

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Manager, and in Souris, M. S. Acorn, Manager.

The latest news, first of all.

J. J. Hughes, Souris, has returned from Ottawa.

W. A. Johnstone, Montague will pay highest market value for eels and smelts. See classified column.

Miss Clemmie Dunne, of Murray Harbor, has returned home after spending the past two years in Maine.

Highest cash prices is paid by W. A. Johnstone, Montague for certain raw furs. For particulars see classified column.

The west gate of James Finlay's Milldam at Murray Harbor gave way to the flood on Saturday night all the water escaping.

Tonight at the Unique the leading picture is pathos masterpiece entitled "The Happiest Day of Her Life." This is a pathetic story containing some of the grandest scenery ever seen here. Don't miss the great church parade at Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris.

Turning the Tables is another interesting picture.

Do You Speak French? is a roaring comedy, one long laugh.

Jack Ferguson in a refined specialty introducing his champion Lancashire Clog.

A beautiful pictorial ballad, When the Moon Plays Peek-a-Boo is part of the program, sung by Mr. Doyle. Admission five cents.

James McDonald, son of N.J. McDonald, Montague, is home on a short vacation, and leaves on return to New York tomorrow, where he is employed in Fulton Fish Market.

The three masted schooner Archlight, which has been loading at Montague for the New York Market, went down the river on Monday afternoon. Capt. Poole will likely finish loading at Lower Montague or Georgetown.

The electric light system at Montague is disabled and will likely remain so for a few nights owing to an accident to the dynamo on Saturday night. It is to be hoped no time will be lost in having same repaired for the holiday season.
