—TRANSFERRED—Rev. Father George McCabe, who has been assistant to Rev. J. J. McDonald, of Summerside, has been transferred to Sturgeon where he succeeds Rev. Theodore Gallant who is going to Mount Carmel as successor to the late Rev. P. P. Arsenault.

—WESTERN OFFICE—The Western Office of the Guardian is located in the McNeill Building, Water St., Summerside. We receive subscriptions and advertising will be received. The Guardian may be purchased daily at the Western Office in the McNeill Building or at the McDonald News Store.

—VISITING BOSTON—Mr. Layton Rogers, one of Kensington's successful fox ranchers, has gone on a short visit to Boston and other New England cities. He will visit his daughter, Miss Ruby, who is studying nursing at a training hospital school at North Adams, Mass. —K—

—ACCIDENT TO MAIL DRIVERS HORSE—Miss Annie Gordon, who drives the mail on one of the many routes from Kensington, had her horse step into a hole in the road and break his leg. This is the first accident which occurred to any horse driven by Miss Gordon during sixteen years continuous service. —K—

—KENSINGTON FOX PELTS.—Affluence is the difference between success and failure, or even mediocrity—the successful Kensington fox ranchers are reaping a golden harvest in these halcyon days of high prices for pelts. The unsuccessful are looking on with mingled feelings. "Of all the sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these, 'It might have been.'" Mr. Robert Johnstone took four pelts to Summerside on Saturday, for which he realized the handsome sum of $19,900. Three of them were sold for $900.00, and the fourth, which was slightly past price, realized $190.00. Mr. Johnstone has had the good luck to receive top prices for some seasons. Many others from this section have received comparatively high prices. —K—

—MALPEQUE ATHLETIC CLUB—This club of boys and young men has already started to function again for the coming winter with renewed vigor. Boxing, bag-punching, step-dancing, and fiddling, are the main activities. The club meeting takes place in Malpeque hall every Monday night. A "squared circle" on the stage, is the first thing that strikes the eye of a visitor. Here the boys and young men engage in friendly contests in the many art of self defence, which holds such a high place in the realm of sports, of all English speaking nations, and which may serve in some measure to allay the thirst for bloody war so predominant in peoples of a volatile nature. Burke Corcoran's panacea for war was that all the war promoters should be made to "fight it out with the fists." This club will give the boys a chance to get in training for the summer sports. They propose to start a class in calisthenic exercise—also jumping and short indoor sprints. One of the reasons that Prince Edward Island has produced no athlete of outstanding ability in late years, is because of lack of practice—especially in winter time—where there's a will there's a way. The writer has seen a marathoner practice in winter time at the New West-Side A. C., by running around the old store in a club room scarcely any larger than Malpeque hall—also the winner of the Olympic hammer throw in Stockholm, practice his three turns with the hammer in a seven foot circle in the basement of an office building in Broadway, N. Y. The boys of many outlying sections of P. E. I. would do well to emulate Malpeque. —K—
