—SUMMERSIDE TO HEAR GREAT MUSICIANS — The Summerside Community Concert Association through the untiring efforts of its workers last spring, and the response from good music loving citizens, are bringing three very outstanding concerts to our community this fall. Heretofore the series of concerts have been spread over several months from fall to spring. This season's artists will all be heard during the fall months of 1947, which will enable all country members to attend. The first concert, held in the Summerside High School auditorium will be the De Paur Infantry Chorus, composed of 35 singing veterans of World War II, and will be heard next Monday evening, September 29th at 8 p.m. The second concert will bring Miss Mildred Dilling, acclaimed the world's greatest harpist, and who has plenty of charm and personality as well as the world's finest harp, coupled with the ability to produce sounds that may explain the harp's popularity beyond the pearly gates. John Sebastian, harmonica virtuoso, recognized as a great radio entertainer, has brought the so called "mouth-organ" to a pinnacle where it is now recognized as potentially a musical instrument of unsuspected range and charm. Sebastian impresses, amazes and intrigues his listeners. Possessed of an unusually refreshing personality, his comments as his program progresses adds interest to his playing. This program it is believed will be especially interesting and enjoyable to a Summerside audience. Admittance to these concerts is by membership —S.

It is 100 x 38 feet with a 12 ft. 6 in. basement. Building commenced quite recently, but it is intended to house this year's crop. Mr. Brookins is an extensive grower besides being a large shipper. The new building is located alongside the railway line near the Margate Crossing.—K.

—HARVEST FESTIVAL SERVICES — Malpeque United Church services on Sunday last were of a special nature. The chancel of the commodious church was banked with flowers, fruit, grain, and vegetables artistically arranged. The pastor, Rev. James Cross preached an excellent sermon on "Let both grow together, the harvest, the need to emphasize Christian living to overcome evil, good seed are the children of the Kingdom, the good seed of God is indestructable." Harvest hymns were sung by the choir. Mr. J.B. Lewis was heard most acceptably in the solo "Open the Gates of the Temple," by Knapp. The choir sang the anthem "Praise Ye the Lord," Lorenz. At the evening service Rev. James Cross preached from the text "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap," was an inspiration to the audience in attendance. Large congregations attended both services. The choir sang the anthem, "Sing to the Lord of Harvest," by Lorenz. Mr. Cross taking the solo part, Mrs. Simpson, organist, led in the music. Harvest hymns were used. The fruit, vegetables, and flowers will be forwarded to P. C. Hospital.

—SHOWER — On Sept. 5, the friends of Miss Charlotte Champion gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dickieson, Darnley, to tender her a shower in honor of her approaching marriage. Charlotte, a former resident of Darnley had been employed with the staff of R.T. Holman's, Summerside for the past several years. To the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. Roy Easter, Charlotte was escorted by Mrs. David Cousins to her seat of honor in the living-room which had been previously decorated for the occasion. A prettily trimmed basket which had to be re-filled several times with gifts was carried into the room and the gifts consisting of silverware, bedding, glassware, etc. as well as many envelopes containing money were opened by Miss Charlotte Hickey, Mrs. Gerald Lockhart read the accompanying verses while Mrs. Clarence Hickey, a former school teacher of Charlottetown prettily arranged them on a table. Charlotte, in her usual jovial manner thanked all present for their gifts and thoughtfulness and extended to all an invitation to visit her at her future home. After singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow", a dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening spent with music, sing song and social chat. Prior to this shower, Miss Champion was tendered one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Currie. Summerside, where she was presented with a beautiful wool blanket, a "corn flower" cake plate and bed linen from the staff of R.T. Holman's.

CHAMPION - JAY WEDDING

—One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the United Church, Summerside, when the Rev. K. G. Sullivan united in marriage, Charlotte Eunice, daughter of Mrs. Jas. H. Champion and the late Jas. H. Champion of Darnley to Arthur Ervin Jay, son of Capt. Albert and Mrs. Jay of Borden. The bride looked winsome gowned in a street-length dress of blue crepe with matching head-dress from which fell a finger tip veil of blue net; her corsage was of Talisman roses. She was attended by her friend, Miss Eileen Weeks, who was gowned in a street length dress of rose crepe with matching head-dress from which fell a finger-tip veil in rose net. Her corsage was of Shannon roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Norman. The bride's mother wore a dress of figured silk jersey and a corsage of pink roses.

The groom's mother wore a street-length dress of turquoise blue and also a corsage of pink roses.

Only the immediate relatives were present and during the ceremony, Miss Geldhart capably presided at the organ.

Immediately following the ceremony all motored to the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Condon, Kensington, where a reception was held. The dining-room was attractively decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers and cut flowers. Fall standard cut gladioli added charm to the table which featured two beautifully decorated wedding cakes.

The groom's gift to the bride was a chest of community plate silver, "Lady Hamilton" design, to the bridesmaid a set of sterling silver ear-rings, and to the groomsman a genuine leather bill fold.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Alex Champion and Mrs. Lewis Darrach, Kensington, Mrs. Ivan Dickieson and Miss Charlotte Hickey, Darnley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay left Summerside by plane for Moncton en route by rail for Montreal on a honeymoon. For travelling the bride chose a black wool suit featuring a peplum with blue accessories. On their return they will reside at Borden where the groom is a valued employee on the Abegweit. A host of friends join in wishing them much happiness.

S'Side Kinsmen Team Entertained

The Summerside Kinsmen Juniors baseball team, P.E.I. champions, were entertained by the Kinsmen Club at a dinner in Coyle's Restaurant on Monday evening. Mr. Elmer Murphy, Club president, presided, and congratulated the boys on their efforts this season. He said that the Kinsmen club were not primarily interested in the winning of championships. Their main object is to make athletes of the boys and teaching them to play the game with all they had and in a sportsmanlike manner.

Mr. William Fridgen, representing Mr. W.E. Smallman, the donor of the Smallman trophy, emblematic of the P.E.I. Junior Championship, presented the trophy to Gordon MacKay, team captain. In making the presentation he congratulated them on being the first team to win this trophy.

In accepting the trophy, Gordon MacKay expressed the appreciation of the team to Mr. Smallman and at the same time thanked the Kinsmen Club for their interest in youth and in particular Charles Hogan who coached the team to whom he presented a gift on their behalf.

Mr. Hogan in reply said that he had coached a number of teams in the last few years and that in one respect this team was the best, that was in the sportsmanship they displayed at all times. To those who were graduating from Junior competition he reminded them that the Kinsmen Club is dedicated to youth and that in some future time some of them might become Kinsmen.

Timmy McGuigan, mascot of the team also spoke briefly as did Howard McFarlane who thanked Mr. Norman Hogg, manager of the team for his efforts on their behalf. The evening ended pleasantly with a sing song. Accompanist was Mrs. Cleve Whalen. — S.

SCHOOL LUNCHES AGAIN IN ORDER

While sandwiches have their place in school lunches, a day-in-day-out diet of them is hard on any appetite. And it's so easy to prepare a more interesting type of lunch.

A thermos may be filled with hot soup; and a custard dessert may be arranged in little baking-cups—just a couple of examples of what can be done by the cook with initiative.

Suggested lunches. Tomato juice; home-baked beans; buttered rolls; cole slaw; fruit tart; milk.

Cream of carrot soup; sandwiches; veal kidney; chopped cabbage; carrot and raisin, fruit cup, muffin, milk.

And when it comes to sandwiches here are some new, interesting fillings.

Fish—flaked fish, finely chopped celery or cucumber, mixed with a little tomato juice.

Cheese: cottage cheese with shredded lettuce, chili sauce, chopped pickle, green or red pepper, celery, parsley, onion, raisins jam or jelly.
