The bride looked lovely in a dress of white crepe back satin, and a white lace veil, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and orange blossoms.

There are many excellent articles, but one of the best is the impression of an American journalist who visited the "Garden of the Gulf," and who tells vividly his impressions of its people, their traditions, the well kept homes, the splendid churches, and his amazement at the practical absence of divorce and crime.

His observations are worth noting. "This same little Province, which has no divorce problem, is also without a crime problem. Its crime rate, as indicated by convictions for serious offenses, is less than one-tenth the rate for Canada as a whole, and the Canadian rate is low. The Island hasn't had an execution in forty years!"

"Unemployment? There isn't any on the Island." "Poverty? It is almost non-existent there."

"This Island has, per square mile, twice as many people, four times as many cattle, and eight times as much poultry, as any other Province of Canada. It has more railroads per square mile, more post offices, more telegraph lines, and more churches, and its people have more money in the savings banks, per capita, than have those of any other Canadian Province."

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place at St. Ann's Church, Hope River when Rev. Father W. V. McDonald united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony, Miss Clara Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Gallant, Hope River to Mr. Clarence Gallant, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gallant, North Rustico. The bride looked charming in a blue crepe-de-chene dress with hat to match and carried a bouquet of carnations with maiden hair fern's she was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes who wore pink crepe-de-chene dress with hat to match and carried a bouquet of carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Lawrence Gallant. They then motored to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Gallant where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. They then proceeded to the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Gallant, North Rustico, where a dainty dinner was served to about fifty guests. They spent the rest of the day in music and dancing till the early hours of the morning. After wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gallant many years of wedded bliss the company left for their homes. Mr. and Mrs. Gallant received many beautiful gifts of silver, cut-glass, etc. Miss Beatrice Gallant, sister of the groom and Miss Annie Rush of Charlottetown attended the wedding. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem, after which the hostess served a delicious luncheon and a social hour was spent.

1931 NEWSPRINT PRICE SAME AS 1930 International Paper Company today announced to its newspaper contract customers that there will be no change in the price of newsprint for 1931. The effect of the announcement is to stabilize newspaper prices for the coming year at the same rates as the Company established at the close of 1929 which, in New York and Chicago, figure $62.00 per ton.

"After considering the situation very carefully and trying to view it from your standpoint and ours," says International's letter to its customers, "we have concluded that there should be no change in our standard price of newsprint for the coming year."

"In reaching this conclusion this Company believes it is following a consistent policy. A year ago we vigorously opposed any price increase. Today, we feel that any decrease in price is unjustified and that it would be detrimental to the interests of the publishers as well as the paper manufacturers."

Have You Got Your Copy? THE BOOK OF THE YEAR The GOLDEN FUTURE of PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND Read What the Halifax Star Says: PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND THE Charlottetown Guardian has recently issued a souvenir edition published in book-size form, with the optimistic title of "The Golden Future of Prince Edward Island." It is an interesting edition. It is one that the native of Prince Edward Island, far from home, will read with a special glow of pleasure, for in poem, and story, in attractive illustration, and advertisement, it tells of the Island's glory, of its progress, and of its contribution to the life of this continent. There are many excellent articles, but one of the best is the impression of an American journalist who visited the "Garden of the Gulf," and who tells vividly his impressions of its people, their traditions, the well kept homes, the splendid churches, and his amazement at the practical absence of divorce and crime. His observations are worth noting. "This same little Province, which has no divorce problem, is also without a crime problem. Its crime rate, as indicated by convictions for serious offenses, is less than one-tenth the rate for Canada as a whole, and the Canadian rate is low. It has more railroads per square mile, more post offices, more telegraph lines, and more churches, and its people have more money in the savings banks, per capita, than have those of any other Canadian Province." The publication is one worthy of that enterprising daily newspaper, The Charlottetown Guardian. Price 25 Cents.
