The day chosen is October 16 on which date everyone interested in the hospital and its welfare is requested to send to the Y.M.C.A. building donations as large as possible of linen, groceries, or whatever the giver may select. In a few days a list will be published of supplies most needed in the hospital which will be a guide in selecting donations.

Recently a goodly number of the Kingston church and congregation called on Rev. S. H. Cornwall and wife at the rectory, North River, bringing a very pleasant evening and enjoying a bountiful supper together. At the close Deacon Daniel Fraser in a very eloquent and complimentary address on behalf of the brethren, presented to Pastor Cornwall a valuable "Santal" carriage rug; also to his wife a sum of money from the sisters of the church. Others followed speaking of their appreciation of the pastor's services. Pastor Cornwall responded thanking them for the kindly feeling the presents manifested, also the enjoyment he experienced in reaching to such an attentive audience.

O. C. Sanderson, only son of Frank Sanderson, St. Peter's Bay, was brought to the P.E.I. hospital yesterday, suffering from injuries received at the Starch Factory on Tuesday. Whilst cleaning the upper latorm his clothes in some way became entangled in the set screw of the stirrer shaft and he was drawn backwards through the opening which is only about one foot in width and whirled around several times before the mill could be stopped. One leg was broken in two places and he lay below the knee. It has not yet been ascertained whether he has suffered internal injuries and as he is resting easily now the many friends of the young man hope for the best. Mr. Sanderson was a fine specimen of young manhood, standing over six feet and weighing 180 pounds. He is deservedly popular and it is hoped that his injuries will not retard his future usefulness. He is a cousin of S. S. Sanderson of this city.
