FIRST Presbyterian Church, Truro, the oldest Presbyterian church in Canada does not show much sign of decay in its venerable walls when at a Sunday collection it raises $1100; and no individual amount larger than $25.00. It is simply wonderful, and highly creditable to all concerned. The pastor is Rev. G. B. McLeod, a native of this province.

Mr. Winfield, the efficient manager of the P. E. Island Telephone company, has been in Summerside for several days past with a staff of men making important changes in the telephone system. A new trunk has just been completed from Summerside to Cape Traverse via Kensington and Kinkora. The new line is of bronze wire and will be a great improvement on the old lines.

IROQUOIS Theatre crowded.—In spite of the widespread feeling in Chicago against the re-opening of the Iroquois Theatre, its doors swung open last week for the first since the fire in December last, and the house was filled with a crowd of men and women who enjoyed the show hugely, apparently unaffected by any recollection of the great catastrophe of last year.

HE WAS SENTENCED TO SIX MONTHS.

At the Police Court yesterday Laughlin and Malcolm McPherson, the two men from Cavendish, who had been arrested the previous night for assault on John McEachern were arraigned. Mr. McEachern identified Malcolm McPherson as his assailant. Laughlin McPherson testified to the same story as he told when arrested, viz they had gone out from their boarding house and returned to Mr. McEachern's, which they had mistaken for the place where they previously had been.

GRAND DIVISION, S. OF T. The 50th annual session of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance met on Tuesday, the officers present were: G W P—S F Hodgson, G W A—J L Godkin, G Scribe—W E Edwards, G Treas—D N McKay, G Sent—Walter Burke, G Supt—S F Tarbush, P G W P—John R Edwards—Protem, G Con—Samuel Bernard, G Chap—Rev. A D McDonald.

The sessional committees appointed were Credentials, Grand Scribe; L U Fowler, A W Tanton.

State of the Order—A S Wright, Rev. A D McDonald, David Rogers, Finance—L U Fowler, Henry Rackham, Samuel Bernard.

Committee to arrange for placing sessions for ensuing year—L. U. Fowler, J. J. Chappell, W Burke.

A large number of new representatives were duly initiated into the Grand Division.

The G W P read a most excellent report as his Valedictory address. The reports of the G Scribe, G Treas and G Supt were received and delegated to the proper Committee.

Grand Division then proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year as follows: G W P—Rev. A D McDonald, Hampton.

G W A—Jas R Elliott, Elliot's Mills, G Scribe—W E Edwards, North Wiltshire.

G Treas—D N McKay, Springfield, G Chap—David Rogers, Freetown, G Cond—E hel Tanton, Charlottetown, G Sent—Howard Rackham, Fredericton, G Supt—S F Tarbush, Charlottetown, P G W P—S F Hodgson, Charlottetown.

The per capita tax for ensuing year was fixed at 4c per quarter per member. The sessions for 1905 will be held as follows: January, Park Corner; April, Bradalbane; July, Stanley Bridge; October, Hampton.

The finances of the Grand Division are in a splendid condition and the outlook for the Order throughout the province is very bright.

The P. G. W. P. Bro Hodgson was noted a National Division delegate as a very small token of the esteem in which he is held by the Grand Division.

A pleasing feature of the meeting was the introduction of the "Grand Old Man," P. G. W. P., to whom the G. W. P., Mr. Hodgson extended a very cordial welcome in a most appropriate and touching address. The reports of the different committees were received and adopted. The representatives to the National Division were elected.

CROUP ABSOLUTELY CURED. "There is no remedy in my opinion that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lissect and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was back in the face with choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."—Mr. Wm. McGEE, 49 Wright Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Province of Prince Edward Island, In Chancery Rolls Court, Patricia Gillis and others, Complainants, and Nora Gillis and others—Defendants.

Pursuant to and by virtue of an order of the Honorable Edward Jarvis Hodgson, Master of the Rolls, made in this cause, on the 17th day of October, 1904, I will sell by public auction at the Law Courts Building in Summerside, on Tuesday, the 15th day of November, 1904, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, the several pieces of land, situate, lying and being in Summerside in Prince County, that is to say:

Parcel No. 1. All that tract, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in Summerside, in Prince County in said Island, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at a stake set in the north side of First Street in the division line of a lot of land, owned by the late Dr. Beairto, and from thence along First Street west thirty-nine feet, three inches; thence at right angles north, thirty-nine feet, three inches, until it meets the said Dr. Beairto's line; thence southerly along said line to the point of commencement.

Parcel No. 2. All that tract, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in Summerside aforesaid, bounded and described as follows: Commencing in the south angle of land, owned by John Green, formed by the intersection of Summer Street with Church Street, running thence along Church Street, easterly sixty-one feet; thence north thirty degrees east parallel with Summer Street one hundred and twenty feet; thence at right angles west sixty-one feet to Summer Street aforesaid; thence south thirty degrees west, along Summer Street to the place of commencement.

Parcel No. 3. All that tract, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in Summerside aforesaid, bounded and described as follows: On the south by Water Street; on the west by land occupied by Simpson Grady; on the north by land of Albert C. Saunders; on the east by land occupied by Joseph Leblair—commonly known as the "Blue House, as appears more fully by a plan of the said lands filed with the Registrar of the Court of Chancery.

The purchaser will be required to pay twenty per cent of the purchase money at the time of the purchase and the balance upon the execution of the deed. The sale will be confirmed by the Court of Chancery, without expense to the purchaser.

Dated this 19th day of October, 1904. WILLIAM T. HUNT, Master in Chancery.
