THE OPPOSITION'S HUMILIATION

Everything in yesterday's proceedings in the Legislature paled into insignificance compared with the slashing attack on the Opposition made by the Hon. Murdoch Kennedy in the closing hours of the debate.

Mr Kennedy said he wanted the people of the country to know exactly who the leaders of the Liberal party were and proceeded to enlighten them. He said the Liberal candidates held a caucus just on the eve of the election in order to choose a leader.

Mr Johnston here rose to a point of order, and said that the statement of the hon. member was not correct. The remarks of the hon. gentleman were offensive and should be withdrawn.

MR. A. C. McNEVIN CONTINUES DEBATE

Hon. A. C. Saunders followed and advocated a tax to maintain the Patriotic Fund which he estimated would require $60,000 per annum.

The PREMIER asked how the hon. member would apply the tax in the case of those who were too poor to pay, or how he could make it equitable in the case of those who had already given according to their means.

of three of his own children they were interested only so long as the projects were a novelty, and then neglected them. He suggested a commission to investigate the education question, as he thought it required remodeling, and said there might be two schools in each district—one for pupils from Grade 1 to 4, and another for Grade 5 to 6.

of his personal experience, to the encouragement of sheep-raising on a large scale. He recommended the appropriation of part of the Agricultural Aid Grant to the supply of good seed shown at seed fairs to farmers who were too poor to buy it for themselves.

opposing them. They had heard their genial friend, the Leader of the Opposition, giving a great lecture on temperance in that House. It was along the lines he had spoken throughout the election.

Mr Bell rose to a point of order, and the Premier asked what was the point. Mr Bell said the hon. member had stated that no one "in the House would believe a word he said."

The Premier said he would like to know where the unparliamentary language came in. That might be the fault of those who heard, not the hon. member.

Mr Bell said that it was an offensive remark and should be withdrawn. The Premier thought the Leader of the Opposition would be wise to let the matter pass.

Mr Bell pressed for a ruling and the Speaker said he would reserve his decision.

Mr Kennedy proceeding said that the Leader of the Opposition seemed determined to interrupt him, but if he wanted a modification he would say that not many men in the House would believe him. The campaign in Bedeque had been conducted by Mr Bell as an apostle of temperance.

Mr Kennedy next proceeded to expose the gross misrepresentations of the Opposition regarding the Field Service Oats and concluded by exposing the latest Opposition falsehoods regarding the hay contracts. Hon. Leonard Wood had previously dealt with the subject and both these gentlemen corroborated the statement which Mr John McQuillan gave in yesterday's Patriot, but which that mouthpiece of Mr Bell hid in an out of the way corner so that few people would notice it.

Mr H. D. McLean concluded the debate on the address by relating the facts with regard to the arrival of the Morwenna in Havre. Mr Hughes had stated that a week's delay and demurrage had been occasioned by the bungling of the Government with respect to charter Mr McLean assured the House that this was absolutely untrue.

Thus ended the exposure of the whole of the Opposition's charges and misrepresentations against the Government. Never, possibly, in the history of this province has an Opposition suffered such humiliation and disgrace at the hands of any Government.

The House adjourned till Tuesday at 3.30, when the address will be presented to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

This week it was a delightful privilege on two occasions for citizens to welcome home island heroes who have fought bravely and well for them and who now bear the honorable scars of battle.

Private White while in the city was the guest of Mayor and Mrs. Agnew, while Private Lockerby spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Hodgson.

Lieut. Tannahill of the 105th Regiment is in Toronto this week bidding farewell to his parents who are returning shortly to the Old Country.

Lieut. Murphy and Lieut. Messervey who have appointments in the new heavy siege battery about to be recruited here made a host of friends while in St. John attached to No. 4 Battery, and are being showered with congratulations.

Capt. Charles M. Williams who is attached to 106th Overseas Battalion C. E. F., is expected in the city today from New Glasgow and is to be married on Monday next to Miss Stella Fletcher, one of Charlottetown's most popular young ladies.

Among the welcome visitors here this week is Mr. (Prof.) Wright of New Glasgow who is the guest of her sister Mrs. E. Peake. Mrs. Wright who is accompanied by her daughters, Miss Muriel and baby Barbara on her return goes direct to Lunenburg where Prof. Wright has accepted a position in the leading church there.

The younger social set here were deeply interested this week in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Helen Woodroffe of Dartmouth to Lieut. Charles Atkinson Goode of the 192nd Battalion, mobilizing at Turro. Mrs. Goode, who looked very girlish and lovely in her travelling with bouquet of white roses, was unattended and was given away by her brother Mr. John C. Woodroffe, also a popular student while in this city.

Miss Russ gave a delightful miscellaneous concert at her home last evening in honor of Miss Stella Fletcher whose marriage takes place on Monday next. The bride to be received many gifts and amid shouts of laughter an evening of real pleasure was all too quickly passed in games, dancing, etc. Dainty refreshments were served before good-byes were said.

Mrs. MacCreedy entertained on two occasions this week when she was hostess for the afternoon and evening Bridge Clubs. On both occasions the guests greatly enjoyed themselves, dainty refreshments being served while the ladies passed a pleasant social hour.

The Band Fund in connection with the 140th Regiment, Col. L. H. Beer in command, is taking up the interest of the St. John ladies at present. This week a number of Col. Beer's friends in this city forwarded to him through Mrs. A. A. Alley $60 to help along the good cause.

Mrs. J. L. Chabat of Ottawa entertained at a Bridge party of five tables on Wednesday of this week. Among the guests was Mrs. A. A. McLean who is spending the season in Ottawa with her husband Mr. A. A. McLean M. P.

Mr. P. A. Murphy of the Department of Agriculture and his bride, are being welcomed to Charlottetown this week after spending their honeymoon in Bermuda. They will take up residence on Upper Prince Street.

IN MEMORIAM

DEWAR CRAWFORD JAY.

KEEPING IN TUNE.

Pianos have to be kept in tune. Every now and then the tuner comes and goes over all the strings, keying them up, so that there will be no discords when the instrument is played.

The PREMIER pointed out that the Agricultural Aid Grant was for educational purposes and could not be applied in that way. The Government had endeavoured to get authority to use it for the similar purpose of distributing mussel mud, but had been refused, as such a project did not come within the scope of the act.

were conducted by Rev. Mr. Dawson.

Wherefore should I make my moan. Now the darling child is dead? He to early rest has gone, He to paradise has fled; I shall go to him, but he Never shall return to me. (Patriot Please Copy.)

MR. JEREMIAH SWEENEY.

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Jeremiah Sweeney of this city which occurred at his home early on Sunday morning last at the age of 55 years.

The late Mr. Sweeney's health began to fail about two years ago, but he was able to discharge his duties until about four months ago. Since then he gradually failed and despite loving care his spirit passed peacefully to its eternal reward.

He leaves to mourn a wife and one son John—a medical student at Kingston who reached home the evening before his death—one brother Thomas, of the P. E. Island Railway, three sisters Mrs. Ledwell, Mrs. (Dr.) S. R. Jenkins and Miss Sweeney, trained nurse, who have the sympathy of many friends in their loss of a loving husband and father and kind brother.

His funeral took place on Tuesday morning to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. P. S. Duffy after which the remains were laid to rest in St. Dunstan's Cemetery where Rev. Maurice McDonald officiated. There was a large concourse of citizens present, including a good turn out of the Benevolent Irish Society of which Organization he has been an esteemed member for a number of years.
