SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

July 4th, 1909.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey. —Antioch to Philippi. Acts xv:36 to XVI:15.

Golden Text.—Come over into Macedonia and help us. Acts xvi:9.

Verse 36.—Is it generally necessary to follow up any good work which we have commenced if we would make it a success?

Verse 37-39.—Would it have been wiser if Barnabas had first consulted Paul in the matter of taking Mark?

Barnabas was a relative of Mark; are we as good judges as the fitness of our relatives for an office as we are of the fitness of others? Why?

Why is nepotism in government appointments, looked upon with suspicion?

Had Paul, probably, good reason for objecting to taking John and Mark with them? (See Acts xiii:13.)

If a man shows lack of courage, or tact, or faithfulness, in one position, does that qualify him in any measure, from getting another, or from success when in another position?

If both Paul and Barnabas had been duplicates of the man Jesus would there have been this quarrel between them, and how would the matter likely have been settled?

This question must be answered by members of the club.

When two Christians fall out, is one or both always to be blamed?

Verse 40-41.—Did the dispute between these men work out for good, as it resulted in two missionary deputations instead of one?

By any process of reasoning can you conclude that God was back of this dispute, between these two godly men, so as to better work out his purpose?

Chap. xvii:1-3.—Should ministers, and other Christians, be on the lookout for young men who are fitted for the ministry, the same as business men are for good salesmen?

What can you say for or against Paul circumcising Timothy, in view of the decision of the council at Jerusalem? (See Acts xv:1-29.)

In matters of habit, or ceremony, or non-essentials, is it well for us to give way to the views of others, sinking our own preferences, when we can accomplish good by so doing?

For example you may oppose wearing "pig-tails" in this country, with wisdom, and yet to refuse to wear one in China may be great folly.

Verse 4-5.—What were the "decrees" of the elders which were binding upon the church to-day? (See Acts xv:28-29.)

Is a church better with or without an elaborate creed?

What did Jesus teach which is not included in righteousness, and the constant vision of God?

Will a church sound "in the faith," always be a magnet to draw others to it?

Verse 6-8.—Why did the Holy Spirit forbid them to preach in Asia and Bithynia, and would they have sinned had they done so?

When we are hindered providentially from doing certain good works, is that the Holy Spirit hindering us?

Verse 9-10.—How many methods does God adopt in leading us?

Does God in every emergency give us some sure guidance as to what we ought to do?

Was this vision just as clear a call from God, as though he had spoken personally?

Verse 11-12.—Does God direct the course of the Christian with absolute certainty, notwithstanding wind or sea?
