TURTLES SURVIVE-Six years ago Mr. James Dixon, Little Sande, received from his friend Mr. Lemuel McNeill, White Plains, Westchester Co., New York, seven turtles placed in a mill pond on his farm. Nothing was seen of the sagurians after being transplanted and it was thought that they had succumbed to the colder climate of that their rations were not what they had been accustomed to and so had perished. However, this could not have been the case as Mr. Dixon while walking through a field on his farm this week was agreeably surprised to find one of the turtles in the mill pond. Evidently they had survived the rigors of the Island winters and were now enjoying the balmy air of the summer.

Ex-Mayor Wright Celebrates 80th Birthday Today

Congratulations will be extended today to a worthy citizen in the person of ex-Mayor G. D. Wright who celebrates his eightieth birthday in the enjoyment of first-class health and strength.

Mr. Wright has been retired from business for the past twelve years, but has remained active in public life as a member of the City Water Commission. It is many years since he first took part in public affairs, and during the whole of the time he has enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens and the people of the province generally.

Mr. Wright was elected to City Council in 1912 and again in 1914 and 1916 by acclamation. Mr. Wright was chairman of finance committee and also served on the street and other committees. He was elected Mayor in 1918; Mayor 1919-1920.

County Court Opens, Several Cases Heard

The June term of the Queen's County Court opened yesterday with His Honor Judge Gavan Duffy presiding. Of the dozen cases on the docket several garnishee cases were disposed of and others stand over awaiting the trial of the main issue.

Several cases were set down for hearing at a date to be determined later. The court then adjourned until Friday morning 11 o'clock unless an earlier date is appointed for hearing some of the cases which stand over.

At the morning session Cornelius J. Campbell, committed to Supreme Court on a charge of criminal breach of trust, elected to be tried summarily under the Speedy Trials Act. Date of hearing was fixed for July 5.

Cases disposed of yesterday included: The Royal Bank of Canada, plaintiff, vs. Ray Steel, defendant, action for $250 for balance of rent of apartment in Bank Building. Some evidence was heard and the case adjourned for further evidence and argument at a later date.

Malcolm MacKinnon appeared for the plaintiff while Mr. Alban Farmer represented the defendant. James H. Beaton, plaintiff, vs. F. R. Noy, defendant, action for $30 for the conversion of a pair of goods bargained for and sold and unlawful and unwarranted arrest. The case was concluded shortly after one o'clock and judgment was given for the defendant with costs.

Mr. J. A. MacDonell for the plaintiff and Mr. R. R. Bell for the defendant. The afternoon session was occupied with the case of James H. Beaton, plaintiff, vs. Lemuel Craswell, defendant. This action for $30 was for the conversion of goods and for account stated. A large number of witnesses gave evidence. Judgment was given for the defendant with costs. Mr. J. A. MacDonell for the plaintiff and Hon. M. R. McGuigan for the defendant.
