SECOND APPEAL IS THREAT OF THE PREMIER

King Demands a Clear Majority From Canadian Electorate—Lauds Union Jack.—Says Defence Department Asked Permission to Study New Designs.

ERINDALE, Ont., Sept. 9.—Possibilities of a second general election hovered over the Liberal cabinet at which Premier King addressed the electors of Peel here yesterday. The Prime Minister had been speaking of difficulties experienced in the House of Commons owing to the government not having a clear majority. He pressed, as he has pressed at previous meetings since he opened his Ontario campaign, for a substantial majority to enable the government to carry out its programme on the tariff, on transportation, on immigration and in reform of the Senate. Then he intimated that if the government's majority in the next House were not sufficient, he could ask for dissolution a second time. "If," he declared, "we were again faced with the situation that confronted us in the last four years, I should ask for another dissolution of Parliament to get this matter straightened out, until we got a majority sufficient to meet the country's needs."

New Minister Speaks.

The occasion was marked by the first public appearance of Hon. George N. Gordon since he was sworn in as Minister of Immigration. Mr. Gordon described Mr. Meighen, Conservative leader, as suffering from "assignment of thought" and defaming the industry of Canada until people were afraid to go into business. Mr. Gordon added that trade had never been such as it is today; unemployment had never been so limited as it is today. He cited six companies as having increased the market value of their stock

On their return they found that the officials, Ulema and others, had all bought Panama hats. ## VARIETY OF GAY COLORS IN NEW FALL SWEATERS

TORONTO, Sept. 9.—Sweaters are coming to play a more important part in the wardrobe of milady every day, particularly when the breath of autumn is in the air. In the very latest sweaters there are all the shades of day from dawn to evening; softest yarn, combined with silk or silk combined with yarn. England still remains true and steadfast to the cricket type of sweater, often with knitted, kick pleated skirt to match, and if the scarf is not actually made for the costume, there is usually one standard scarf somewhere by for emergency use. In a demand for close harmony France throws more than one distinctive hook stitched cloche in the fashion ring for the shell stitch, fly et technique, bouclette, geometric and floral motif, cross-stitch, plain-knit, and crochet, these invariably following the airy Parisian fancy by adopting the softest yarns for their making. This friendly international rivalry results in a most interesting overseas domestic development, in that Canada, the opportunities of the mood, helps herself generously from the best and most original inspirations from both London and Paris knits at home creations which if bought in a shop would cost a pretty sum.

A "CANADA FIRST" POLICY FOR CONSERVATIVE PARTY

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, in Speech at Wingham, Ont., Crystallizes His Views On Present Needs of Canada.—Charges Present Government With Lack of Policy in Important Issues.

(Canadian Press)
WINGHAM, Ont., Sept. 9.—The keynote in the Conservative campaign was sounded from the platform in the Arena here this afternoon when Right Hon. Arthur Meighen addressed an audience of 2,000 people. "It is the proposal of the Conservative party that we pin our faith to a self-reliant and unmistakable protective policy on behalf of the whole country to put into effect a Canada first policy in every sphere of our agricultural and commercial life." In this sentence Mr. Meighen crystallized his view on the fundamental need of Canada at the present time, and his intention if returned to office. To immigration-transportation. Senate reform, all subjects touched on by the Premier in North York recently, Mr. Meighen made reference, but he said that these questions were "trodden to the front of platform" by Mr. King to obscure the real issue. "Mr. King charges I have nothing new to offer—that I come to you with the same policy that I advocated in 1921. Well, if such is a crime in public life, it is a crime of which Mr. Mackenzie King will never be guilty," Mr. Meighen asserted. He declared that the Liberals had gone round Quebec in 1921 referring to him as "a hangman stealing children from their homes," and that the mothers of Quebec would never vote for a man "with hands dripping from the blood of their sons."
