Christ. That is getting the mind of Christ in his realistic approach, to sin and human need—to God and his love.

The musical program included a Solo by Mr. A.R. Gillis and an Anthem "Give to our God immortal Praise."

Next Sunday is Rally Day—The choir will consist of boys and girls from the Sunday School and the Girl Guides. There will be no classes in the Sunday School.
