MONTRIAL

"I had two rooms, one of which I fitted up as a bed-sitting room, and the other as a kitchen with a rangeette for cooking. I made no effort to install special plumbing, using the water from the bathroom for kitchen needs. The young McGill University veteran and his wife to whom I rented this accommodation consider it a god-send." Mrs. A. E. H.

VANCOUVER

"My experience with a veteran tenant, a young officer from the Seaforths, has been exceptionally good. He has settled back into a normal civilian life and invariably pays his rent two or three days in advance. The privacy of my home has not suffered." Herbert B.

CALGARY

"When the Citizens' Committee asked me if I could provide accommodation for a veteran and his wife, I hesitated, but the need was so urgent I finally was able to make three rooms available." Mrs. L. R.

TORONTO

"The attic in my home had never been finished but, when the housing emergency arose, I finished up this room very cheaply through the use of wall-board. It has provided a comfortable home for a veteran, his wife and their baby." B. W.

If you have hesitated about renting a part of your home, read these experiences of others who have patriotically responded to the call!

RENT LIVING SPACE TO VETERANS!

Now that winter is here veterans all over Canada are seeking accommodation for themselves and their families, while many homes have unoccupied space that would satisfactorily fill their needs. In this time of emergency, the goodwill of citizens who have such space can assist greatly in providing family accommodation for these young Canadians who ensured our freedom on battle fields all over the world. Here are the things you can do to assist Canada's veterans:

1. Advertise your available accommodation in the newspapers.
 2. List your space with your local branch of the Canadian Legion or other veterans' organizations, or list it with a real estate agent.
- By doing this, you will assist in the rehabilitation of service men and you will receive regularly a fair rental for your premises.
- ### LANDLORDS! LANDLADIES!
- All who regularly rent apartments, rooms and other accommodations are also asked to co-operate in this housing emergency. Give veterans and their families consideration BECAUSE THEY DESERVE IT!

A PATRIOTIC APPEAL

Because our fighting men volunteered for overseas duty and risked their lives to protect your home and your business, you have never been forced to billet troops or civilians either. Even now there is no compulsion. This is purely an appeal on the basis of patriotism and gratitude. Won't you help? If you have space which you can make available, list it with the Citizens' Rehabilitation Committee, or the local branch of the Canadian Legion; advertise it in the newspapers or list it with a real estate agent.

Inquire at the nearest Rentals Office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board about five months or less rental agreements. These are exempt from normal Wartime Prices and Trade Board non- eviction regulations, and five months tenancy will help many veterans through the winter.

Shaw's Failure

LONDON, Jan. 3.—(G.P.)—FIVE essays and sketches written when George Bernard Shaw was an "unwanted failure" have been given to the Dublin National Library. Mr. Shaw, who said that as an Irishman he regarded a request of the library for his early manuscripts "in the nature of a commission," declared "some fools—and a lot of intelligent people, too—would pay me thousands of pounds for the manuscripts I'm giving away." Mr. Shaw, now 80, said there wasn't a great deal of work "in my own handwriting to give away as nowadays I write in shorthand and tear up the drafts when they are typed by my secretary. "The stuff I am giving away was written when I was an unwanted failure and when I couldn't afford a typewriter or even decent paper." EMEVALE W. L. The December meeting of the Emmevale W. I. was held on Dec. 7th at the home of Mrs. William Griffin with an attendance of 19 members and 4 visitors. The president, Mrs. M. Murray, presided and opened the meeting by singing the Institute Ode. The minutes were read and adopted. Reports from the different committees were heard. A bill of 70c for a treat was paid. It was decided that a treat be given the children of the district at the Christmas concert.

It was moved and seconded that $5.00 be sent to the T. B. League. Membership fees amounted to $3.00. It was decided to begin the meeting at 8 o'clock during the winter months. New committees were appointed as follows: School: Mrs. Peter Costello, Mrs. Dan McGinn. Sick: Mrs. Walter Coady, Mrs. Joseph Duffy. Programme: Mrs. Matthias Callaghan, Bernice Coady. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Vincent McCloskey. Roll Call to be answered by a collection. The meeting was brought to a close by singing "God Save the King." A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Matthias Callaghan. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent.

SINUS MISERY Over Forehead Quickly Subdued

From the pen of a prominent business man in Montreal comes the following interesting statement:

"Over my eyes and forehead the distress was acute. My breathing or upper air-passages were badly plugged, and I was distressed with irritation and coughing. "Catarrh-o-zone went right to the area where my condition was worst. Catarrh-o-zone attacked the trouble and gave me quick relief. Catarrh-o-zone Inhaler sends a soothing medication where you need it most. It penetrates rapidly, and treats effectively the cold-infected passages of the nose and throat. I found sniffing and watery eyes come to a quick end with Catarrh-o-zone." Complete outfit lasts two months, $6c; smaller size, 35c. Let Catarrh-o-zone assist you back to better health.

Yuletide Season at The Infirmary

The Christmas spirit was evidenced early in the month when corridors, wards and recreation rooms were artistically decorated and trees placed in several rooms by the staff.

On December 11, a variety concert under the direction of James Power and a treat of fruit to the patients, brought many favorable comments.

On December 16, the Salvation Army rendered Christmas carols and Major Mercer brought a very appropriate address.

On December 20, the annual concert given by the Y. P. S. C. E. of Zion consisting of an inspiring message by Rev. G. O. Webster, vocal solos, instrumental music and Christmas carols followed by a treat of apples was greatly enjoyed.

On Christmas morning Mass was said by Rev. Francis MacLeod and deeply appreciated.

The children who had been eagerly awaiting the visit of Santa were by no means disappointed as they opened their stockings and parcels to behold an abundance of toys, games, books, fruit, candy, cookies and nuts to be generously assisted in this good work by the Excelsior Circle of the King's Daughters of Trinity Church, the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. James Kirk, Canadian Red Cross and Mrs. Arthur Bruce.

The outstanding event of this season followed the delicious dinner when Santa was announced by the ringing of bells and distribution of individual gifts and treats of fruit, candy, cookies and nuts from the Christmas tree.

On December 30, Rev. Mr. MacLennan and young people of Trinity brought the spirit of Christmas in message and song, this sacred service was greatly appreciated.

On New Year's morning Mass was again said by Rev. Francis MacLeod and in the afternoon a treat of candy, apples, oranges, cookies and ice cream was received by all.

To the above mentioned, to the interested friends and relatives of the patients and to the following who availed themselves of the opportunity of our patients bringing festive joy to our patients we are sincerely thankful.
