Mrs. Smith--Do tell me, Maggie, what you servants find to talk about down in the kitchen?

Maggie--Oh, we mostly talks about the visitors up in the drawin' room. And, beggin' your pardon, ma'am, what do you mostly talk about upstairs?

Mrs. Smith--Oh, we mostly talk about the servants.--Aly Sloper's.

The Other Man's Opinion. "Who is that beautiful woman across the room?"

"Do you mean the stately looking blond?"

"No, no; the pretty little plump one with the splendid teeth and the glorious eyes."

"You don't mean the lady near the piano?"

"Certainly not! I mean the fascinating little beauty who has just turned to speak to Sproggley. By George, she's a peach!"

"Oh, that one? Say, what's the joke?"

"Joke? There isn't any joke. She's the prettiest woman I've seen for a long time."

"Quit your kiddin'. That's my wife."

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful -- And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement. Paw Paw, Mich. "Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there for four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."--Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Who was this who asked for so expensive a garment and met with no refusal or hesitancy. Some rich man's wife, surely?

Oh, no. His chauffeur.--Buffalo Express.

You Can Distinguish a Piano Made by Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, by Its Pure, Vibrant Singing Tone

The reasons for this are well known to those who are familiar with the structure of the instrument and with the strict methods of the Heintzman & Co. factory.

The Materials

Every piece of metal with the slightest flaw, every piece of wood imperfect in its grain or not thoroughly seasoned, is rejected--it is not tried out to see if it will do--it is not even given the benefit of a doubt.

The Workmen

Each workman, too, brings to his task skill of the highest order--and that skill is still further developed and kept to the highest possible standard by the rigid discipline for which the Heintzman & Co. Factory is well known.

Its durability and continued increase in the beauty of its tone as it ages have caused all world-great artists on their visit to Canada to use this piano exclusively. . . .
