

Woman's Realm :- Social and Personal :- Fashions :- Literature

The HOUSEWIFE and HER ACTIVITIES

They are not gone who pass beyond the clasp of hand... from the strong embrace; they come but come so close.

BATH SALTS. Four pounds of sea salt, 1 pound of Epsom salt, 1 package borax, 1 ounce tartaric acid, 25 cents worth of perfume...

Tablet. You can clean soiled photographs with a cloth dipped in warm water into which has been put a few drops of ammonia.

The Bilious Child. Too many sweet things will cause biliousness. Many mothers imagine that children need quantities of sweets, as sugar is warming and fattening.

Another error is giving children soft-sweet cakes. These things are too easily digested in the first instance, the result being that large quantities can be eaten.

Other causes of biliousness are eating too late at night when a child is sleepy, and eating in the middle of the day when a child is over-fatigued by a long walk in the open air.

To make a child eat just before going to bed is courting trouble, as the position of the child lying fast asleep does not allow the organs to work in a proper manner.

Another cause of biliousness is eyestrain trouble. If a child suffers from constant headaches and is bilious, the eyes should be examined.

So far as tried out in the United States, they are considered an excellent addition to the tulip races with a wide range of colors.

PARIS BRIDEGROOMS WEAR FULL DRESS IN MORNING. It is an old French custom for the bridegroom to wear full dress...

SMART FROCKS FOR FASHIONABLE PEOPLE

You'll be needing something charming, new and smart for holiday parties, teas and all the rest!

For the larger figure, black pebbly crepe silk is very effective. Style No. 859 is designed for sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust.

Price of PATTERN 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

This edit is from M. Andre de Fouquieres, the arbiter elegantiarum in Paris. The morning coat is a run-up but no rival, in the opinion of the Frenchman.

The usage is sometimes criticized; but it is a tradition which has many defenders, despite the examples of other countries.

NEW TULIP FAMILIES DEVELOPED

New races of tulips seldom come into commerce because of the length of time required to develop such a strain. One to a generation is about all that can be accomplished.

Recently there has been introduced in Europe two new tulip types, the Mendels and the Triumphs. The Mendels are the result of crossing the little extra early Duc von Thol tulips that come with the crocuses.

The Triumphs carry the single early season well over into that of the late tulips. Sir Daniel Hall, an English authority, who has recently written the most comprehensive book on the tulip in the English language, says that many of these two types might well be classed as Darwins, except for their earlier season of bloom.

When an attack of biliousness sets in, the only thing is starvation until the condition rights itself. Sips of hot water containing lemon juice will move the bile, while a gentle purgative helps matters.

And of course, she isn't ready to settle down and to be tied down with a husband and house and babies at 18. She wants to have her fling.

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Laugh at her. It is only the vapors of youth. She will change her opinion long before either you or she is old enough to think seriously about marriage.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

You Wives Who Bewail Fact That Husband is Absorbed in Business, Would You Give up Luxuries as Price of His Society?—Girl of 18 Who "Will Never Marry" Has Plenty of Time to Change Mind

Dear Miss Dix—I am one of those women who are wife in name only as Laura Jean Libby used to say, for my husband is really married to his business. That absorbs all of his time and interest.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Dear Miss Dix—My wife is being made love to by a doctor who has been treating her. He is a married man with two nearly grown children, but he does not get along with his wife and tells my wife that she is the only one he ever loved and that he needs her and that the idea of a woman being faithful to her husband is outmoded.

Dear Miss Dix—I am a boy of 19, very much interested in a nice girl of 18. The other day she said to me: "I am never going to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I want to get the fun out of life."

Advertisement for Fry's Cocoa and Cadbury's Chocolate. Includes images of product tins and boxes, and the text 'COUPONS WITH FRY'S Save them and get 1/4 lb. CADBURY BLOCKS FREE'.

FRY'S COCOA is pure Cocoa—the best Cocoa—easily digested—a favourite with adults and children for over two hundred years because of its food value and delicious chocolaty flavour. HERE IS OUR FREE OFFER. Send 8 coupons with your name and address to FRY-CADBURY LTD., 2025 Masson Street, Montreal, and receive free whichever one of these popular chocolate gifts you may select.

THE COOK'S CORNER

CHRISTMAS CAKE. 1 lb. butter (2 cups), 1 lb. brown sugar (3 1/2 cups), 12 eggs, 2 lbs. seedless raisins (8 cups), 2 lbs. currants (6 cups), 1/2 lb. blanched, halved almonds (1 cup).

BAKING POWDER BISCUITS. 2 cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup evaporated milk, 1/2 cup water.

RICH OIL POSSIBILITIES. (P.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) ANTIGONISE, N. S. Dec. 4—A wide area of Saskatchewan had rich possibilities for the future production of oil and gasoline.

First for FIRST AID. Vaseline White. 1. Have fresh ingredients—that is good butter, fresh eggs, raisins and currants, good nuts and, above all, good peel. Here is a secret. We use the best English peel in our recipe because in manufacturing it the manufacturer leaves in the essential oils, many others do not.

A Morning Smile. A LITTLE NONSENSE. The victim of an accident glanced thoughtfully at the caller's card. "I think you're what they call an ambulance chaser, aren't you?" demanded the injured one.

Advertisement for Barbados Molasses. Includes an image of a bottle and the text 'GENUINE BARBADOS EXTRA FANCY MOLASSES'.

MIR-O-KLEER STOCKINGS BY KAYSER 75c and up

MIR-O-KLEER STOCKINGS BY KAYSER 75c and up. Made in Canada. ONLY KAYSER MAKES IT.

MIR-O-KLEER SILK HOSE. Not a ring—not a streak—not a fault—the perfect, flawless SILK HOSE SOLD IN CHARLOTTETOWN At 75c up, by Moore & McLeod Ltd.

MINARD'S OINTMENT. TO END PAIN. Rub in Minard's. Checks colds, takes internally. Ends skin itching. Relieves rheumatism in regular and new large economy sizes.