RECEIVE PAPERS—Among those to whom certificates of naturalization have been granted appears the name of Marian Anne MacDonald, Mt. Stewart.

ISLAND LADY'S DEATH—Word was received in the city last evening of the death yesterday in Toronto of Mrs. G. Frank Beer formerly of Charlottetown. No particulars were received.

FAMILY BEREAVED—Mrs. Nell MacDougall, Upper Prince Street, and her family were yesterday mourning the death of her niece, Mrs. John Yee (nee Hannah MacDougall) Knutsford, P. E. I.

Mrs. Martha Cunningham and Miss Helen Aitken have returned to the city after spending the Christmas holidays at their homes in Montserrat.

alor Logan informed the Senator the vessel was registered in Barbados" asked Mr. Tilley. Witness replied in the negative.

Questioned further by Mr. Tilley, witness said he had gone to New York in May, 1931, to locate Hatfield and some members of the "Gypsum Queen" crew. His instructions came to him from Mr. Mulvey.

Arranged Deportation
 He had located Hatfield who was staying at a New York hotel. "I arranged with an inspector of the New York police force to have Hatfield deported back to Canada as an undesirable alien," witness said.

"Did you speak to Hatfield then?" questioned Mr. Tilley.
 "No," replied Major Relph. The promise to deport Hatfield, he replied further, had never been carried out. He also made some inquiries about Hatfield at the New York office of the Royal Bank, stated witness.

To Mr. Tilley, witness said, he had experienced no difficulty in finding Allison, a former member of the "Gypsum Queen" crew.
 "I had Allison practically under arrest and threatened him with all kinds of things and had him tell his story," Major Relph answered Mr. Tilley.

Two New York police in plain clothes had brought Allison to the police station, after he had questioned Allison for three hours, stated witness. He had taken Allison with him to Ottawa.

"Did you make any promise to him," pressed Mr. Tilley.
 "I told him if he told the truth there would be no charge laid against him—except he himself had received some money," witness replied.

"Did you promise him money?" counsel questioned.
 "I paid his expenses, his fare to Ottawa and his meals," answered Major Relph. "I also gave him $500.00 on his trip from New York to Ottawa and return had been reimbursed him at six dollars per day, which was the rate Allison was being paid on Staten Island as a rigger. In addition, the return fare and meals en route were paid to the former second mate of the "Gypsum Queen."

Allison Questioned
 In Ottawa, Allison had been questioned by Crown Attorney A. Ritchie, replied witness.
 "Was any promise made to Allison in Ottawa?" queried counsel.
 "That no charge would be laid against him," was the answer.
 "A pretty good promise," remarked Mr. Tilley.

"Was any demand made on Allison for the return of the 3700 check issued to him for his loss of property on the schooner?" asked Mr. Tilley.
 "No sir," replied witness.

Witness admitted to Mr. Pugsley there were at least a dozen ships destroyed by torpedo or gunfire within the area about the time the "Gypsum Queen" was sunk.

Mr. White questioned witness about the interview at which he was present between Mulvey and Henderson in Ottawa in July, 1931. Mr. Mulvey had shown Henderson the alleged original certificate of ownership, purporting to have been signed by Henderson, said Major Relph. Henderson at first said he had signed the certificate, then said he did not remember signing it and finally said he had not signed it, stated witness.

Henderson then on closer examination of the document had given his reasons for deciding he had not signed the certificate, continued witness. These reasons were that the form was not the usual one and it had not been prepared on the typewriter in his office.

Demand Payment in $1,000 Bills
 Mr. R. Creighton, manager of the Ottawa main office of Montreal, told of the cashing of the $71,000 check at his bank in March, 1931. Hatfield had asked to be paid in $1,000 bills; and there was delay in getting bills of this denomination.

He had suggested to Hatfield, the skipper should take $25,000 in cash and have the balance transferred to the Captain's bank account in New York. While Hatfield "seemed agreeable" the Senator was not, the bank manager said. Finally, 40 legal of $1,000 each were obtained from the Department of Finance. To these the bank added 25 bills of $1,000 denominations it had on

Post Nuptial Shower

On the evening of October 29 a delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Younker, Winsloe, when the neighbors of that vicinity gathered to give a post nuptial shower to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wise (nee Mildred MacNaughton).

The bride and groom were ushered in the living room, here they were seated. They were then presented with two wicker chairs and fern stand.

Mr. Wise on behalf of his bride and himself, thanked the donors for their gifts and good wishes.

The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The following was the address:
 Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wise,
 Dear Joe and Mildred:—

We your friends of Winsloe and vicinity take this opportunity of extending to you both our heartiest felicitations and goodwill. Now that you are starting out in life together may you ever enjoy the goodwill and best wishes of all your neighbors and friends, as you now do.

It is felt that we in Winsloe are losing an estimable young lady, while the people of our neighboring community are gaining the same.

Joe—we congratulate you on your excellent choice of a life partner and trust she may long be spared to share your joys.

Mildred—we offer you our best wishes for a long and happy wedded life. May the Giver of all good and perfect gifts bestow upon you both all that is good and the best interests for a successful journey through life.

As a token of the esteem in which you both are held by Mildred's old schoolmates and friends, please accept this gift and as long as one stick remains stuck to you other we will remember you as our friends.

Signed on behalf of your Winsloe friends.

hand, made up the balance with smaller bills and cashed the check. Senator Logan counted out the money and put it in his pocket, said Mr. Creighton.

"So the money actually went out of the bank in the pocket of Senator Logan?" asked Mr. White.
 "Yes," answered Mr. Creighton.

Mr. Tilley took up the question. Answering counsel, witness said all the money was "put in an envelope," before the Senator put it in his pocket.

C. A. P. Leahy, Bank of Montreal paying-teller, confirmed details of the cashing of the check.
 P. R. M. Lewis, Royal Bank of Canada, said before his transfer from Ottawa to Montreal, Senator Logan had presented one of the $1,000 legal bills to the Hatfield check to be changed. He had a record of the series numbers of these large legal bills, stated witness.

Senator Logan had a savings account early in 1931 in the main branch in Montreal of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, testified R. A. Hammill, assistant accountant of the Montreal main office of the bank.

Deposits
 This savings account showed deposits by Logan of $700 on Mar. 24, 1931, and $3,000 on June 15, 1931, stated witness. The sum of $10,000 was withdrawn from the savings on June 15, 1931, and the whole amount put into a new account for Senator Logan "in trust."

On Aug. 7, 1931, there was a withdrawal of $2,000 from the trust account, which amount was transferred to the Senator's bank at Amherst. This was followed by a series of debits against the trust account on cheques issued by Logan.

When Mr. White proceeded to take up the question of a check issued by the Senator in 1932, Mr. Tilley objected.
 "It seems to me we are going very far afield," protested Mr. Tilley.

His intention was to endeavor to prove the money deposited by Logan in this Montreal account was received by the Senator as part of the proceeds of the reparation check, said crown counsel.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE AT ST. JAMES

Large Congregation At Kirk For Second Service of Week of Prayer.

The second service of the week of prayer not only revealed another beautiful church but also the fact that the people of Charlottetown are a worshipping people. The Kirk was well filled last night in spite of the drizzling rain and the sloppy walking. The minister, Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D.D., arranged and conducted the service which was very stately and impressive.

A professional hymn was sung, "Crown Him With Many Crowns," during which the choir and the ministers took their places.

Dr. Legate called the congregation to worship and led in a prayer of invocation.
 Rev. J. W. Barbour read the scripture lesson which was taken from Acts 2, 1-21.

All joined in stinging psalm selection, "After Thy Loving Kindness Lord."

Rev. H. D. Raymond led in prayer after which the Lord's Prayer was recited very beautifully rendered by the choir. The offering was divided evenly between the Orphanage and the Evangelical Alliance.

Rev. Geo. A. Christie of York was the speaker of the evening. He took as his subject, "Faith," and his text was the words of Jesus, "As Thou hast sent me into the world even so send I them into the world."

As Jesus was sent into the world to redeem us so are we sent to redeem the world. This is our task. Before we undertake any task it is well for us to examine it. When we see the need of the world for these things, the world is topsy turvy economically, socially and spiritually.

The second question we ask is what assistance will we have. We are not sent out into the world on our own strength. Jesus bid the disciples to tarry in Jerusalem until they were endued with power from on high. When we are making up our church reports we should ask ourselves how much evidence there is of the power of God.

The church is the instrument for the redemption of the world but it must be the power of God working through us. In this task we must be ready to stand above the crowd. God saves the world by the few who have courage to stand for their convictions. Faith is the willingness to go out where Jesus is. We must be ready to turn aside from tradition and convention and move ahead. By and by the world will follow the leadership of those who go out in faith under the leadership of Christ.

Rev. W. L. Outhouse led the congregation in prayer.
 The recessional hymn was "Father of Peace and God of Love."

Rev. Hugh Miller pronounced the benediction.
 The service in the Baptist Church tonight at 7.30 will be under the auspices of the Bible Society. Rev. Hugh Miller will be the speaker.

VANCOUVER—Deep sea tonnage arrivals at this port set an all-time record of 4,896,232 tons in 1934, an increase of 132,141 over 1928, the highest previous year.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

SECOND CHARLOTTETOWN COMPANY
 Last Friday evening at 7.30 a Christmas Party was held to which the Guides, Patrol Leaders and Patrol Second's of the First and Third Companies were invited, also the Second Class Guides who have left the Company.

The evening's fun was started by a game of "Rabbit In A Trap." A small prize was awarded to Esther McDougall, the winner. This was followed by a game of "Crows, Cranes and Crabs," which was won by the Cranes. Next came a treasure hunt. All the clues were in Morse and the treasure was found by Beryl DeBlois.

The five patrols gathered in their corners and the guests were divided among them. Each patrol leader was then given a problem or puzzle. Any Guide in her patrol to guess the correct Brown Owl to sit on the top of it. Mary Bentley was the lucky first Brownie to be enrolled beside our Toadstool.

SECOND CHARLOTTETOWN COMPANY
 Friday, January 4. Instead of our regular meeting we held our annual Christmas party which was a great success from all standpoints and which was made all the more enjoyable by the presence of about 15 guests.

We were very pleased to welcome among our guests two former members of this Company, the Misses Jacqueline and Esther LaCoursiere.

The evening was whiled away with games and competitions for which prizes were given. The prize winners were the Misses Esther McDougall, Beryl DeBlois, Helen Tidmarsh and Esther LaCoursiere.

THIRD CHARLOTTETOWN COMPANY
 On Dec. 21st, the Provincial Commissioner, Miss Bell, visited the Company and presented badges to the following Guides:
 Child Nurse—Helen Agnew, Sandy Breuhart, Margaret Martin, Marian Robertson and Helen Tidmarsh; Ambulance Badge—Helen Agnew, Claire Balm, Thelma Dingwell, Eleanor Higson, Dorothy Lovander, Mary MacKay, Eleanor VanBurskirk, and Viney Watts, making 14 2nd Class Guides in the Company. Helen Tidmarsh and Margaret Martin were invested as patrol leaders, and Thelma Dingwell, Eleanor Higson, Mary MacKay and Viney Watts received Patrol Second's stripes.

The rest of the evening was spent in filling stockings for sick children in the Sanatorium.

We were very much pleased to have several of the parents at our meeting, and we appreciate the interest they take in our Company. The Guides treated the Guides with apples and candy, and the meeting closed with a sing song.

"The use of Miller's Worm Powders insures healthy children so far as the ailments attributable to worms are concerned. A high mortality among children is traceable to worms. These sap the strength of infants so that they are unable to maintain the battle for life and succumb to weakness. This preparation gives promise of health and keeps it."

MONDAY, JANUARY 7th
 The first meeting of the New Year was conducted by Miss Gladys Hart. After the Guide Prayer the Company was inspected for clean tenderfoot pins and the wearing of je instructions in Child Nurse Badge Work, while the Guides who already have their Child Nurse Badge reviewed Morse. Betty Bruce passed her Tenderfoot Test. The Needlewoman Badge was presented to Margaret Brown. The Company congratulates Miss Fry on having attained First Class. There are now two Guides in the Company who hold this badge, the Captain having received hers last month. It is expected that one of the Patrol Leaders will have passed for First Class by the next meeting, when she does so she will also be eligible for the All-Round Oord. During the meeting a four-cornered Patrol Relay was played and questions were practised. The Company on general Guide knowledge, the results of which will be averaged for Patrol marks and announced at the next meeting. A well planned Campfire was conducted by the Blackbirds, at which the Company had the pleasure of hearing a song composed ed by a member of this Patrol about Camp and the Guides at Camp. We congratulate the Blackbirds and especially the composer of this very instructive song. The meeting closed with Taps.

On New Year's Day a test in judging distances was held at the Park which Jean Robertson and Helen DeBlois passed. This week it is hoped to hold tests in fire-lighting, stalking and tracking if the weather permits, so that the second class test may be completed by several Guides.

All Guides please be present next week, as it is planned to begin practices for our concert.

FIRST CHARLOTTETOWN BROWNIES
 On December 21st the Guides and Brownies shared a meeting and we received a real Brownie Toadstool as a Christmas gift from the Company. We are not sure that we let the Guides know just what we think of this present. It is hard to say what you feel like when the lights suddenly go out and when they are switched on again, there is a real honest-to-goodness toadstool in the middle of the Fairy Ring. And that is not all, the Captain then produces, as if by magic, the cutest Brown Owl to sit on the top of it. Mary Bentley was the lucky first Brownie to be enrolled beside our Toadstool.

in Manchester, N. H., fighting extradition proceedings to bring him back to Canada.

Four months after Hatfield cashed the reparation cheque, a declaration was received from Senator Logan that J. S. Henderson, then registrar of shipping at Parraboro, N. S., had signed the certificate of ownership of the vessel by Hatfield, testified Major Relph. Six weeks prior to receipt of this declaration, Henderson in Ottawa had denied signing the certificate. At first, Henderson said he signed the document, but on further examination had given reasons why it was not his signature, said witness.

Cash Cheque
 The cashing of the $71,000 cheque, of which $65,000 was paid out in legal bills of $1,000 was sworn to by W. R. Creighton, Ottawa manager of the main branch of the Bank of Montreal. The skipper, who was accompanied to the bank of Senator Logan, his solicitor, had requested to be paid in these large legal bills, testified Mr. Creighton.

On the same day—Mar. 18, 1931—Hatfield and the Senator had visited his bank, stated Charles Gray, Ottawa manager of the Royal Bank of Canada. Hatfield had deposited 35 legal bills of $1,000 denominations, which was transferred to the skipper's account in New York. The Senator, said Mr. Gray, had made a deposit of $5,000 at the time, which was withdrawn subsequently.

R. A. Hammill, assistant accountant in the main office in Montreal of the Canadian Bank of Commerce told of the Senator making deposits of $7,000 on Mar. 24, 1931 and $3,000 on June 15, 1931.

A bombardment of questions from W. G. Pugsley, counsel for Hatfield, brought from Major Relph the statement probably a dozen vessels had been destroyed by torpedo or gunfire within the area Hatfield's vessel met disaster about the time the "Gypsum Queen" was sunk.

Hearing will continue tomorrow

Hatfield Cashed Check
 OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—(C.P.)—The $71,000 "Gypsum Queen" reparation check of the government was cashed by Captain Freeman Hatfield in legal bills of $1,000 at the skipper's personal request, Major H. S. Relph, former deputy reparation commissioner, testified in the Exchequer Court of Canada.

The check was cashed at the Bank of Montreal on Mar. 18, 1931, and he had identified Hatfield at the bank at Senator H. J. Logan's request, said Major Relph.

"When did you first talk to Mr. Henderson (former shipping manager at Parraboro, N. S.)," asked W. N. Tilley, counsel for Senator Logan. "That is after the award and payment of it."

"The secretary of state department sent for him," replied Major Henderson. When Henderson arrived he had seen Thomas Mulvey, then under-secretary of state. At this interview he was present, added witness.

"Did Henderson tell you he had in his earlier interviews with Sen-
