—THE BEDEQUE Dramatic Club will present their play "Nothing but the Truth" in Borden Hall Monday night, July 18th and in O'Leary Hall Thursday night, July 21st. Admission 35c and 20c.

—NEW TEACHER — The Trustees of North Bedeque School have secured the services of Miss Marjorie Darrach, New Haven, to teach in their school for the ensuing year. Miss Darrach comes well recommended.

—IMPROVING — The many friends of Miss Florence Bowness, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bowness, Bedeque, who underwent an operation in the Prince County Hospital on Thursday for Appendicitis will be glad to learn that she is progressing favorably.

—CONCERT ENJOYED — Paul Kollins, the brilliant exponent of modern and classic drama, gave a fine exposition of his ideals in the Strand Theatre, Kensington, on the evening of July 12. The program embraced ten plays in one night. Some of the selections included "Top of the Morning," "East is West," "The Fool," "Much Silas," "Julius Caesar" and other comedy hits. The costumes were most appropriate and the sudden changes made were marvelous. But it is to be regretted that performances of this high literary merit do not elicit more patronage.

—A BEAR STORY — A remarkable bear story comes from Free-town. On Sunday morning about nine o'clock, Mr. Allan Campbell and Mr. Ralph Hamilton detected the presence of a brown bear and cub, between the woods of John Stavert and James Cairns. "Mr. Bruin" was tracked across two fields in which he had left some traces of his passage. A panic was caused among the cattle which must have been cognizant of Bruin's presence; for next morning they were all found upon the roads, seeking the quickest way home. A visitor from Nova Scotia who was in the neighborhood and who has a keen-scented hound will return from Nova Scotia soon and endeavor to track the unwelcome visitor and the accompanying cub to their scene of retirement.

—BRIDAL SHOWER — A large number of the young people of Kensington and vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Casely, Kelvin, on the 23rd of June, the occasion being a bridal shower in honor of Miss Ethel McNeill of Kensington. The bride-elect was escorted to the centre of the living room by her cousin, Miss Katherine Casely where she was showered with gifts, unwrapped by Miss Lillian Champion and Miss Evelyn Lockhart, and arranged by Miss Ella Saint, while Miss Katherine Casely read the names of donors and humorous verses attached. Judging by the large array of beautiful and costly presents, Miss McNeill is held in no small esteem by her many friends, whom she thanked in her usual pleasant manner which was responded to by the hearty singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." A delicious lunch was served and the evening passed pleasantly. Mr. "Bud" Mountain of Summerside delighting the company with a solo, while Miss Mary Ready, was in her usual good form at the organ. As the early morning hours approached, all departed for their homes after wishing "Ethel" many years of wedded bliss.

—WEDDING BELLS — At Central Bedeque Baptist Church Wednesday eve, June 22, a very pretty and impressive wedding ceremony took place when Edna Mabel, youngest daughter of Mrs. Charles Campbell, Chelton, became the bride of Heber Ernest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Myers, Carleton. Rev. Dr. J. J. Sidey officiating. The winsome young bride who was given away by her brother, Mr. Ray H. Campbell was becomingly attired in ivory satin wearing the conventional veil with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations; her only jewelry being a handsome necklace, a gift of the groom; Miss Selma Myers, the groom's sister dressed in pink silk brocaded crepe with hat to match carrying a bouquet of pale pink apple blossoms and Mr. Ralph H. Campbell, a brother of the bride, were best folks, while little Isabelle Sidey, daughter of Rev. J. J. and Mrs. Sidey, dressed in yellow was a very pretty and dainty flower girl. Messrs Henry G. Afleck and J. W. Waugh, brothers-in-law of the bride acted as ushers. The church, where standing room was a premium, was profusely and beautifully decorated with lilacs, apple blossoms and wedding bells. As the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. Earle D. Leland, in her well known manner, played Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus until they took the Choir sang "O Perfect Love." During the signing of the Register, Mr. J. B. Lewis, Free-town, sang "My Task." Immediately after the ceremony, as the Bridal procession was leaving the church, Mrs. Leard played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. A buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother, after which an innumerable host of Chivaliers greeted the newly married couple. The wedding presents were numerous and costly including a number of substantial cheques. Previous to the marriage, the bride was given a miscellaneous shower in Central Bedeque Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Myers are residing in Carleton where Mr. Myers is a very prosperous and popular young farmer.

G. B. S. HOWLED DOWN IN HECTIC MEETING

Vivisectionists' Meeting Breaks up in Free for all as 200 Students Go Wild.

LONDON, July 16.—About 200 medical and other students broke up the annual meeting of the British Union for the Abolition of Vivisection recently at Caxton Hall. For nearly two hours, the speaker, Bernard Shaw, tried to address the meeting in vain, and when Dr. Walter Hadwen, President of the Vivisection, attempted to speak the disturbance became so great that the chairman, Sir Francis Blake, ex-M. P., Barrister, was forced to close the meeting.

When all was quiet again, Mr. Shaw continued: "I have many acquaintances among the more intelligent and educated of the medical community. I find that when they are ill, they go to every sort of unregistered practitioner—to the osteopath, nature-path and Swedish masseuse, and they pay them higher fees than you will ever be able to charge.

"You cannot repudiate moral responsibility with regard to animals without also repudiating it with regard to human beings. Ask the common people what they are afraid of in the hospitals. You know very well they are afraid of being experimented upon.

Here the interruptions became so loud that Mr. Shaw was unable to continue and he turned and left the platform.

Commander Kenworthy, M. P., and the Countess of Tankerville were loudly heckled when they attempted to speak, and the chairman called upon the students to select their spokesman to put their side of the case.

A student mounted the platform in response, and, after he had spoken, Dr. Hadwen was refused a hearing.

Half an hour of continued din followed, and the chairman closed the meeting.

ENGLAND IMPRESSED BY PREMIER'S ACTION IN BANNING RUSSIANS

TORONTO, July 11.—The growing popularity of Premier Mackenzie King in England, especially since his action in expelling the Russian trade delegation and cancelling the Russian-Canadian trade agreement, was explained by Sir Percy Bates, Bart., G. B. E., a director of the London Morning Post, one of England's oldest newspapers, and deputy chairman of the great Cunard Steamship Company, Limited, of Liverpool, who left Toronto for Vancouver today on a trip across the dominion to study Canadian shipping conditions, with a view to suggesting a possible expansion of the Canadian business.

"I don't think one single act of Mr. King's since his premiership has so much impressed England," said Sir Percy. "I think I can say absolutely that there was no urge from the British government for him to follow its example. He did it spontaneously, and all England said, 'that's very nice.' We certainly appreciated it. The Russians were certainly abusing our hospitality. There comes a time when you have to tell any guest to go who has been acting like a boomer. That act of Mr. King did more good than anything else."

Barker: "Yes, my daughter's taking up law." Harker: "Oh? My wife's laying it down."
