Happenings of the Week

Mrs. F. J. Nash is visiting her brother Dr. Fred Miller, in Kentville, this week.

Miss Pauline Rogers, left this week to take up her studies at Acadia College, Wolfville.

It is reported that Mrs. Vernon Castle is engaged to be married to Tom Powers, of the Royal Air Force, but now appearing in "Oh Boy" in London. Mr. Powers was a friend of the late Captain Vernon Castle, and it was under the instruction of the latter that Mr. Powers began to fly. Mrs. Castle has been reported engaged many times since Captain Castle came to his death, flying in Texas, and her mother when interviewed stated she did not think there was any foundation for the present report.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. WILLIAM WRIGHT.

The death occurred in Charlottetown Thursday afternoon of Mr. William W. Wright, aged 67, a well known builder and contractor. Mr. Wright had not been in robust health for several months but he was nevertheless able to continue work and for the past three years had been employed with McDonald & Rowe in this city. About Christmas his illness took a serious turn and he was confined to his bed until death called him to his Eternal Home. Mr. Wright was a son of the late William G. Wright of this city and was one of our best citizens. He was a skilled workman and honorable and upright in all his dealings. Of cheerful and optimistic temperament, he had many warm friends who will leave with sorrow that he has passed away. There are left to mourn a widow, one daughter, Miss Florence and five sons: Gar. Leith Wright, who has been fighting overseas, Oswald, representing Gault Bros., Montreal, Bruce, in Western Canada, Fred in Wollaston, Mass., and Bert, in Beverly, Mass., also one brother Louis, and four sisters, Mrs. (Rev.) Joseph Johnston, Mrs. G. H. Holbrook, Mrs. Chas. McFarlane of Charlottetown and Mrs. Stephen Lewis of Somerville, Mass.

MARY HILDA TIERNEY

There passed peacefully away at her home in Albany, Dec. 3rd, Mary Hilda, dearly beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Tierney. The deceased was of a kind and gentle disposition, and held the love and respect of a large circle of relatives and friends. She was but nineteen years of age, and will be greatly missed in the home, where she leaves to mourn, besides a sorrowing mother and father, the following sisters and brothers: Beatrice, Helen, Sadie and Norma, Winifred, Harold and Leonard all at home; also one sister Jean at Kelly's Cross. The funeral which took place Dec. 5th was largely attended. The following were the pall bearers: William Noonan, James Johnson, Emmet Croken, Wilfrid Donnelly, Ward Deegan and Adrian Murray. The services at the church and grave were performed by Rev. Fr. McIntyre.

When the bonnie flowers are streaming When the birds sing in the trees When the twinkling stars are beaming

Hilda dear, we'll think of thee. When the church bells are ringing. When the faithful bend the knee, When we see a pure soul climbing to the Cross, Hilda dear, we'll think of thee. We know she must be happy now More than tongue or pen can tell In the home above, prepared by Him She loved and served so well. 3366. (Patriot please copy.)

WELCOME TO GLENFINNAN OFFICER

On Thursday evening December 26th the people of Glenfinnan and surrounding districts gathered at the home of Alexander MacDonald to extend a hearty welcome to his son Lieut. Leo J. MacDonald, the first of Glenfinnan's heroes to return from overseas.

Lieut. MacDonald went overseas about two years ago, and proceeded to France the following year, being severely wounded at Amiens on August 23, 1918 necessitating the amputation of the right leg.

Mr. Hugh Trainor occupied the chair calling on Wm. F. MacDonald who read an address of welcome to Lieut. MacDonald, and the presentation of a beautiful fountain pen was made by Mrs. W. F. MacDonald. Lieut. MacDonald although taken entirely by surprise made a fitting reply, thanking the people for their hearty welcome and handsome presentation, speeches were then delivered by Peter Trainor, Lieut. White, W. F. MacDonald, Matthew Ryan, J. W.

MacDonald, Charles Cumiskey and others. After this the party proceeded to the dining room where a very tempting supper was served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing until the "Wee Sha Hours" when the singing of "Old Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" brought the proceeding to a close. Following is the address: To Lieut. Leo J. MacDonald Dear Friend:—It is with feelings of pleasure that we assemble here to-night to extend a hearty welcome to you on your return from overseas. Nearly two years have passed since we met here before, to bid you God speed on the eve of your departure to take your place in the great fight for freedom. Many times since then the propects for Victory have been very bright, when the test of manhood came. We had against us, an enemy who resorted to the most diabolical methods of warfare in order that our noble soldiers who proved to the enemy that right must prevail, we are now free. We fully understand and appreciate the sacrifice a young man makes in leaving home, and all life holds dear
