A PLEASANT EVENT—On the evening of the 17th, the members of the Kingston, P. E. I. Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Holmes, to spend a very pleasant evening of social and vocal, interspersed by a special chat. After partaking of a special repast prepared by the ladies of the church, Deacon D. T. Foster called the gathering to order, and after a few well chosen remarks, he presented Mrs. Helen S. on behalf of the church, with a substantial gift in cash, as a token of appreciation of her services as organist in the church. Mr. Stephen A. Aikland, Superintendent of the Sunday School, in a very neat and interesting paper, which was organized by the church to a great extent. Mr. Gordon Newson, a member of the church, and the leading soprano in the male choir, expressed his wishes as being greatly benefited by the members for their kind gifts and expressed himself as being very willing to help in the work of the church. Some six months ago he organized a male choir of thirteen voices, selected from the best singers of the different Protestant churches in this work. Mr. Gordon during the special evening, the services it proved a great asset to the work. After singing "Jesus be the love that binds" and "God with you till we meet again" and a short benediction by Deacon Foster, all left for their respective homes, realizing that it is good for brethren to dwell together in unity.
