

THURSDAY MEMORIAL RECEIVED—Mrs. Duncan Livingston, 48 Kent St., city, received from His Majesty King George a memorial plaque, also a gold and silver medal in honor of her son Pte. Gordon Livingston, who was killed in action in August 1916, 1917.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Farm Products Ltd., was held yesterday afternoon and evening in the Prince of Wales College. The chairman announced that it was a private meeting of the shareholders and requested the press to withdraw. A statement would probably be submitted for publication later.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT—The many friends of Mr. Daniel Gordon of New Perth will regret to learn that he had his hip broken as the result of a fall last Monday. Mr. Gordon who celebrated his 94th birthday last December had been in splendid health all winter and on Monday was returning from his workshop (where he was getting stock ready for making spinning wheels) to the house when he met with the above accident. About nine years ago Mr. Gordon had the other hip broken by falling in his yard.

CALEDONIAN PIPE AND DRUM BAND—A meeting of this band was held in the Club Rooms last evening. Chasman Thomas P. White in the chair. The following officers were appointed: Captain A. McDougall, Pipe Major, Wilfrid Burke, Band Sergeant, Walter Perry, Drum Sergeant. Committee in charge of Band—Thomas P. White, Chasman James Paton, and John K. McKenzie, Secretary. The band now consists of eight pipers and three drummers. It was decided to meet every Monday evening in the club room for practice.

The annual general meeting of the D.C.S. was held in St. Paul's Parish Hall last evening at 8 o'clock. Venerable Archdeacon Watson in the chair.

There was a very large attendance at this meeting. After the usual formal resolutions were passed the Chairman called upon the Venerable Archdeacon Armitage, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Halifax, to deliver his address on "The Revised Prayer Book of the Church of England in Canada, of which he was reading today during his revision. The learned speaker reviewed the history of the revision of the book since its inception 25 years ago, until the present time. He stated the book would be placed on sale in Canada on 4th April next. The address was most interesting and instructive from start to finish.

At the close of the address, a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Rev. H. D. Raymond, seconded by Mr. Justice Hazard and carried by a standing vote. The meeting was closed with the benediction pronounced by Archdeacon Armitage.

Mentholatum
Will relieve the pain of bruises and small hurts.

LAI D TO REST—The funeral of the late Patrick Murray took place yesterday morning from his late residence, Dorchester St., to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Jas. Rooney. The pall bearers were: Messrs. T. L. Smith, Wm. Coaksh, P. Whitley, P. Clarkin, Jas. Kelly.

FORMER ISLANDER DEAD—Many old friends here will learn with deep regret of the death of Mr. Giles Crabbe, formerly of Summerside, who went out about fifteen years ago with his family. A letter received by Mr. Wm. Schurman states that he passed away in Calgary in the latter part of February. Besides his widow and family in the west there are left to mourn his brother, Mr. Otto Crabbe, Charlottetown, and sister, Mrs. J. W. Whitley, of Summerside.

BUGLARY—While the inmates of a house on South Market St. were absent from 8 to 10 p. m. on Tuesday, thieves managed to gain entrance through a back window and carried off a quantity of silverware and about $3 in cash. With only one policeman on the job, it is a difficult matter to locate the place where these operations are likely to occur, with the assistance of a detective, these robbers might be captured and an example made of them. The new Council Board will likely look into this matter and render the necessary assistance.

WEDDING BELLS—Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Helen Schurman, a daughter of Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, United States Minister to China, well known as a native of Charlottetown, to Major John Magruder, military attaché of the American Legation in Pekin, which took place at Manila, P. I. last Saturday. The bride attended Rosemary Hall School at Greenwood, Conn., and later she was graduated from the training school for nurses of the Presbyterian Hospital. She accompanied her parents to China last July, when Dr. Schurman the former President of Cornell University, left to take his diplomatic duties in China. The couple will tour Southeastern Asia.

BACK AT WORK—Friends of Mr. J. S. MacDonald, of the Royal Bank of Canada Staff, will be glad to hear that he is able to go back to work again after spending the greater part of the winter on sick leave. Mr. MacDonald underwent the second of two critical operations in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, last December, but is feeling quite fit once more.

NUPTIALS—An event of interest took place in St. Anthony's Church on Thursday, Feb. 16th, when Mrs. Jane Gallant of Howland became the bride of Mr. Arcade Gaudet of Palmer Road. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Gaudet, who is a son of the groom. In the evening the happy couple took the evening train for Palmer Road where they intend to reside in the future. Their many friends wish them many happy years of wedded life.

The death occurred in Georgetown on March 9th, after a prolonged illness, which she bore with true Christian resignation of Mrs. Peter Morrison, aged 78. Mrs. Morrison who was a most estimable lady was born in Cape Breton but for many years has been a resident of Georgetown, where she was held in the highest regard by all who knew her. She leaves a sorrowing husband, two sons, John in Charlottetown and James E. in England, and four daughters, Mrs. Creamer of Boughton Island; Mrs. Leighton, Souris; Mrs. D. J. McCormack, Moncton and Mrs. Roberts of Boston.

Entered into rest at Little Sands on Oct. 31, 1921, Malcolm D. Blue, in the 78th year of his age. The late Mr. Blue was born in Govan, Scotland, and emigrated with his parents to Little Sands, 66 years ago. The deceased was a consistent member of the Baptist Church and was a God fearing, upright, honest and kind hearted man. He was a man possessed of many virtues and a great lover of children, who dearly loved to hear him relate stories of the civil war of 1861-62. He was a veteran, having fought in the General Lee. He was in his usual health until a week previous to his death. He was seized with an acute attack of Bright's Disease from which he never rallied. He leaves to mourn a number of relatives and many kind friends who kindly administered to him at the last of his illness and pain, but despite all the kindness and tender hands could do to soothe the sufferer, he slowly sank away and on Oct. 31st, 1921, his spirit winged its flight to that happy land from which no traveller ever returns.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Peacock of Murray River. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Little Sands, besides those of his wife and family, which predeceased him a few years ago, there to await the sounding of God's trumpet when they themselves around the blessed throne of God.

There passed peacefully away at her home Martinevale, Tuesday, Feb. 21st, Mrs. Flora Martin, widow of the late Martin Martin, aged eighty-one years. Although an invalid for the last five years, her death was unexpected until a week ago, she was stricken with paralysis. Deceased was a daughter of Ronald Stewart, who emigrated from Stenichell, Isle of Skye, Scotland to Lyndale, P.E.I. in 1863. The funeral, which took place on the 23rd was well attended and was conducted by Rev. D. MacVicar of St. Andrew's church, Charlottetown, of which she was a faithful member. Her remains were tenderly laid to rest in Lorne Valley cemetery beside her husband. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, six daughters, Katie and Bella at home, who tenderly cared for her during her invalid years; Mrs. A. Shaw, Martinevale; Mrs. A. J. MacDonald, Albert; Mrs. D. J. Burdick, Strathcona; Mrs. J. E. Partridge, Midgill; who were by her bedside during her last illness. Her two sons, Ronald and William A., having died in childhood. One sister, Mrs. Annie McKenzie, Lyndale, survives her. Two sisters, Mrs. D. McKenzie, Nebraska, having predeceased her thirty years and Mrs. D. Campbell, Head of Montague twelve years. The pall bearers

There passed peacefully away at her home in Georgetown on March 9th, Mrs. Peter Morrison, age eighty years. Mrs. Morrison had been ill for some time and the end was not altogether unexpected. She leaves to mourn besides her husband, two sons and four daughters, John in Kentville Sanatorium, and James in Winnipeg, Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Gardiner, Maine, Mrs. B. Creamer, Souris, Mrs. D. J. McCormack, Boughton Island, and Mrs. J. Lightizer of Moncton, N. B. The funeral which was largely attended was followed by a large concourse of friends and relatives to the Roman Catholic Church, thence to the cemetery where interment was made. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. D. P. Crocker, the pall bearers were: P. A. Scully, Elmer Jenkins, J. E. Morrisey, Louis H. Douglas and Samuel Bell. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth, Yes, saith the Spirit.

At Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Rose and Grey rooms Dr. Bonfield presided. The attendance was small on account of the Moncton Convention at which there is a large delegation of local Rotarians.

A resolution with regard to the establishment of a National Research Institute at Ottawa, elevated by the Honorary Advisory Council was warmly endorsed by the Club. This resolution urges upon the Government the necessity of taking steps towards the establishment of the institute, in order that the people of Canada might be given the necessary knowledge which would act as a spur towards the fallen development of the great resources of the country. The Rotary Club fully endorsed the proposal of the Council.

A very interesting address upon the Spirit of Canada was delivered by Rev. Dr. Morgan Genze of the Central Christian Church which was much appreciated by the members and which evidenced a full knowledge of its subject and deep and sympathetic feeling on the part of the speaker.

At Gasperaux on the 23rd of January, 1922 in the morning, some-where between the hours of five and seven o'clock, the sudden death took place of Mr. James Clary, a well known and highly respected resident of the aforesaid place, aged 48 years.

Deceased had been afflicted with a severe case of Asthma for the last three years and also every advertised Asthma cure in Canada, and the United States, but all to no avail. He was in a rooming house at the time of his death, he bore it with great patience and always hoped for the best till the end came. On the night of the 22nd he went to bed, apparently feeling better than he had been for some time past, so nothing serious was expected. His last hours were just across the hall and could always hear if he took a bad attack in the night, which was quite often the case. When he would get up and not drink, warm clothes, etc. to get him up but in the exception of a slight cough once in a while this night, he seemed to rest alright.

About five in the morning he coughed once or twice, but so far as this was a common occurrence she was noways uneasy. So he was left until breakfast time to be called as usual. But on calling several times and receiving no answer she went up into his room and was shocked to find him cold in death. Her feelings can better be imagined than described.

By his death the people of Gasperaux and surrounding country miss a genial and interesting personality, for he had travelled the greater part of the world by sea and land, therefore he was visited by many, old and young who liked to hear him tell of the many different places which he had seen and his experience in storms and calms of which he was always willing to give an account of.

He went to sea when but a young man and soon rose to the position of first mate of sailing ships in which he sailed for a long number of years. Finally he gave up going to sea and settled on land on Vancouver Island. About eight years ago he sold out, came home and married the widow of Mr. Johnstone of Gasperaux, but while the war was on he sailed to sea and place, thence to Gibraltar, Barcelona, Spain, calling at several other ports, returning after a six months trip. But on arriving back to New York he took a severe case of "flu" which was raging in that place at that time from which the asthma developed thence the aforesaid ending came and he took his last great voyage, we hope on the old ship Zion, with Christ as his Captain.

GOOD PRICES RECEIVED—Mr. Benj. Carter sold on Tuesday the stock and crop owned by Mr. Athol Roberts, of Highfield, for which splendid prices were received. Cattle sold from $100 to $205 each, according to quality and breeding. Everything else sold in proportion showing that the country is getting back to its prosperous condition. Hay brought $39 per ton. Mr. Roberts was perfectly satisfied with the result of his sale and congratulated Mr. Carter on the able manner in which he conducted his sale.

COWAN'S COOKERY COLUMN

Cocoa Reception Cakes

1 cup butter
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups flour-sifted
3 teaspoons baking powder
3 tablespoons Cowan's Cocoa
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Method: Cream butter, add sugar gradually. Mix and sift dry ingredients 3 times. Add well beaten egg yolks to butter and sugar. Add mixed and sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, add flavor. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into small cake tins, being careful not to fill each one more than two-thirds. Bake 25 minutes in a moderate oven. When cool, dip in cocoa frosting and roll in chopped nuts. Cakes may be baked in shallow pan, and when cool cut in fancy shapes.

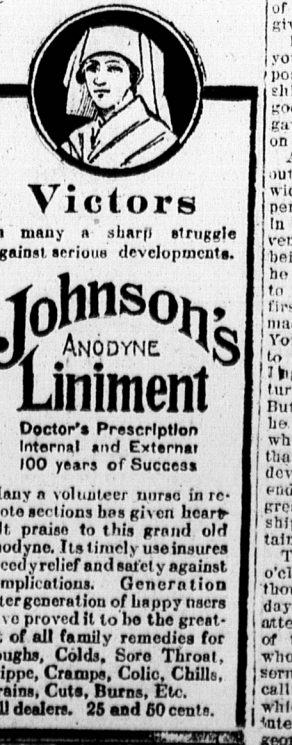

COWAN'S Perfected Cocoa comes packed in tins and thus retains its delicious flavor.

With feelings of deepest sympathy we chronicle the death of a highly respected lady in the person of Margaret, beloved wife of Daniel McGilvray, who passed peacefully away at her home in Cherry Valley, Monday, Feb. 20th at the advanced age of eighty two years. Deceased, who resided in Cherry Valley for the past fifty years, possessed all the qualities of a sterling character and was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Kind and loving in her disposition and most devoted to home and family. During her illness she was visited by her kind pastor, Rev. P. D. McGulgan, who administered to her the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a devout member.

She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, two sons and one daughter, namely John and Douglas of Boston and Mrs. William Coady, Hazelbrook, to lament the loss of a faithful wife and a devoted mother. Her funeral took place on Wednesday morning at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River and was largely attended, bearing testimony of the many who came to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed one. After a requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Parish Priest and the services performed, her mortal remains were laid to rest to await a glorious resurrection.

The pall bearers were: Messrs John McDonald, James McEachern, Alfred Tynes, Dingwell Jenkins, Alex. J. MacDonald and William Drake.

Why you can afford Frost fence this year

It will cost you more in the end to put it off even one more year.

Every year you permit snake, rail or stump fences to cultivate weed seeds by the million, the more work and expense you have fighting weeds. Why wait?

Frost Fence prices are down closer to pre-war figures than any other line the farmer buys! Frost Fence Costs No More Than Ordinary Fence, yet you get many years of extra service.

You get fence with famous Frost hold-tight lock that keeps every wire in place always. You save money both in erection and maintenance. Frost is drawn, tempered and woven in our own factory. We control the quality. Frost wire toughness, unusual strains caused by stock and weather, and the extra heavy, permanent galvanizing defies rust once-for-all.

You never could afford the time and money to repair and maintain weed-breeding, old-fashioned fence, or common loose wire fence. You can afford Frost Fence the Frost dealer now—or write us direct?
