Today, we are continuing to clothe Canadian women behind the women in uniform, in tailored garments. But our major effort is devoted to the production, at an unprecedented rate, of uniforms for our men and women of the Armed Forces. In fact, over 80% of our production is devoted to this great job—the most important job in our history.', 'We know our civilian customers—both men and women—who may be asked to wait for delivery of their new clothes longer than usual, will understand and appreciate why this must be. We know too that this situation will be cheerfully accepted and that Canadians will say: "Our fighting men and women in uniform come first". You can help this situation by anticipating your needs and ordering early.', 'TIP TOP TAILORS Ltd. SERVING THE FINEST ARMED FORCES IN THE WORLD'.

Although in failing health for some time he was only confined to his bed for one day. His death came as a shock to his loved ones. Mr. Kneebone left his old homestead on St. Patrick's Road one year and five months previous to his death and moved to Peake's Station with his daughter, with whom he has resided until the end. Mr. Kneebone was a kindly man in his home and by all that knew him. He was the last one of that family to remain in the area. Anne Sample of Peake's Station predeceased him some years ago. Mr. Kneebone was of a quiet disposition and had a kind word for all. To every dark cloud there will be a rainbow to reveal the fact that he is free from care and pain and kind with his Heavenly Father above. He leaves to mourn the loss of a good and loving father, two daughters namely, Laura, Mrs. John A. MacKinnon, Charlottetown, who arrived home in time to see her father alive; also Violet at Peakes Station, who cared for her father during his last years. His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, December 23rd to Mount Stewart Cemetery where he was laid to rest beside his wife. The funeral service was conducted at the house and grave by his pastor Rev. W. M. T. Mercer, Mount Stewart. Hymns sung were Nearer My God to Thee and Abide With Me, both favorites of the deceased. Pallbearers were Messrs. John Garnham, Chester Birt, Wallace Birt, Joseph McLeary, Albert Donnelly, Mr. A. J. Mooney drove the remains to Mount Stewart Cemetery. (Patriot please copy.)
