Here are the Great—and Well-Shod—Men of Ethiopia

It is not only by the vestments that one can tell that these cabinet members of Haili Sellassie's court are hig nitaries. You may notice that all are wearing shoes. This is unusual as even many of the officials go unshod. It is only the highest of the high who don footgear. Many of the ornaments worn are of pu : gold. The state dignitraies are lined up for a military parade in Addis Ababa to stir up patriotism among the populace and prepare them for war against Italy.

Trace Outlaw To Museum

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

HADLEY, Mass., Sept. 19.—Pursuit of John Bey, Connecticut outlaw, took ka bizare turn tonight when it was discovered the private museum of Joseph A. Skinner, millionaire silk manufacturer, had been entered and two pistols stolen.

One of the weapons is a 150-year-old English target pistol fired wit hpercussion caps; the other an 1893 Smith and Wesson loaded with dummy bullets.

The museum is in South Hadley about a mile from headquarters of 100 state troopers who have been chasing the alleged slayer of a Connecticut constable six days with an airplane, bloodhounds and police dogs. Police Chief John L. Sullivan said there was little doubt it was Bey who robbed the museum.
