"WING AND A PRAYER" THRILLS WITH STIRRING ACTION, DRAMA!

Out of the welter of motion pictures devoted to telling the stories of our various fighting services, it remained for 20th Century-Fox to bring us what is by far one of the most thrillingly exciting and heart-warming human epics of them all in the screen's first great drama of our aircraft carrier force in action. 6-28-45

The film, "Wing and a Prayer" is a story of the carrier, USS Yorktown, which was sunk last night at the Capitol Theatre, starring Don Ameche, Dana Andrews and William Eythe. 6-28-45

In the first hour of indignation against the treacherous Jap sneak-attack on Pearl Harbor, and with the country asking, "Why don't we fight back?" and "Where is our Navy?" an unidentified aircraft carrier is sent into the Pacific for a rendezvous with its planes. 6-28-45

But when the planes land aboard the flat-top, the rain-to-night flyers are told that their orders are to avoid combat with the enemy - to run away and not fight back. 6-28-45
