

PRESERVED SUNSHINE

It may not be possible to extract sunshine from cucumbers but it is from Blue Bird Tea. Grown in the lands of perpetual summer, the tender tea tips have imprisoned enough sunshine to warm, to brighten, all who drink Blue Bird Tea. Especially the Orange Pekoe!

TUESDAY: TOOK MY AUNT CARRIE TO THE BEACH. INSTEAD OF SITTING ON THE SAND SHE INSISTED THAT WE STROLL ABOUT, AND EVERY TIME I PAUSED SHE URGED ME ON.

"WHY DO YOU STOP SO OFTEN?" SHE ASKED FINALLY.

"I'VE BEEN THINKING, I REPLIED, THAT THE BATHING SUITS MAKE THE GIRLS LOOK SHORTER."

"THEY DON'T," SAID SHE. "INSTEAD, THEY MAKE THE MEN LOOK LONGER."

DIED AT HOSPITAL.—The death took place Sunday evening of Mrs. Stephen Rogers, of Freeport at the Prince County Hospital at the age of 70 years.

NARROW ESCAPE.—While a New Brunswick motor boat was taking in supplies at Holman's wharf Saturday afternoon one of the crew fell overboard and could not swim. It happened that nobody was around at the time of the accident and had it not been for his singing out for help he would have been drowned, as he was in the water for quite a while before he was heard. He was landed safely.

GOOD CATCHES.—Anglers report good catches of trout on the Dunk River though the finny fellows are making farther up stream as the season advances. Summerside on holidays and Sunday particularly presents a very quiet appearance; everyone with a motor car or some other conveyance (and this includes a great majority of the population) is away pleasure seeking. One prominent churchman says that in order to hear the people their Sunday portion of the Gospel the preachers will soon have to motor out to the camping grounds themselves.

JULY 1ST.—The citizens of Summerside are anticipating a large turnout of people on Dominion Day. Full arrangements are now about completed to entertain the multitude. The following is the programme of events for the day:—10 a. m. Big patriotic parade headed by the League of the Cross. 11 a. m. At Dominion Square Patriotic speeches songs by the school children. 1 p. m. At Trotting Park. Horse races and athletic sports. 6.30 p. m. At school grounds. Base ball, Summerside vs. Charlottetown. 8.30 p. m. At Dominion Square. Big band concert followed by spectacular display of fireworks.

1st Athletic Meet of the Season Held Last Night

The first series of athletic meets of the season was held very successfully last night at the C. A. A. grounds under the auspices of the Abegweit Club and the direction of William Halpenny.

It is regrettable that in spite of the favorable weather and the promising list of events, few people availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing these really good sports.

The boys did exceptionally well and they deserve every encouragement from citizens. Many "old timers" in Charlottetown have been deploring for the last ten years the decay of athletic sports among the youth of the city. The present series of athletic meets, which will be held fortnightly at the C. A. A. grounds, affords an excellent opportunity for encouragement of our local athletes.

Following are the winners of last evening's events:—

HEAVY STORM.—This town was favored by a heavy thunder squall during the early hours of Monday morning. The rain which was a down pour and much needed lasted for about one hour. The day opened clear and fine.

PREPARING FOR CAMP.—An advance party of B Squadron, Prince Edward Island Light Horse left Summerside on the early train on Monday morning, to arrange the camp section and prepare for the coming of the main body of men, who entrain on Wednesday.
