CLEMENTS-PATERSON

One of the prettiest weddings of the season and of interest to a wide circle of friends in the Maritimes was solemnized at the United Church in Montague on Wednesday afternoon, September 8th at 2:30 p. m., when Rev. A. S. Adams united in marriage Nellie Jean, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Clements, and Malcolm Grenville Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Patterson of St. John, N. B., accountant in the Bank of Nova Scotia in Montague.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the church, and girl friends of the bride with a profusion of gladioli, sweetpeas and ferns. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Peggy Beck, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was radiant in her wedding gown of white satin with net yolk, and trimming of lace medallions, with long pointed sleeves over the hand and slight train, and wore a fingertip veil fastened with a wisteria chrysanthemum. Her bouquet was of white roses and baby's breath, with white streamers. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mary Ruth, who wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta, with bustle back and self-trimming, and shoulder length veil fastened with pink flowers. She wore pink silk mitts and white slippers, and carried a nosegay of roses and snapdragons, with pink streamers. The groom was supported by his brother, Gordon Patterson of Saint John.

The bride's mother was dressed in black crepe, with black hat, feather trimmed, and wore a corsage of American beauty roses. The groom's mother wore blue crepe, lace trimmed, and black hat with shell pink ostrich feather trimming, and wore a corsage of American beauty roses. The ushers were Mr. Gilbert Clements, brother of the bride, and Mr. Douglas Coffin. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Ralph Beck very beautifully sang "Till Walk Beside You."

Following the ceremony about fifty guests attended a reception at the Poole Hotel where a buffet luncheon was served. The bride's table bearing two beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cakes, was trimmed with sweetpeas and pink lapers. The groom's cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom. Tea was poured by Mrs. H. J. Mabon and Mrs. M. F. MacDonald, and Mrs. L. H. Poole cut the cake. Those serving were Misses Selma Llewellyn, Thelma Coffin, and Pearl Greene, and Mrs. Walter L. Beer. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. A. S. Adams, to which the groom responded.

After the reception the newly married couple amid showers of confetti and good wishes left on a honeymoon trip to be spent in different parts of New Brunswick. For travelling the bride wore a suit of Autumn brown with green accessories.

Previous to her marriage the bride was the recipient of several showers, and received many lovely gifts of china, silver and glassware. Out of town guests included Mr. W. N. Stewart, K.C., an uncle of the bride, lately of Saskatoon, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Patterson, Saint John; Mr. J. J. Duff, Halifax, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baker of Charlottetown.
