Mr. Ronald McDonald has returned to New York after spending the past few weeks in Borden, the guest of Mrs. Charles E. McDonald.

Misses Ethel and Helen Darrach, also Messrs. Don McPherson and Clarence Waddell returned home from Summerside on Friday evening.

Miss Florence Craswell, of Malpeque, who spent the winter in Providence, R.I., is now visiting in Borden, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irving.

Misses Annie McDonald and Ethel Darrach spent the week-end in Borden, the guests of their parents, Mrs. Charles McDonald and Mrs. N. B. Darrach.

Recent visitors to Borden were: The Misses Dorinda Howatt, Helen Campbell and Rita Muttart, and Messrs. Clarence Waddell, Frank Howatt and Douglas Bell.

Among those who attended the hockey match at Cape Traverse between the Greyhound Sisters and the Bedeque Ladies, were: the Misses Ethel Darrach, Bridget Paquet, Beatrice Murphy, Verna Darrach and Jack Read.

The pupils among friends of Miss Mary Muttart, teacher of Borden school, are sorry to learn of her illness and sincerely hope that she will soon be able to resume her teaching. She is replaced by her sister, Miss Laura Muttart.

What might have been a serious accident occurred at the home of Mrs. T. P. Sexton, on Tuesday evening, when their gas lamp exploded. The flames were soon extinguished by Mrs. Sexton, who lost no time in getting a bucket of water and dashing it over the entire mass of flames.

On Saturday afternoon the Carleton Bears crossed sticks with the Junior Nationals, at the Borden Arena. The score was 6-4 in favor of the Junior Nationals. They also played the Cape Traverse Juniors on Saturday night. The score was 6-3 in favor of Cape Traverse Juniors. Mr. Douglas Bell refereed the game.

FIG SQUARES. Mix one cupful of sugar and the beaten yolk of three eggs. Next stir in two cups of figs cut in small pieces and add a teaspoon of lemon juice. Mix together one cup of pastry flour, one teaspoon of baking powder and a half teaspoon of salt and add this to the first mixture. Lastly, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Spread thinly in a greased dripping pan and bake a half hour in a moderate oven. Cut in squares before you remove from the pan. Roll in powdered sugar. Chopped dates or raisins may be used instead of chopped figs.

WELL, HAVE YOU SOLD MY HOUSE?

NO, I'VE JUST WRITTEN A DESCRIPTION OF IT TO PUT IN THE PAPER. JUST READ IT AND SEE HOW IT STRIKES YOUR FANCY.

THIS IS WONDERFUL.

IS THIS MY HOUSE YOU'RE DESCRIBIN'?

YEP!

WELL, IF THAT'S MY HOUSE IT'S JUST THE KIND OF A PLACE I'VE ALWAYS WANTED. SO I DON'T THINK I'LL SELL.

WHAT?

Mt. Stewart Notes

The week past was a very busy one here. As the saying goes "One scarcely had time to eat." (and do it accordingly to rules.)

What with horse races, hockey matches, and practicing for a play in the near future, Mt. Stewart was in a regular whirl.

The race held Friday afternoon was attended by a large crowd of fans, and left nothing to be desired in the way of true sportsmanship.

Following is the summary: CLASS A TROT AND PACE Lady Queen, owned by Lloyd Jay 2 1

Hary Lauder, owned by A. McLaughlan, owned by 5 1 2

Dolly Waltz, owned by Fulton Douglas 1 5 3

Flashlight, owned by J. Barrie, driven by Hammond McEwen 4 3 4

Mabel C., owned by Chas. Grant 3 4 5

CLASS B TROT AND PACE Call, owned by Ira Gay 1 1

Ethel Todd, owned by Lee McAssey 2 2

Sweet Marie, owned by Dr. A. B. Martin 3 3

Baby Todd, owned by George McKenzie 4 4

Commodore Girl, owned by Alfred Whelan 5 5

Officials were as follows: Starters—Lemuel Jay, Ervin McDonald and William McKenzie. Judges—Alfred Jay, Jonathan Affleck, Oliver Jay.

The hockey game held here Saturday evening, the 3rd inst., was also well attended, and proved interesting for both sides, as the score was won by only a narrow margin by Morell, Score 3-4.

After this game had been finished and the players recruited some another game was played, Morell vs. Head of Hillsboro, the latter winning, Score 3-2.

Mr. Peter Jay referee.

Mr. Alex. McDonald, Allisary, was a visitor to the city Thursday last.

Mr. Clayton Shaw, Charlottetown, was a visitor to Mt. Stewart Friday.

Mrs. Jas. Brady and her brother, Mr. Ross McCarthy, spent Sunday in Mt. Stewart.

Her many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Alfred Affleck's condition is much improved.

Services were held in the Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. on Sunday last. Rev. Frank Hutcheson preacher.

Services were held in the United Church at the usual hours of 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Rev. George McLeod preacher.

The reverend M. K. Charman, pastor of the United Church, and Mrs. Charman, spent the week end in Charlottetown.

Mr. David Jay had his home wired for lights Wednesday and Thursday last week by Electrician W. Kelly, Charlottetown.

Among those who attended the meeting of the Presbytery on Tuesday the 6th, was Mr. Geddie Douglas, Head of Hillsboro.

Mr. Armas Jardine, Ch'town, paid a short visit to Mt. Stewart last week, where he was the guest of his sister, Mrs. George Jay.

A number are having their firewood hauled at present. The conditions of roads, ice and landings being in the best of condition.

Mr. Chas. Kelly, Clarktown, is at present hauling and selling hay to his patrons, the price ranging from 65 to 70 and 75 cents per cwt., delivered.

The first motorist to Charlottetown via the East River ice was thought to be another Lindbergh at the time, but now—well it's just among the happenings of the week.

The sea-plane made a second trip to the Magdalenes last week. The first on Monday, returning Tuesday and the second on Wednesday morning, returning Wednesday evening. The latter passage was made at a much less altitude than the former.

Friday last the sea-plane, homeward bound, caused quite a bit of interest when she circled over Mt. Stewart, flying quite low. And some of the older citizens were heard to say "Well! little did I think the like of that would be in my day."

We learn that the condition of Mr. James McCarthy, who has been ill for some time, is not improving as rapidly as might be desired. So through the I. O. F., of which Mr. McCarthy is a member, it is arranged that two men will be with him at night.

On Thursday evening at 6 o'clock the wedding of Mr. Joseph Garingham to Miss Susannah Wray took place at the home of the bride. Due to the inclemency of the weather a

Keep Mirrors in the medicine chest.

MALPEQUE

On Friday evening fifty or more of the members of the Young Peoples Society enjoyed a pleasant drive to Kensington, where they were entertained by the members of the Young People of the United Church, Kensington, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheen. Altogether they formed a company of about one hundred and thirty. The Kensington people proved themselves splendid entertainers, providing solos, readings, games, contests, etc. by way of entertainment, as well as hours of pleasure. The merry company drove to their homes in Malpeque, thoroughly appreciative of their evenings activities and anxious to reciprocate the kindness they had received.

Rev. A. A. MacLeod, General Secretary of the Temperance Alliance, addressed a large audience in Princetown United Church on Sunday morning. Mr. MacLeod spoke from the words John 5, 34 "But these things I say, that ye might be saved." The address was a strong gospel message.

The many friends of Miss Marion MacLean, teacher at Sea View are sorry to learn that it has been necessary for her to take a short vacation. It is hoped that her illness will not be of long duration. In the meantime Miss Elizabeth Bearisto, Malpeque, is supplying Miss MacLean's place.

Mrs. Duncan MacGougan and son Edward Sinclair, are visiting relatives in Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Proffit, Free-town, were the guests of Mrs. Colin Donald, Sea View, on Sunday.

It is pleasing to note that Mrs. Philip Crozier, who has been ill in the hospital in Halifax is gradually recovering from his recent attack of pneumonia. (M)

Very seldom do two funerals occur on the same day, but on Wednesday the 7th, two funerals took place at the first funeral took place at ten o'clock from the home of Mr. Major Smallwood, St. Andrews, when the remains of his brother, the late Johnston Smallwood, were conveyed to their last resting place in the cemetery at West St. Peter's. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by the Reverend Morgan E. Genge, Montague, assisted by Rev. M. K. Charman, Mt. Stewart. Rev. Mr. Genge spoke briefly but eloquently of the spirit which had passed. Mr. Smallwood was of a simple and unassuming manner and was one of Mt. Stewart's old landmarks, and was always a friend and neighbor.

The second funeral was that of the late James McCarthy, which was from his late home to the Peoples Cemetery, and was conducted by Rev. M. K. Charman, Pastor of the United Church. The funeral was largely attended, as the deceased was widely and favorably known. Following were the pall bearers: Wilfred McDonald, Jonathan Affleck, John A. McAuley, Mont. McKay, Alfred Affleck.

GARGLE An effective gargle is made by adding one-fourth teaspoon of baking soda and a half-teaspoon of salt to a glass of warm water. Use this night and morning when threatened with a cold.

Mr. Earle Clark, Augustine Cove, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Les Bradshaw, Middleton, on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Campbell, Chelton, is visiting in New Annan the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Waugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bartlett and little son, Norman, North Carleton, were visitors to Cape Traverse on Sunday.

Mr. Harry Lowther, North Carleton was a passenger of the City last week to attend the farmers convention.

Mr. Albert Blacktock, Shemagogue, N. B., was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schurman, Chelton.

Mrs. Frederick MacQuarrie, Searletown, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doull, Carleton Siding.

His many friends are glad to hear that Mr. Ed McCordie, Middleton, is convalescing after a very severe attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Herman Myers, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Selina and son John, Carleton, drove to the city on Tuesday.

Misses Alice Jewell and Annie Newson, Searletown, spent Saturday in Chelton the guest of the former's aunt Mrs. Chauncey Pearson.

Mr. Lloyd Jewell, Searletown, drove to Stanley Bridge on Friday evening. He plans on remaining there for a few days visiting friends.

The farmers in Lower Bedeque are taking great advantage of the splendid weather and roads for shipping their potatoes to Summerside.

Mr. Leigh Lowther, North Carleton, attended the hockey match in Summerside on Friday last between the Union sextette, Victoria, and Victorias of Charlottetown.

Mr. Theo Enman, Enmore, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Annie, teacher at Sherbrooke, drove to Chelton to spend the week end with the former's daughter, Miss May Enman, teacher of that district.

Bright and breezy, brave and clear. Strong new life in every vein; March begins the rolling year, Starts anew the wild refrain; Hark! the cool wind fresher blow; Hark! the clear streams freer flow; Hark! the birds exultant sing. Welcome Spring!

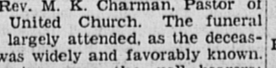

Moist and brown the naked sod, Quickening to an olive green, Streaked with snow, that lingers still Where the sheltering fences lean; Higher, lines of trees that stand stiff and bare, on either hand, Murmuring, as they rock and swing Welcome, Spring!

Lesson No. 9

Question: Can rickets be prevented?

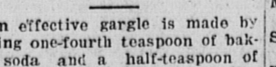

Answer: Yes, by assuring plenty of the rickets-preventing vitamin of cod-liver oil in the diet of mother and baby.

SCOTT'S EMULSION contains all cod-liver oil vitamins in great abundance.

Montrose Notes

Mr. Nelson Ramsay is visiting friends in Hamilton.

Mrs. Robert Hardy is visiting in Alberton the guest of Mrs. Black.

Miss Helen Dunbar, teacher at South Kildare, spent the week-end at her home in Alma.

Mr. Reuben Bonness was a passenger to Charlottetown on Friday, returning home Saturday night.

Mr. Kerras Campbell paid a trying visit to Summerside on Saturday, which we understand was a combination of business and pleasure.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Leard offer congratulations on the arrival of a young son on March 7th.

Mrs. Arthur Wright is enjoying a pleasant visit with her sisters, Mrs. Carol McWilliams, of West Devon and Mrs. Raeford Locke, of Hallowburton.

A general epidemic in the form of a heavy cold has struck this community, and is in some cases so severe as to confine several people to their homes. The excellent average which has been maintained in the school during the winter—94 per cent. for February—has fallen off slightly during the past few days on account of sickness.

On Tuesday, March 6th, a pleasant event occurred at the home of Mr. Ramsay Hardy, when a family party, consisting of children and grandchildren, gathered to do honour to the grandmother, Mrs. James Hardy on her 83rd birthday. The evening passed pleasantly in music and conversation and towards its close a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Hardy is wonderfully bright and active for her years, and before the party broke up, she delighted her guests by singing "The Last Rose of Summer," to which the young folks responded with "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The service in Montrose United Church on the 4th, inst., was conducted by Rev. Mr. Wilson of Cove Head. Speaking from the text, Philippians 4:8, he emphasized the importance of right thinking and of casting out from the mind all unworthy thoughts. To illustrate this, he read the poem, "Thoughts Are Things," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox. The sermon was thoroughly enjoyed by young and old.
