REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press New York City 23 years ago today demanded more hockey. The Americans were drawing great crowds and Conn Smythe of Toronto organized another team—the Rangers, who won the Stanley Cup in 1928 and 1940 and the N. H. L. championship in 1936, 1937 and 1942. The Americans never got to the top and disbanded in 1942.

Ice Racing At Vernon

The second ice racing meet of the season under the sponsorship of the Vernon Driving Club came up with some smart racing at the Vernon raceway on Wednesday afternoon before a large crowd of enthusiastic racing fans.

Although there was only one class run off, the four entries competing came up with some close racing to give Judy Dale, who won the race in straight heats, a close run for top honors.

The following are the results: Class B Judy Dale (Buell) 1 1 1 Willard Dale (Duffy) 2 4 2 Bingen Budlong (Praught) 3 3 3 Mickey Peter (Ryan) 4 2 4

But then, he added, they would only be replaced by other dictators. In his first public statement since he returned from Moscow, Boswell said there isn't the faintest hope of any conspiracy at the present time to overthrow the present Soviet regime.

Curling Centenary Marked As Club Celebrates 100th Birthday

Century of curling is being celebrated by the Ayr, Ont., Union Curling club, which observes its 100th anniversary this week. Dr. Ward Woolner, president, shows a cup, won by Ayr rink in 1885, to W. E. McMurtry, secretary of Ontario Curling Association. Artificial ice equipment at Galt saved the day for the Ayr club when it acted as host to curlers from Toronto, Guelph, Galt and other centres this week. Ice at Ayr's own rink had melted.
