BAPTIST ASSOCIATION 43rd ANNIVERSARY.

The forty-third anniversary of the P. E. I. United Baptist Association met in Summerside Baptist Church on Friday morning, July 1st. First session opened at ten o'clock a. m., Dea. Arthur Simpson, Moderator, occupying the chair. After a few remarks by the Moderator the roll of delegates was called, showing a good representation of the Baptist Churches and a large per cent. of pastors. Then followed election of officers, when Rev. H. S. Erb was elected Moderator for the coming year. No Baptist preacher on P. E. Island can fill this office with greater satisfaction. The present secretary, Rev. E. A. McPhee, was re-elected, and G.F. Camp, B. A., was appointed assistant secretary. Committees on arrangements and nominations were appointed. Then followed reception to new pastors, namely, Rev. C. W. Sables, G. F. Camp and A.A. Gates. Report on obituaries was read by the secretary, E. A. McPhee, and adopted. The second session met at 2.30 p. m., Moderator Erb occupying the chair. After opening hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," the meeting was conducted by A. A. Gates, Lic., reading Isaiah, 32 chap., after which many participated in the devotional service. The meeting closed by singing and prayer. Next came the reading and approval of the minutes of last meeting. Report of denominational literature by C.S. Young, Lic. The paper condemned the circulation of trashy and obscene literature among young folk. Good literature is necessary in the home. The writer condemned the books entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages," better known as "The Works of the Devil." An interesting discussion followed by Dr. Archibald, Calder, Field, Grant and Camp. Following came the report of denominational funds by Deacon A.W. Sterns. Report on educational literature was read by Rev. W.M. Field, in the absence of Inspector Boulter. Discussion followed by Archibald and E.A. McPhee. Meeting then adjourned. Third session met at 1.30 p. m. A devotional service was led by Deacon Judson of Pownal. After a few testimonials, the devotional part of the meeting closed by singing. The Moderator again taking the chair called to the platform C. S. Young, C. W. Sables, Drs. Archibald and DeWolfe. After reading of Scripture by Mr. Young, C. W. Stables offered prayer. Then the Moderator in glowing terms introduced Rev. Dr. Archibald, who spoke in the interest of Acadia University and Horton Academy. The address was much appreciated, at the close of which Dr. DeWolfe was introduced, who is Principal of the Ladies' Seminary at Acadia. Dr. DeWolfe gave a very interesting and inspiring oration in the interest of the Ladies' Institution. Many went away feeling much delighted with having had the extreme pleasure of hearing Dr. DeWolfe, who held his audience spellbound for over half an hour. He has been principal of Acadia Seminary for some time and is considered one of the best educational leaders in the Maritime Provinces. The meeting closed by prayer. The fourth session opened Saturday morning with devotional services led by Rev. H. B. Killam. Several took part in devotional service. Rev. W. V. Higgins closed with prayer. At 10.30 the Moderator opened the meeting by singing Hymn 196, "Come Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove," prayer by Rev. Mr. Hogan, after which Rev. E. A. McPhee read statistical report, being a record of church progress. Discussion followed by Rev. I. W. Porter and others. Meeting closed with prayer by Rev. G. W. Camp, Lic.

The Women's Aid Society met in the afternoon, a large number being present. After reading of the Scripture by Mrs. Arthur Simpson a missionary hymn was sung, "The Morning Light is Breaking." Prayer by two of the sisters. Next came an address of welcome to the new pastors' wives by Mrs. A.A. MacNeill of Knutsford. The address was responded to by Mrs. W. M. Field and Mrs. Camp. Following came report of different societies on the Island. The report showed that during the year a large amount had been raised for mission purposes. The Aid Society is doing a good work. An address of welcome was given to the visiting ladies by Mrs. John F. MacNeill. After singing the hymn "Rescue the Perishing," I. W. Porter gave an inspiring address, telling how the sisters had helped in several parts of mission work. Rev. Mr. Bosworth gave an address on the French missionary line. Meeting closed with prayer by Rev. I. W. Porter.

After the closing of the Aid Society the Moderator took the chair and called upon Deacon Warren for report on Sunday work. A motion was then made and carried by which the paper was adopted. Following came an address by Mr. Jardine, who had the pleasure of attending the S. S. Convention held in Washington. His address was highly spoken of. Address by Rev. P. C. Calder on the home department gave a very strong appeal to all for home department work. Discussion then followed. Rev. R. G. Strathie was welcomed to the platform, who gave a brief address. Adjournment. Meeting opened again at 7.30. Devotional service by Rev. C. W. Sables. A very helpful was realized. At eight o'clock the Moderator took the platform. After reading Scripture and prayer Rev. J. B. Hogan read the report on home missions, and following this were addresses from Rev. I. W. Porter, Superintendent of Baptist Home Mission Board, who, as usual, gave a very helpful and encouraging address. G. L. Missions were represented by Rev. E. Bosworth, followed by an address from Rev. E. D. Hatt of British Columbia. Meeting closed with prayer.

Sunday morning a helpful devotional service was conducted by Rev. G. F. Camp, B.A., prayer by Deacon William Gay of Hartsfield. At 11 o'clock the meeting re-opened with the Moderator in the chair, after reading of Scripture by G. F. Camp and prayer by C. S. Young. The speaker of the morning was introduced, Rev. E. A. McPhee, who took for his text words found in Deuteronomy, twenty-nine and twenty-nine, "The secret things belong unto the Lord our God; but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law." No doubt the speaker preached one of the best Associational sermons ever listened to on P. E. Island. The sermon was very helpful and highly appreciated by all who heard it. Mr. McPhee is the popular pastor of Montague Baptist Church. In closing, Hymn 81 was sung.

Sunday afternoon the large crowd assembled again when a devotional service was led by C. S. Young. After singing Hymn 365, "I am Thine oh Lord," prayer was offered by Brother McKay of Summerside, followed by exhortations by several of the members. The devotional service was brought to a close by singing Hymn 363.

After the Moderator took the chair the afternoon regular meeting began by prayer and singing. Report on foreign missions was read by Mr. Boulter, in the absence of Mr. Field. The rest of the time was taken up by addresses from Rev. W. V. Higgins and Rev. M. L. Orchard. Mr. Higgins is Fiefd Secretary for the Foreign Mission Board. He gave a very helpful address on India. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins have spent some time already in the foreign field and will return this fall to engage in the work again. Following him Mr. Orchard gave one of the ablest addresses ever listened to in Summerside. Mr. Orchard is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick and Colgate, New York, and is a New Brunswick boy. Mr. and Mrs. Orchard will go to India this fall, being sent out by the Home Mission Board. J. P. Gordon gave an interesting address on the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Prayer by Deacon William Gay.

The Sunday evening meeting opened by Rev. J. B. Hogan leading a helpful devotional service, many taking part, subject, "The Life With Christ." The Moderator opened the meeting by singing Hymn 159, "Glory to God on High." Scripture was read by J. B. Hogan, prayer by Mr. Corey. Brother Corey was gladly welcomed to the Association. He has been preaching the Gospel of Christ for over fifty years and at the evening service Mr. Corey took part in the evangelistic service. All were much impressed by hearing the Gospel message by Mr. Corey. Rev. D. E. Hatt, M.A., of British Columbia, gave a very able sermon from Hebrews, 13 chap. and 10th verse, "We love an altar." The sermon was full of Gospel truth and many were greatly helped by listening to Mr. Hatt. Evangelistic service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Killam. Many went away feeling they had spent a very profitable day.

The meeting opened Monday morning by a very interesting devotional service by Deacon William McLeod and prayer by several who were present. The report on education was taken from the table and in the absence of the old committee a new committee was appointed (assistant clerk and Dr. DeWolfe) to dispose of the amendment. On motion, the report on home missions was taken from the table and discussed upon by Supt. I. W. Porter, followed by Deacon McKay, Rev. W. V. Higgins, Deacon McLeod, Rev. J. B. Hogan, C. S. Young, Rev. W. M. Field, Moderator, and closed by Supt. Porter. Discission on "White Slave Traffic" by Moderator, followed by Rev. J.B. Hogan, Supt. Porter, Rev. W. M. Field, etc. The discussion treated upon the connection of the Go-Preachers with the "White Slave Traffic." On motion by Supt. Porter the discussion closed and the report was adopted. On motion the report on foreign missions was taken from the table. Secretary W. V. Higgins led the discussion on systematic giving. Moved and seconded that we have an extension of time sufficient to discuss the report, carried. Session closed with prayer by Rev. J. B. Hogan. Evening session, July 4th, 1910. Devotional service, led by Rev. C. E. Corey. Temperance meeting opened by singing Hymn 322. Prayer by C. S. Young. Minutes of sessions read by Secretary E. A. McPhee and adopted. Unfinished business disposed of. Addresses on temperance by Rev. W.M. Field, Deacon W. McLeod and Rev. E. A. McPhee. Subject: Progress and Promise. Read an extract from a prayer published in 1863 on P. E. Island showing the condition then existing and the sentiment toward temperance. Read several whiskey and liquor advertisements of 1856-1867. Today no paper publishes liquor advertisements on P. E. Island. Forty journals in America will not publish liquor ads. France, England and the United States all show a marked decrease in the consumption of all liquors. In Finland the will of the people is for total prohibition and a campaign is to be carried on in Russia in the cause of temperance. All these show progress and give promise of total prohibition in every civilized land. Moved and seconded that the report on temperance be taken from the table and adopted and carried. Report on expenses read and showed a balance of $30.00 over and above all expenses. This amount was paid over to the trustees for denominational funds. Meeting closed by singing Hymn 425. All visiting delegates returned to their homes feeling that they had spent a very profitable time to the Association and hoping it would not be long before the Association will meet again in Summerside. The citizens of the town made it very pleasant for the visitors.
