Sudbury Falcons Capture Opening Game Of Cup Series From Royals 2-1

Sees Giants Regaining Pennant

(This is 16th in a series dealing with prospects of major league ball clubs.)
By Eddie Briets, Associated Press Sports Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire)
PENSACOLA, Fla., March 25.—Down here in this furthest outpost of the grapefruit league, some of the doubting Thomases say New York Giants are just "too matter of fact" to come through.
A notable exception is Manager Billy Terry, after all, he will be left holding the bag if the Giants repeat their act of 1934 and 1935 and fold up on the home stretch.
"I think I have the best ball club in four years," said "Memphis Bill" today. "And don't forget, we won a pennant in one of those four years."
How does he figure the team is stronger?
"In two respects," went on Terry. "First, we are improved at second base. Burgess Whitehead and Dick Farrell give us one of the best combinations in the majors. Second, I believe Dick Coffman and Fred Marberry will give us the type of relief pitching we had in 1933 when we won the pennant."

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 25.—Rogers Hornsby's St. Louis Browns are getting well set for their famous "giant killer" year in the American League this year.
Being a shrewd judge of ivory and pennant races, the Rajah frankly doesn't expect to land better than fifth in the flag fight unless there is a crack-up among the circuit's "big four"—Detroit, New York, Boston and Cleveland—but his Browns cast off with deep revenge in their hearts, will cause plenty of trouble for the contenders.
The Rajah, coming back as a player this time as a reserve first baseman, plans to open the campaign with approximately the same lineup which hit the home stretch last fall like Discovery. His pitchers, he figures, should be better, his infield tighter and his hitting as good if not better.
Ivy Paul Andrews, who won 13 and lost seven for the Browns last season despite a poor start, rates as Hornsby's number one pitcher. Jack Knott, Merritt ("Sugar") Cain and LeRoy Mahaffey, who won 26 and lost 30 between them last year, are expected to round out the starting group. Elton Walker, whom Hornsby predicted will be one of baseball's greatest right handers when he gets control, and the veteran Russell Van Atta, the Brown's workhorse of '35, also look like regulars.
The infield may be identically the same as the one he patched up with his famous trades last July—Ivy Paul, Burns, first; Tom Cash, second; Egan Leahy, shortstop and Harland Cliff, third.
Sunny Jim Bottomley, the veteran National League cinderman acquired Saturday from Cincinnati in a deal for utility infielder Johnny Burnett, probably will supplant Irving Burns at first if he shows anything like the form he displayed in a Cardinal a few years ago.

Browns Set For Role Of "Giant Killers"

Spill Mars Running Of Lincolnshire

Golden Miller Grand National Favorite

(C. P. Cable)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)
LONDON, England, March 25.—Overcoat, which finished fourth in the Lincolnshire handicap last year, won the 81st running of the same race today but Bow and Arrow, second in the 1935 running, stumbled and caused a pile-up which resulted in injuries to three jockeys and the death of one horse.
The race was run in a dense fog which made it almost impossible to distinguish the colors carried by the horses. A field of 34 ran.
The victory of H. L. Selby's Overcoat was an all-South African one. Both Selby and the trainer, Russell, both are from that Dominion. Overcoat, starting at odds of 10 to 1, finished a head in front of Ralph Straassburger's five-year-old Beethus, also a 10 to 1 shot. A rank outsider, Hyde's Mistral 3rd, finished third, 1 1/2 lengths back. Mistral 3rd was quoted at 40 to 1.
Sir Charles McLeod's Bow and Arrow stumbled and fell three furlongs from the finish. Unable to veer out of the way in the close-bunched field, Lord Glynor's Screamer and Major V. Agar-Robartes' Tom Bowling also went down. Other jockeys were forced to pull up their mounts sharply.
H. A. Jones, riding Bow and Arrow, suffered a broken collarbone and back injuries. H. Dines, riding Tom Bowling, emerged from the pile-up with several broken ribs and a badly injured leg.

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
LIVERPOOL, March 25.—Dorothy Page's Golden Miller, the 1934 winner, ruled favorite tonight to win the Grand National Steeplechase on Friday.
Miss Page's great jumper was quoted at 1 to 1 in the latest call-over of odds while the 1935 winner, Major Noel Furion's Reynoldstown, was quoted at 7 to 1.
Other odds on leading candidates: Mrs. Violet Mundy's Avenger, 9 to 1; G. H. Bostwick's Castle Irwell, 10 to 1; Lord Rosbery's Keen Glade, 100 to 6; J. B. Snow's Delancey, 100 to 1; Lady Lindsay's Blue Prince and G. Beeby's Brienz 33 to 1.

The second game will be played here Saturday and a third, if necessary, Monday.
Conacher whose three goals doubled the score on the battling Portkents, tallied in the opening two of the struggle. They came just 17 seconds apart. "Peanuts" O'Flaherty, with two, and Bobby Laurent with one, completed the scoring for Nationals.
The northern goals came from the sticks of "Red" Doran, Vic Haneberry and "Mickey" McKay.

LONDON, Mar. 25.—Three games were played in the English Football League today. In the first division Brentford, at home, defeated Portsmouth 3-1 and Arsenal, cup-finalist, was held to a 1-1 draw with Everton at Highbury.
In the Southern Section Luton jumped into a two-point lead over Coventry City with a narrow 1-0 win over Torquay United.

Picks Indians As Team To Beat In American League

Nyodas Hoop Team Defeats Cundall Home

(By Alan Gould Associated Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, March 25.—Reading from west to east along the American League training trails, it's fairly obvious (1) that Cleveland Indians are rapidly shaping up as the club to beat in the American League, (2) that, by contrast, Detroit Tigers are by no means all set and rarin' to go in their hunt for a third straight pennant, and (3) that Boston Red Sox are still rattling around in their platinum-plated box.
Cleveland is in a good spot to lead the "Tiger" hunt, combined with taking pot-shots at the handicapped, prepaid collection of "ivory" down east. The Tribe had to do much tinkering this year. The club's lineup was all set before Manager Steve O'Neil, the former Toronto Leaf, called the roll. It has power and a stronger pitching staff. It's just a question of whether the Indians keep their health and strength over a full season's stretch. If they don't run afoul of an epidemic, Cleveland leads in the club to beat in the American League. ## Detroit Slight Favorites To Capture Title

(C. P. Cable)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONTREAL, March 25.—There was no practice session for Detroit Red Wings and Montreal Maroons today as the Canadian Hockey Association worked the stiffness from their muscles after sleeping most of the day. Rest was prescribed by the local coaches when the teams finished their record 176 1-2 minute game relay Wednesday morning with Detroit victorious 1-0 on Adedere Bruneteau's goal.
Tommy Gorman and Jack Adams expected to have their charges on the ice tomorrow morning for light skating and limbering up practice for the second of the three of five series at night. Gorman was confident his red team had power enough to earn an even break at home then go on to win the series in Detroit.
The odds swung slightly in favor of Red Wings to take the series after the longest game in N. H. L. history as they can do no worse than an even break on Montreal ice and will have the advantage of a home crowd cheering them on for the remainder of the series. The first game in Detroit will be played Sunday.
Maurice McTague, 15-year-old Queen Square pupil and winner of the school ice sports contest, yesterday received Ed Hornby silver trophy from his donor Ed Hornby, a former Queen Square School pupil and one-time prominent Island athlete.
The trophy is emblematic of supremacy in the annual Queen Square School ice sports contest and is awarded to the entrant who secures the greatest number of points in the various events.
Mr. Hornby, manager of Saint John branch of the Provincial Bank of Canada, donated a cup each year for award to the school ice sports champion and himself made the presentation.

Says Gilroy Not Wholly To Blame

Tigers Eliminate S.D.U. In Sudden Death Hoop Tilt; Nyodas Lose To Blue Dots

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
PETERBOROUGH, Ont., March 25.—President E. A. Gilroy of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association twice threatened to return home from the Olympic winter games because of lack of co-operation by other officers, J. Percy Bond, Past President of the Ontario Hockey Association, said here today on his return from a 10 weeks trip abroad with the Olympic hockey team.
"The Olympic hockey players are quite correct when they blame the C. A. H. A. officials for bungling their affairs last month at Garmsch-Partenkirchen," he said. Officials in charge of the team did not understand the Olympic play-off system until England defeated Canada, he asserted.
He added, however, that Mr. Gilroy did not deserve criticism. Had other officials followed the C. A. H. A. President's policies, Mr. Bond thought the trip would have been successful.
"Friction among some of the officers began at Halifax," he said, "and continued until the end of the playoffs. The players proved to be a good bunch of fellows who played 30 games and lost but one during their time abroad. They were popular everywhere and they and the whole party were entertained royally in every town they visited."
The former O. H. A. official, who paid his own expenses on the trip to Germany, accompanied by his wife, felt the British Hockey Association had not shown good sportsmanship following the lifting of suspensions against two Canadian members of the English team. Canadian officials were responsible for having the suspensions lifted and two players, Jimmy Foster and Alex Archer, were used by England.
Following their loss to England, the Canadian players themselves began inquiring about the playoff system. Mr. Bond said, and they found then how disastrous that defeat was.

Oxford Crew Flash Form In Practice Row

(C. P. Cable By Guardian's Special Wire)
LONDON, March 25.—Oxford's crew preparing for the boat race with Cambridge on April 4 rowed the full course of the race on the Thames today from Putney to Mortlake in 18 minutes 59 seconds.
Coach Rathbone was delighted with the performance, which was two minutes five seconds faster than the previous trial.
Conditions were good, with a fast wind and a following tide most of the way. D. M. de R. Winsen, stroke, hit 38 to the minute at the start and never dropped below 30. The dark blues reached the mile post in four minutes 20 seconds, Hammersmith Bridge in 7:35, Chiswick Steps in 11:47, and Barnes Bridge in 16:16. The crew finished fresh.
Cambridge spent the morning practising starts.

Tigers Eliminate S.D.U. In Sudden Death Hoop Tilt; Nyodas Lose To Blue Dots

Capacity Crowd To See Leaf-Bruin Battle

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
TORONTO, March 25.—A capacity crowd will jam Maple Leaf Gardens here tomorrow night to watch Toronto's Leafs attempt to overcome a three-goal deficit in the second game of their Stanley Cup playdown series with Boston Bruins. A crowd of 13,000 or more was assured today when all available reserved seats were "snapped up."
While the town was visibly shaken by Boston's 3-0 win over the Leafs last night in the first game of the total-goal series, the faithful intended being in and the finish. Unless Leafs can win by four goals in the return engagement, Bruins will play either New York Americans or Chicago Black Hawks in the semi-final round of the National Hockey League's post-season series.
CHICAGO, March 25.—A 100 per cent sure-fire rabbit's foot or other good luck charm would bring a tidy price tonight in this ballpark of Chicago Black Hawks.
As the city's hockey-minded prepared for the resumption of Stanley Cup playdown hostilities tomorrow night between the wounded Hawks and New York Americans, it was realized considerable luck was needed to halt the headlong dash of the New Yorkers.
The surprising 3-0 defeat the Hawks fell to in Gotham last night in the first tilt of the two-game series seemed to ensure plenty of fireworks when the curtain is rung down here on the battle between the third-place finishers in the National League.

BLUEDOTS BEAT NYODAS

Led by sharpshooting Betty Rogers, Bluedots eliminated Nyodas from further competition in the Ladies League, winning the second game of the double header 22-15. Like the boys game the ladies put up a stirring close battle the result of which was in doubt up to the final ten minutes.
Bluedots led 12-10 at the half and though they increased their margin by five points during the second session they received plenty of competition from Nyodas, a team that has shown vast improvement in recent games. Betty Rogers was the shining light of the Bluedots victory as she rained up 18 of her team's points while McKie and Paquet were outstanding in the losers' cause.

Greenberg May Make Compromise

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, March 25.—Big Hank Greenberg was riding the rails to Florida tonight to settle his 1936 salary differences at close range with Detroit Tigers.
The slugging first baseman and club official are just as far apart on Hank's salary as they have been all winter, but Greenberg expects a settlement will be reached soon after he arrives in Lake Park.
Hank received $12,500 last year and is understood to have asked $40,000 for 1936. Three weeks ago he proposed a compromise.
