As The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, established some months ago, has been so greatly appreciated, and has been the means of securing employment for so many people and help for so many business houses and housekeepers, it has been decided to establish in connection with this paper, an Advertising Agency. Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, can have same placed by The Guardian. They can thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

A PRETTY home wedding took place on Wednesday, Aug. 29th at the residence of Nell Currie, Rocky Point, when the daughter Jennie was married to Alex. S. MacNeill of the same place. The bride was beautifully dressed in cream silk muslin, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, and was attended by her two little nieces, who were very prettily dressed in pink and cream silk, and carried baskets of flowers. The room was decorated with plants and flowers, and the bride and groom stood under an arch of flowers. Rev. D. MacLean performed the ceremony, in the presence of a number of guests. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served. The presents were numerous, the groom's present to the bride being a good looking and chain.

CORRESPONDENTS should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get everything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

A GOOD story is told of an automobile in this Province. With some friends he was touring in the country when a carriage containing an elderly man and his wife were encountered. The driver of the carriage stopped and the woman leaped out and ran. The auto driver approached and offered to lend the animal past his car when the man called out: "Gracious, no. The horse is all right. Lead the old lady past."

THOSE who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 132a. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

A FEW evenings ago the Session and many of the members of West and Clyde River congregations assembled at the manse on the eve of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh to bid them farewell. H. McMillan, on behalf of the congregation, in an informal address stated their kindly feelings and good wishes. He also presented to the esteemed wife of the pastor, a purse with a neat enclosure, to which Mr. McIntosh made a happy reply, thanking the good people of the congregation, not only for this token of affection, but for many kindnesses shown during the three happy years of his pastorate there. After the rendition of some humorous readings by the young ladies, and the singing of "God be with you till we meet again" the goodbyes were said, and all departed to their homes feeling they had spent a pleasant hour at the manse, but sorry to part with their pastor and his good lady.
