SOCIAL GATHERING AT YOK —On August 21st Mrs. Herbert Vessey invited her family, her brothers and their wives to spend the evening with their cousin, Mrs. Whitehead, the former Florrie Seller, who was leaving next day for her home in Attleboro, Mass. It is sixteen years since Florrie last visited P. E. I., and although she saw many changes and missed a number of familiar faces, she enjoyed every day of her visit to York and Covehead where she spent many happy days of her childhood. The evening passed quickly with jokes, reminiscence and pleasant conversation. After a bountiful supper, all joined in a lively sing-song, ending with Auld Lang Syne; God Be With You Till We Meet Again, and The King. Then wishing Florrie a safe journey home and hoping to see her soon again, goodbyes were said and all wended their way home.

A very pretty August wedding took place at St. Andrew's Aug. 13, when Margaret Mellissa, daughter of Mr. Joseph Campbell and the late Mrs. Campbell of Point de Roche became the bride of Joan Wilfred youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Morrison of Savage Harbor. DONATION ACKNOWLEDGED —Mr. Joseph J. P. O'Brien, City, has received a letter of acknowledgment from the Royal Alexandra School, London, England for a cheque of 47 pounds. This school takes care of orphan boys and girls and the secretary writes in deep appreciation of the splendid gift.

—SLIGHT FIRE AT HOSPITAL —A slight fire caused by a short circuit broke out in the developing room of the x-ray department on the third floor of the Prince County Hospital about nine o'clock yesterday morning. The blaze was quickly extinguished by firemen with the aid of chemical extinguishers. There was some damage to the wall of the room and some smoke damage. As this particular room is on the extreme north end of the building away from the wards none of the patients were disturbed.—S.

BRIDAL SHOWER —Miss Bertha Thompson, R N, one of the season's brides-to-be was entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Mabel Grant, Mt. Edward Road on Friday evening last. Preceding the opening of the gifts a short dialogue was presented by the Misses Catherine and Adele Beck and Master Vincent Beck portraying life on the farm The humorous verses accompanying the gifts were read by Miss Charlotte Gordon. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and contests after which lunch was served by the hostess.

ENJOYED VISIT — Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bell and daughter Miss Laura have left on return to their home in Seattle, Washington. This has been their first visit to their old home for the past twenty years, and spent a very pleasant vacation visiting friends and relatives in Abney, Murray Harbor, and surrounding districts Mr. and Mrs. Bell saw many changes in their old home district. But the beauty of the Province has not lost any of its charm. Mr. Bell is one of the many successful Islanders abroad, who is firmly established in business, and is looking forward to visiting his old home again in the near future. —Patriot please copy.

GYROS MEET—The Gyro Club of Charlottetown last night held its opening meeting of the season after the summer holiday season. The meeting, held at the Charlottetown was largely attended and was presided over by Dr. Eric Found. Reports were received and an interesting account of the District (6) Convention which was held in Halifax last month was given by Dr. Found, Morton Dew, Sidney Green, Alex McIsaac and Earl Taylor. Plans for the coming season were discussed and among the activities planned are the continued support of the Anti-Tuberculosis work and continued interest in the orphanages and the welfare of the children. Professor William Bailey of Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, was a guest.

—BRIDAL SHOWER. — A group of friends gathered at the home of the bride's father Ernest S. Graham, Gaspereaux on Friday evening, August 23, 1946, and tendered a shower in the honor of Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacPherson, who were recently married in Ottawa. Many beautiful gifts and generous envelopes, were received, of which Mrs. George A. Graham and Mrs. Walter King opened and Mrs. Lloyd Reid read the verses. After thanking their friends in a few well chosen words, some of the young people caught the happy couple and gave them a good bouncing. Later a delicious lunch was served by the ladies and the evening was spent in dancing music being supplied chiefly by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kemp. A good time being enjoyed by all, the crowd departed in the wee hours of the morning, with good wishes and luck to the newlyweds.

On Friday evening, Sept. 6, the residents of York community gathered in York Hall to honour Miss Lillian Crockett, a bride-to-be and showered her with many beautiful gifts. To the strains of the Wedding March played by Mr. Arthur Vessey, the bride-to-be was led to the seat of honour by Miss Helen Lewis. Then a basket piled high with presents was carried in by Marjorie and Frankie Lewis, acting as bride and groom. The gifts were opened by Misses Anita Lewis and Aletha Brown, and accompanying verses were read by Miss Gladys Crockett and arranged on the table by Miss Mary Watts, after which the bride-to-be made a fitting reply thanking all for their kind words of appreciation and good wishes. Then all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow". Then lunch was served and sequins and brown accessories. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses with baby's breath and maiden hair fern. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Edne Mann who wore a street length frock in Miami blue wool crepe, black hat and other accessories in black and carried a bouquet of white roses with baby's breath and maiden hair fern. The best man was Mr. David Clark brother of the groom. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served the bridal party at Mulberry Lodge, Summerside. The following morning the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in Cape Breton Island and other parts of Nova Scotia. For travelling the bride donned a wool dress of romance blue with black accessories. Before her marriage the bride was the popular assistant day operator at the Kensington branch of the Island Telephone Co. Ltd. Requiem High Mass for Walter Lewis Fraser, 61, formerly of 1026 19th Ave., E., who died Wednesday evening after a lengthly illness, will be celebrated Monday at 9.30 a.m. in St. Anne's Church. Interment will follow in St. Mary's cemetery. Prayers will be held in Park Memorial chapel Sunday evening at 8.30.

Mr. Fraser was born in St. Peter's Bay, P.E.I., and had lived in Calgary for 40 years before moving to Vancouver a month ago after his retirement early this year. He had been with the C.P.R. since coming to Calgary and for the last six years had been on the Calgary-Red Deer run.

At her home in Cape Traverse, on Saturday, August 3rd, there passed to her rest, Mrs. William Pye, in her sixty-ninth year.

The late Mrs. Pye was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Crossman of Little Shemogue, N.B., and was twice married. She was first married to George Irving of Cape Traverse. To this marriage there were two sons Dewey and Frank, and one daughter Lyla, Mrs. Ernest Hazard, all predeceased her. In her second marriage, besides a sorrowing husband, she leaves one son, Wilfred of North Dartmouth, Mass.

The death occurred at her home, New Annan, on August 29th of Mrs. John J. McKinnon, leaving a sorrowing husband and one daughter Bertha, who tenderly cared for her mother during her long and painful illness. The deceased was a most estimable lady of quiet and reserved disposition. About six months ago she was taken ill and for the past month was unable to leave her bed, but despite the best medical attention and loving care she passed peacefully away. She bore the burden of her painful disease with that Christian fortitude that is attained by an exemplary moral life. She was frequently visited by her Pastor, Rev. R. F. MacDonald who administered to her last rites of Holy Mother Church.

She was a daughter of the late Daniel and Mrs. McInnis of Centerville, Bedeque, and was born there seventy-nine years ago. Also surviving are three brothers, Ambrose of Summerside; John, New Annan and Joseph of Franklin, Mass., who came to visit her in August and remained for two weeks. Three brothers and a sister predeceased her.

At a Service of Witness held in connection with the Synod and addressed by Most Rev. Geoffrey F. Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, Mr. Walter L. MacNutt, formerly of this city, conducted the massed choir of 700 voices from Anglican churches in Winnipeg.

A WELCOME VISITOR — Mr and Mrs. Wallace L. Higgins, 16 Kent St. have as their welcome guest Mr. Higgins' eldest sister Mrs. Edith Morrison, Grand Prairie Alta. It is almost fifty years since Mrs. Morrison and her husband, the late Kenneth K. Morrison, formerly of Eldon, P. E. I., left this Province to settle in Western Canada and thirty three years since she last visited her home in this City.

—AFTERNOON TEA AND SHOWER — Mrs. William Morrison and Miss Marjorie Newcombe were joint hostesses at an afternoon tea and shower at Hillcrest Lodge on Wednesday afternoon of last week in honor of Miss Ruth Campbell who is to be a September bride. The many beautiful gifts were opened by Mrs. Morrison and the verses were read by Miss Newcombe. Miss Campbell in a few gracious words thanked her friends for so thoughtfully remembering her. After all joined in singing, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" tea was served by Mrs. Arthur McEwen.—S.

The two days' distribution of new ration books in Charlottetown and Summerside terminated at 9 o'clock last night with gratifying results. In Charlottetown over 20,000 books were issued, representing an increase of about 2,000 over last year, while Summerside reported a distribution of almost 7,000, or about 600 more than in 1945.

The death occurred yesterday at his home of one of Summerside's most distinguished and esteemed citizens in the person of Mr. Winsloe J. Lidstone, a former Mayor of the town. Since his illness of two years ago caused by a heart condition which necessitated his resigning from the office of Mayor, he had been in failing health and remained at his home. Three weeks ago his condition became more serious, terminating in his death at 8.30 yesterday morning.

Mr. Lidstone was 70 years of age, having been born at Cape Wolfe, Prince County, on July 4, 1876. He was a son of the late Edward and Mrs. Margaret Cook Lidstone, both of that place.

Mr. H. C. Bohaker, accompanied by Mrs. Bohaker leaves today for Murray Bay, Quebec, to attend a Sun Life agency conference at which there will be representation from all parts of the continent. After the conference they will spend a week in Montreal, returning home about the end of the month. In addition to Mr. Bohaker, who is unit supervisor for Sun Life in the Province, Mr. J. A. Moore, local agent, will also attend.

Mrs. Annabelle (McIntyre) Johnson, wife of Victor Johnson of 34 Cottage St. Chelsea, Mass., and daughter of the late James and Christine McIntyre of North River, P. E. I., died Sept. 6th in the Memorial hospital following an illness of a week.

She was born in North River Prince Edward Island and had been a resident of Chelsea for 44 years. She attended the Mt. Bellingham Methodist church and was active in many of the church organizations She was also an active member of Faith Rebekah lodge.

Surviving in addition to her husband, are a daughter, Pfc. Mildred I. Blanchard, stationed at Westover field, and a son, Foster C. Brown of Watertown. She also leaves four grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Crossman of Newton, and Mrs. Mame Duffet of Winslow, Prince Edward Island, and a brother, Duncan McIntyre of Brackley, Prince Edward Island.

Services were held at 173 Shurtleff St., with Rev. Lloyd A. Duren of the Mt. Bellingham church officiating. Burial was in Pilgrim Lawn cemetery, Peabody.

WEDDING BELLS — The wedding of Mrs. Clara Adelaide Jay, the former Miss Adelaide Mellick, 991 North Main Street, (Waterbury, Connecticut) and William Francis Pierce, Elmira, Prince Edward Island, Canada, was an event of Saturday at 3 p.m. in the Second Congregational Church. Rev. Alan M. Fairbank officiated. The bride wore a peacock blue dress, brown accessories and a corsage of rubinas. As maid of honor, Miss Ruth Callahan was attired in a two-piece ensemble combining a pink tunic and a black skirt, a black hat and accessories and a corsage of rubinas. Harvie D. Jay served as best man. Following a small dinner at Waverly Inn, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York and New Jersey, the bride wearing a grey suit with black accessories. They will make their home in Elmira, P. E. Island, Canada. Mr. Pierce is associated with the Canada Post Office Department.

FAREWELL PARTY — On the evening of August 26th the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Minnie Webster and her son Henry, gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs. Bordon Boswall, Dunstaffnage, to bid them farewell on their departure to their new home in the United States. After the guests had assembled, Mr. Lester Kaizer spoke a few well chosen words and called upon Mrs. Rupert Godfrey to read the farewell address, Mr. Lewis Arbing presented Mrs. Webster and Henry with a well filled purse. On behalf of his mother and brother, Mr. Lemuel Webster thanked one and all for their kind remembrance on this occasion. Also thanked Mr. and Mrs. Borden Boswell for the use of their house and kindness extended to them. After which all joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. Games and contests were enjoyable by young and old. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies. After farewells were said all departed to their homes.
