IRA K. JACKSON, the solicitor of the British American Book and Tract Society, head quarters at Halifax, N. S. is in this city looking after the interests of that Society. During the last year which is the 38th of the Society's existence more than 20,000 families were visited in the Maritime Provinces, Labrador and Newfoundland and many of these people were without a book in their home except the Bible and 35 families were found without even a Bible. These were supplied. In all $1,575 worth of the Society's Publications were distributed free of charge. This is a grand work, many have helped and The Guardian trusts many more will.

The meeting of Victoria Division Monday evening was one of interest. It was decided to hold the next open meeting on Monday week in the Division room when the public are invited to be present. Under good of the order a very able and eloquent address of the New Most Worthy Patriarch, E. M. Evenson of Pennsylvania was read by the Deputy. Short and excellent addresses were given with reference to the Prohibitory Law, some of the speakers favoured its more rigid enforcement in Charlottetown. Next Monday night a report of the recent meeting of the Natural Division will be given, when all Sons of Temperance are invited to be present.

As The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, established some months ago, has been so greatly appreciated, and has been the means of securing employment for so many people and help for so many business houses and housekeepers, it has been decided to establish in connection with this paper, an Advertising Agency. Thus any persons or firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, can have same placed by The Guardian. They can thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertiser's insertion checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.
