THE CANADIAN-BUILT CHRYSLER FOR CANADIANS

MONDAY
DIED SUDDENLY—The many friends in Prince Edward Island of A. H. C. Mitchell, proprietor of the Fox Breeders Gazette, will learn with deep regret that he died suddenly in Boston a few days after his recent return from Prince Edward Island where he attended the meeting of the Canadian Fox Breeders Association. It is understood that the magazine will continue publication.

OVER 1200 CARS—In the month of July about 800 automobiles came to the island by the Car Ferry Steamer and to date about 1300 cars have come across. The greatest number to come over in one day was 67. About the same number of automobiles came over to this date last year.

HAD ENJOYABLE VISIT—Mr. James McGee has just returned from a visit to his old home in Kelly's Cross, P.E.I. While on the island "Jim" visited all his old friends in Kelly's Cross, Lot 65, and Maplewood. He says he enjoyed every moment of his visit—why shouldn't he.—New Glasgow News.

CASE "DISMISSED"—The young man from Massachusetts who was arrested at Pictou and brought back to Summerside and lodged in the Prince County Jail upon the complaint of a resident of Bloomfield in connection with the sale and stealing of an automobile appeared before Mr. J. L. Palmer, J. P. in Summerside on Saturday. Mr. C. D. McCallum acting for the prosecution stated to the court that the complaint was understood between the parties concerned, that the car had been restored or would be, and all aggrieved parties satisfied and he therefore asked leave to withdraw the complaint. The court complied with Mr. McCallum's request discharging the prisoner on the understanding that no expenses rested with the crown.

ENJOYED VISIT—Rev. and Mrs. D. K. Ross, of North Bedouque, are enjoying a very pleasant holiday amongst friends and relatives at Westville and Lorne, N. S. Last Sunday they spent at Lorne, where the Ross family were all present. Rev. W. A. Ross, M. A., of Edmundston was home and preached in St. Columba Church and Hall. Mr. W. P. Ross, of Boston, was also home having arrived on Saturday night. Mr. John Hubert Ross, of New Glasgow and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, of Boston, were also there. It was a real interesting family reunion at the home where Mr. Charles S. Ross and wife and family reside. We note by the New Glasgow News that at an Old Folks' picnic held at Westville "Rev. D. K. Ross, of P. E. Island, well known in Westville, gave a very helpful and appropriate address. Mr. Ross made a fine impression and he was heard with much pleasure and profit."

BAD FIRE IN KENSINGTON—A disastrous fire visited Kensington early Sunday morning when the large and practically new barn of Mr. Brad W. McArthur, was completely destroyed. The McArthur family retired about 9 o'clock Saturday night and the fire was not noticed until shortly before 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The Kensington fire department and other volunteer helpers were promptly on the scene and succeeded in saving the dwelling with much difficulty. The fire in the barn had gained too great a start to be checked and it was even impossible to remove the contents. A fast racing mare, Campbellton Belle, three lambs and some young cattle, a quantity of feed and racing equipment were among the contents destroyed. The cause of the fire is unknown.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY OF PICTOU—Over three hundred people, accompanied by the Pictou Holy Name Society on their excursion to Charlottetown yesterday on the Hochelaga which arrived in port shortly before 11 o'clock. The entire party went to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Patk. Walsh assisted by Father Patk. McMahon, deacon Father McCarthy, sub-deacon and Father Walter McGuigan, Master of Ceremonies. A most inspiring sermon on the Blessed Virgin was preached by Father Boise Croken. The male choir of the Cathedral sang the Mass from Felix Missis Brevis and Leonard's Mass. The Hochelaga returned with the party at five o'clock.

MRS. MARY E. PENNY
On July 5th, after a lingering illness in the 82nd year of her age, Mary E. Penny, widow of the late Vere Penny, was called to that home which awaits the people of God.

The late Mrs. Penny was one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Murray Harbor. A woman of sterling qualities, always interested in every worthy undertaking, kind hearted, hospitable in her home, and sympathetic, a Christian in the truest sense, in whom the utmost confidence was placed.

She was one of the charter members of the Murray Harbor church of Christ in which she took a profound interest until she was called to join the great "Church above."

She leaves to cherish her blessed memory in the hour of parting and sorrow two sons and one daughter—Reuben and Earnest of Murray Harbor, Mrs. Lee Bert McMahon of White Sands.

Funeral services were conducted by her former pastor, Rev. C. E. Armstrong, in the church of Christ where a very large congregation assembled to pay a tribute of love and respect to her memory. Interment in Murray Harbor Cemetery.

TUESDAY
ARANMORE IN PORT—The C. G. S. Aranmore arrived in port on Sunday afternoon from Belle Isle after a tour of inspection of the light-houses, buoys, etc., of that district. She is now at the Marine Wharf.

ARRIVE FROM PETAWAWA—The Prince Edward Island Medium Brigade, consisting of sixty strong, under the command of Major McNevin, and Lieutenants Carl Kelly, Peter McLellan and James Fullerton, arrived home last night from Petawawa on the late train. The boys report a successful trip.

"LOST FINE HORSE"—Mr. Leo S. McCormack, Big Pond, lost a fine horse Tuesday last. He had just returned from a 30-mile journey. The horse was very warm and the horse was heavy. After unharassing the horse on his return home the horse dropped dead. At prices horses are now selling this horse was worth $200.

AN ISLAND PHILANTHROPIST'S DEPARTURE—Mr. Adam Andrew leaves this morning on return to Los Angeles, Cal., with the satisfaction of having successfully inaugurated the School Library scheme which bears his honored name. Mr. Andrew has also completed arrangements for the improvement of the environments at Mt. Herbert Orphanage, and hopes when he returns next year to find both projects flourishing.

NURSE GRADUATED—Miss Minnie Brown, the daughter of Mrs. George Brown of New Haven, Prince Edward Island, has just received her diploma from the Training School for attendant nurses conducted by the Household Nursing Association, 222 Newbury Street, Boston. Miss Brown is registered with the Association and is doing private work in Boston.

From despatches received by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor it would appear that the presence of His Honour to have Premier Baldwin deliver an address from the balcony of the Provincial Building will be accorded to.

During their visit here Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin, Captain R. Gordon Munro, M. C., and Mrs. Munro, Mr. E. G. Harding, C. B., M. G., Lieutenant Colonel Sir Ronald Waterhouse, C. B., C. M. G., C. V. O., also the detective, maid and messenger will stay at Government House over night.

Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King will be the guest of Mr. R. Harold Jenkins, M. P., and Mrs. Jenkins.

Hon. C. A. V. Rhys, M. P., and Mr. C. J. Norton will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Harding.

Mr. Windham Baldwin will stay with Dr. J. C. Houston and Mrs. Houston.

The Honourable Peter J. Venoit, L. D., Postmaster General and Colonel the Honourable J. L. Raftery, C. M. G., D. S. O., K. C., D. C. L., Minister of National Defence will stay at the Victoria Hotel.

The following telegrams were sent by His Honour to Their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales and Princess George and to Premier Baldwin on their arrival at Quebec Saturday morning:

Admiral Sir Lionel Halsey, G.C.B., G. C. V. O., K. C. I. E., C. B., Comptroller and Treasurer to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, Quebec City.

Kindly convey to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and His Royal Highness Princess George the warmest and most cordial greetings of my Government, the people of Prince Edward Island and myself. We remember with great pleasure the visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and yourself to this Province in Nineteen hundred and nineteen and we look forward with pleasurable anticipation to the time when His Royal Highness will again honour our Island with another visit.

FRANK R. HEARTZ, Lieutenant Governor
Lieutenant Colonel Sir Ronald Waterhouse, K. C. B., C. M. G., C. V. D., Private Secretary to the Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Quebec City.

On behalf of the Government and people of Prince Edward Island, I extend to the Right Honourable Stanley Baldwin, Mrs. Baldwin and party our most cordial greetings upon their arrival in Canada. We are deeply grateful that our Province is included in the itinerary of their tour and look forward with great delight to meeting Mr. Baldwin and his distinguished party on August sixteenth.

FRANK R. HEARTZ, Lieutenant Governor
The following telegrams were received on Saturday to those sent by His Honour Lieutenant Governor Hartz:

S. S. St. Lawrence via Montreal July 31st, 1927 (By Radio)
Frank R. Hartz, Lieutenant Governor.
Their Royal Highnesses desire to thank you for your telegram. Please convey to your Government and the people of Prince Edward Island their grateful thanks for greetings.

ADMIRAL HALSEY, Quebec City, July 30th, 1927
His Honour the Honourable Frank R. Hartz, Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island.
Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin and party greatly appreciate your kind greetings and look forward with much pleasure to visit on August sixteenth.

RONALD WATERHOUSE, The H. M. C. S. "Patriot" which was in Charlottetown from July fifth to July eighth, was to have returned here July 14th for a fortnight, as had been arranged for by His Honour Lieutenant Governor Hartz, but as her services were required for the ceremonies in connection with the arrival at Quebec of their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales, and Prince George and of Premier Baldwin and party, the authorities at Ottawa asked His Honour if he would consent to the change of program and be satisfied with the Patriot coming here later.

This change His Honour agreed to. The Patriot was in Quebec on Saturday and participated in the ceremonies in connection with the welcome given to the distinguished visitors to Canada. Since then His Honour has received the following telegram:

Quebec, July 31.
Orders just received from Ottawa. The Patriot is to arrive in Charlottetown from Gaspe fifth August and leave for Summerside fifteenth August and sail from Summerside for Halifax seventeenth August. Time of arrival will be signalled later. I trust that this will be convenient. Further information required from Patriot should be wired to Gaspe.
Captain Taylor

THURSDAY
—IMPROVING—Her many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. John Peter Gaudet, Richmond, who has been quite ill in the Prince County Hospital is considerably improved and well on the way to recovery.

—SAD NEWS—The sad news was received in P.S. Side yesterday by Mrs. J. L. Palmer by cable of the death of her father at Fosseside, near Nairn, Nairnshire, Scotland, on Wednesday, Aug. 3rd. The Guardian joins in extending sincere sympathy to Mrs. Palmer in her bereavement.

APPRECIATED RECOGNITION—The Royal Edward Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, received a few days ago admirable autographed portraits of Their Excellencies Viscount and Viscountess Willingdon. Their gracious recognition is greatly appreciated and the portraits are being framed and will be hung in the I. O. D. E. room in the Navy League Building.

TO DO MISSION WORK—Mr. A. Roy MacNaught, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. MacNaught, Coleman, is one of a class of ninety-nine young men and women who will receive their diplomas from the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago on August 4. Mr. MacNaught plans to do foreign missionary work.

CHANGES AT LOYOLA—Among the changes announced from Loyola College, Montreal, of interest to Islanders are the following: Rev. Jos. Monaghan, S. J., to Parlay-Monial, France; Rev. Francis Nelligan, S. J., has returned from Heythorpe College Oxford, Eng., and will be a member of the Faculty of Loyola College. L. B. Poole.

PARENTS BEREAVED—The sincere sympathy of the whole community will go to Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet. In the death of their son Aubrey at the age of 10 years. The deceased has been hovering between life and death for some time past and suffering with inflammation of the brain which came as the result of a blow on the head sustained while at play. The funeral takes place this morning at St. Paul's Church thence to St. Paul's Cemetery. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved parents.

LEAVE FOR REGINA—Councillor E. A. Foster and Mrs. Foster, leave this morning for Regina where Mr. Foster will preside at the annual meeting of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association of which he is president. Representatives from all over Canada will be present. The meeting will open on Aug. 8th and close on Aug. 12th. Mr. and Mrs. Foster intend visiting Vancouver and other western cities before returning.

WIDELY PATRONIZED—The tea and sale at Malpeque yesterday in aid of the new Presbyterian Church was one of the biggest events of the season. There were hundreds in attendance from Charlottetown, Hunter River, Kensington, and Summerside and tea was served from 2.30 till 4.15 in the evening, there being an abundance of all the delicacies of the season. Tea was served on tables very attractively arranged in the lovely new church, which was very much admired by all present and which it is hoped will be opened early in September. The needlework table was well patronized and the fancy work aprons and antiques were eagerly purchased. It was a grand gathering and the receipts were most satisfactory. The cakes were auctioned off by Mr. Morrison of Kensington.

WEDDING BELLS—An interesting event took place at the Manse, Summerside on Monday evening, July 18th, when Miss Gertrude Elmina Paynter of Summerside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paynter of Long River, became the bride of Mr. Earle Dobson Riggs of Charlottetown. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Martin at 7.30 p. m. The bride looked charming in powder blue crepe-de-chene with sand trimmings. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous supper awaited them to which all did justice, after which the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent. A jolly crowd of serenaders with quaint costumes invaded the house and succeeded in bounding both bride and groom. Upwards of fifty guests were present. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents which go to show the esteem in which the young couple are held. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of prosperity and happiness.

L. Tooker, of the engineering department of the city of Vancouver, both of whom were at their sister's bedside when he passed away. Capt. Noel Tooker, the eldest son of Commander and Mrs. Tooker was killed

MISS NORAH TOOKER
Halifax Record:—Many acquaintances in Halifax will hear with much regret of the death of Miss Norah, only daughter of Captain W. T. Tooker, R. N., and Mrs. Tooker, which occurred at Victoria, B. C., Saturday. Miss Tooker had been ill for some time, and while hopes had been entertained for her recovery, she recently took a change for the worse. Commander Tooker was formerly on this station and commanded H. M. S. Elnor, and Vancouver, where he lived for many years, and afterwards Victoria. The family was well-known not only in Halifax but throughout the Provinces, particularly in Prince Edward Island. Miss Tooker was a charming lady, highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Besides her parents, Miss Tooker is survived by two brothers, Hugh W. Tooker (whose wife is a daughter of Dominion Engineer C. E. W. Dodwell), and Guy

WEDNESDAY

HERE again in this new "52" is another one of those vivid Chrysler demonstrations of greater value which tell their own striking story at a glance. You need only see the Chrysler "52"—contrasting it in your mind with everything offered in its field—to realize that once more Chrysler Standardized Quality has yielded more to the buyer than money has ever been able to buy before.

Here in the new Chrysler "52" is true beauty far above previous standards in its class. Here is vigor of performance far greater than you have ever been able to buy before at this money—52 and more unvarying miles per hour, delivered with a smoothness no other low-priced car can even approach. Here, in the new "52", are longer, roomier bodies—more space, more comfort, more luxury and beauty than ever provided before. See it, and above all, drive it—for once you have experienced its performance we are confident that you, too, will agree that in the new "52" Chrysler has passed beyond all accepted limits of what $925 to $1095 have been able to buy in motoring performance, comfort and luxury.

done in the interest of their constituents. The party, to see what could be accomplished.

ISLANDER WEDS—The marriage of Miss Verda Eleanor Hooper and Mr. Lloyd Charles Bryenton of Los Angeles, formerly of Union Road, P. E. I., took place at Chown United Church on Wednesday morning, July 5th. Rev. A. B. Astedoth officiating. The wedding march was played by the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. J. Sparling, who also played "O Perfect Love" by Barney during the signing of the register. The bride was charming in a suit of navy blue crepe de chene with shell pink trimmings and large picture hat to match. The ensemble was complete with a white fox fur and a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony the bride and groom received the congratulations of their guests at the Georgia Hotel, where the wedding breakfast was served. The private dining-room was prettily decorated with pink roses and sweet peas, a three-tier wedding cake being a feature of the table arrangements. The bridal couple left immediately for Qualeum Beach and points of interest on Vancouver Island. San Francisco and other coast cities will be visited en route to Los Angeles, where the young couple will reside.

MCARTHUR-RYAN NUPTIALS—An event of much interest took place at St. Lawrence's Church, Morell on July 4th, 1927, when Miss Gertrude McCarthy was united in marriage to Mr. Leonard Ryan of the same place. The ceremony was performed and the Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. Joseph Rooney. The bride was charmingly attired in white satin, trimmed with gertrude and orange blossoms with hat to match. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Nellie McCarthy who was daintily gowned in coral flat crepe with hat to match. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Patrick McCarthy. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful set of gold cuff links. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a very dainty breakfast was served, after which they motored to Charlottetown for dinner returning in the evening to the groom's home, where upwards of two hundred invited guests awaited them. The night was pleasantly passed in music, song and dancing. The wedding gifts were many and costly, showing the popularity of the young couple. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered an enjoyable shower at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Byrne.

Miss Margaret Walsh of Cambridge, Mass., arrived home Monday night to spend her vacation in this city.

—Mrs. Chas. Earnsley, mother of Mrs. (Rev.) J. W. Turpel, of O'Leary, passed away at her home at Benecroft Park, Hopedale, Mass., Thursday, July 21st.
