At Home In Canada

Ex-Governor Murphy referred to the train's last stop in Canada in 1941 when it often had to be sidetracked to allow the Canadian troops to pass through. He was conscious, the ex-governor said, of the heroic contribution made in the last war and he was glad, too, when the day came that his country decided to throw her weight in with those of the rest of the world for the freedom of the world.

He was at home among the Canadian people who spoke a common language, held common ideals and were of a common purpose with the people of his own land.

Fine Exhibit Cars

Over 2,000 people visited the exhibit car of the "Know Mississippi Better" train between 9 o'clock and 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were warmly welcomed by Mr. S. Cory, state commissioner of agriculture for Mississippi. Many farmers and other persons interested in certain phases of agriculture, kept Mr. Cory busy answering questions on the State's wheat production and methods of cultivation. Many displayed much interest in Mr. Cory's explanation of cotton growing and harvesting. The cotton crop, Mr. Cory said, is planted in April and in some years harvesting continues until January.

In the year 1880, Mr. Cory said, six of the world, lived in Mississippi. Illustrating the agricultural importance of Mississippi, Mr. Cory said that the State's production of cotton records for winning herds. Annual production for concentrated milk was 55,707,717 lbs. for cheese, 10,942,877 lbs.; and for butter, 6,818,318 gallons.

Other Features

Other interesting figures given by Mr. Cory's statements that within the last two years over 10,000 ponds had been constructed in the State.
