Amusing Comedy of Small Town Scandal

Marsha Hunt portrays the talented housemaid who is writing a revealing book concerning the lives of the society bigwigs for whom she works. Incidentally, and without their knowledge, she is married to them, but about to seek a divorce. Meanwhile he is outwardly engaged to a girl of his own social set and several personable young men are paying court to the pretty maid. None of this is known to the parents, portrayed by Melville Cooper and Spring Byington. Their first warning comes in the form of a gossip column note to the effect that a certain maid servant is about to show up the intimate lives of her employers. They and all their clique are considerably agitated.

TO ATTEND NUPTIALS — Mrs. F. A. MacInnis, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. John Smith arrived in Charlottetown Thursday to be present at the marriage of Mr. MacInnis's son, Lloyd, to Florence E. Martin of Mount Stewart, P. E. I. which took place on Saturday in Trinity United Church.

HOME FOR WEDDING — Lt.-Col. C. O. Thompson, officer commanding the Prince Edward Island Highlanders is home on leave. While in Charlottetown he will be present at the wedding of his son, Capt. Stanley Thompson to Miss Yvonne Raymond of Southport. The marriage takes place this week.

THREE FIRES OVER WEEK-END — Three fires occurred over the week-end. One Saturday evening at 5:15 caused slight damage to a house at 34 Valley St. At 8 A.M. yesterday morning the firemen were again called to extinguish a fire which partially destroyed one of the bathing houses on the Saboro bridge. A grocery store on Richmond St. owned by Arthur Ramsey was slightly damaged by a fire which occurred at 12 o'clock noon yesterday.

FUNERAL HELD — Funeral of the late Amos Gallant was held from his late residence, Oyster Bed, to St. Augustine Church, Rustico, where Requiem High Mass was sung by the pastor, Fr. C. Pitre, who also conducted the service at the grave. Pallbearers were: George Peterson, John Garmuth, George Cook, Patrick Hughes, Frank Gallant, Leo Gallant. Interment church cemetery.

LAI D TO REST — Funeral of the late James A. MacDonald was held Saturday morning from Frank Hennessey's Funeral Home to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father McKenna, C.S.S.R., who also conducted the service at the grave. Pallbearers were Leo Brogan, Herbert Dunn, John Webster, John Fitzpatrick, Joseph Holland and Joseph Brown. St. Patrick's Church cemetery.

DRIVERLESS CAR — Pedestrians on a section of Grafton Street yesterday were somewhat amazed to see a car proceeding slowly up a slight grade but with no one in it. The car continued for some time before it swerved off the street, crossed the sidewalk and crashed into the Agnew-Surpass Store front. Some damage to the windows and to the modernist front was caused. The car, too, was damaged but not seriously. The owner, Mr. Milton Curran of East Royalty, left the machine parked with motor running while he was away for a few seconds. Hardy had been driving it when it slipped into gear and rolled east up the street. It was parked east of Great George on Grafton St.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH
At the service of morning worship, the Minister, the Rev. J. Judson Levey, preached on the subject, "The Message of the Poppy." It is a word of remembrance. And Moses said unto the people, Remember that ye were once in bondage. We do well to preserve the significance of symbols in our religious and national life. The Star of Bethlehem, the Cross of Calvary, the Lilies of Easter, and in our minds on this day the poppy, the memory of a great and heroic sacrifice. Sad indeed is it for a people when they forget those who gave their all, to the attainment of the privileges which are ours. So to us the poppy brings a message of grateful memory of the great cause of liberty and peace, it is the symbol of unity, hope, in which we look forward to a better world wherein the Kingdom of God may be made manifest among men. Thigam's "Earth does not forget" was expressively sung by the large choir.

At the evening service Mr. Levy delivered the second in a series of sermons on "Prayers," the subject "Jesus, the Man of Prayer." The evening anthem was "Himself Incline Thine Ear." The Church School met with large attendance at 2:30 P.M.

HOLY REDEEMER
Forty hours devotion, which opened Friday in the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, concluded last night with the procession around the Church. This was preceded by prayers led by Rev. George MacKenna, C.S.S.R., and a sermon by Rev. A. MacDonald, C.S.S.R.

Father MacDonald's sermon was on the Blessed Eucharist and Civil Society. He stressed the virtues of Christ, justice, charity and sacrifice. In his discourse he brought out the point that the world had forgotten the teaching of Christ with respect to the Kingdom of God, the result that the Government was forced to compel people to make sacrifices.

Assisting at the Solemn Procession were: Rev. Father MacKenna as deacon and Rev. D. L. Baines, C.S.S.R. as sub-deacon.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
The features of the morning service were the In Memoriam, the baptism of two little children, the presence in force of one of the Girl Guide Companies under the leadership of Miss Lillian Duchemin and the appropriate remarks of Rev. Dr. Miller in connection with Remembrance or Armistice Day, followed by the entire congregation standing for the usual two minutes silence and the singing of the National Anthem.

The subject of Dr. Miller's sermon was "The Second Birth." John 3-3, "except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." Nicodemus came to Jesus by night
