Child Drowned At Alberton

Deep sympathy is being expressed for Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Lewis, of Alberton, in the death there on Thursday last of their youngest son under very sad and tragic circumstances. It appears that the little tot was playing with a toy balloon near its home, which is close to the wharf, when it slipped and fell into the deep water and was drowned. The little body was later found floating in the dock, but had been in the water too long to revive. The little one was laid to rest on Friday, the funeral being largely attended by sympathizers of the bereaved parents. S.

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will drive worms from the system without injury to the child, because its action, while fully effective, is mild.

Give Junior the Air and Sunshine—

"Give me the air when I'm young," says Junior, "and I won't be in such danger of getting it when I grow up."

Fresh air and sunshine—greatest health builders of all ages—do not cost a cent. And it is the baby's right to get all the fresh air and sunshine you can possibly give him.

Nothing adds more to the baby's outing than a cosy, comfortable, strong, sturdy, easy-rolling carriage. That is the value we would like to show you today, for we have the most complete array of carriages, strollers, sulkeys and carts that we have ever shown.

—and you can count on the price to be as low as we can possibly make it.

Your baby should have the best—You'll be more than proud of him in a Holman carriage.

ATTENDING GRADUATION

Mr. H. P. Duchemin, K. C., of Sydney Editor of The Sydney Post, and Mrs. Duchemin, accompanied by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Duchemin, arrived in Halifax by auto Sunday evening. They remained for Dalhousie University Convocation, on Tuesday, when another son, L. A. Duchemin, graduated in Arts.

AVONDALE INSTITUTE—Ten members and two visitors met at the home of Mrs. John J. Power on Tuesday evening for the monthly meeting. The financial statement was read and a good share of business was done. Plans were made for the improvement of school property. After the meeting Mrs. Power served a dainty lunch and entertained the women with Victrola selections. Mrs. Patrick O'Donnell and Mrs. John Lynn delighted all with a step-dance and mention may be made also of special steps by Mrs. Alphonsus O'Donnell and Mrs. Alphonsus Keoughan. The next meeting will be at Mrs. John Lynn's home.

BOVINE STOLIDITY—An example of bovine stolidity and non-chalance was given free to citizens yesterday at the corner Prince and Grafton Streets. An ox evidently intended for the slaughter had walked into the city from his home in the country. Feeling tired he lay down on the street and refused all persuasion to go farther. During his rest the Fire Brigade passed by on business of its own, citizens walked by or stood around him. His "Oxship" looked placidly undisturbed. When all efforts at inducing him to resume his march failed, a jigger was brought along and he, evidently understanding the purpose, arose, walked calmly on board and submitted to be drawn to the city scales.

C. W. L. MEETING—The annual meeting of the sub-division of the C. W. L. Kelly's Cross was held on Sunday, April 28th and despite the unfavorable condition of the roads, was well attended. The retiring President Mrs. J. W. McKenna read a report of the past year's work; and also thanked the members for their kind co-operation. The Treasurer then gave a statement of the financial standing of the League. After which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President, Mrs. Joseph Creamer; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Francis Hagan; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Sylvester Monaghan; 3rd Vice President, Mrs. Francis Bradley; Secretary, Miss Helen Nautas; Treasurer, Miss Mary Nautas; Counsellors, Mrs. James Flood, Mrs. Oswald Kelly, Mrs. J. W. Bradley. Condolence Committee: Mrs. J. W. McKenna, Miss Helen Nautas, Miss Mary Murray, Corresponding Secretary, Kathleen Malone.
