

Gear Grease that will not CONGEAL

It is congealed grease that makes gears so hard to change and your car so stiff to move in winter. Ease of driving and, what is just as important, economy of operation, demand a grease that won't congeal.

Any ordinary grease will stiffen the moment the temperature drops.

Whiz Sub-Zero Gear Grease

will flow freely in the coldest weather—even at 40° below zero.

You need WHIZ Sub-Zero Grease. In the coldest weather it will keep a protecting film on every gear and every bearing, preventing the damage that's sure to be done without it.

Drive in now where you see the sign illustrated here. Have the gear cases flushed out completely and the old grease replaced with WHIZ Sub-Zero Grease—don't mix WHIZ with other grease.

Whiz SUB-ZERO GEAR GREASE

Your Gears Will Slip Easily. Contains no kerosene or other thinners. WHIZ is all pure lubricant. Actual laboratory test.

—WILL GIVE JUDGMENT THURSDAY—The case against the young man belonging to Lot 16 who was arrested in connection with the purchase of smelt, alleged to have been stolen, after he had given evidence which the court considered unsatisfactory at the trial of a youth whose case in the same connection was dismissed, came up before Mr. Alex Campbell in the Court House at Summerside on Monday afternoon. The evidence of several witnesses was heard and the case was then adjourned until Thursday at noon for judgment.—S —BUILDING ACTIVITY CONTINUES—Not for a number of years has there been so much progress in the way of new residential buildings at Summerside as during the past summer and present fall. At the present time on builder, Mr. Charles Ramsay, has three fine residences under way in varying stages of construction. One of these will occupy the only remaining lot on the Weatherby Block facing Fitzroy Street. The foundation of concrete is complete and the framing now going up. This handsome and commodious residence is being erected for Mr. Harold Schurman and will be ready for occupation next spring. Also on Fitzroy Street, Mr. Ramsay is the contractor for an attractive square residence with cement foundation now in course of erection on the site of the old electric light plant and next to Dr. W. G. Church's residence, by whom it is owned and will be for rent when completed early in the new year. Mr. Ramsay's third present contract for new building is Mrs. W. B. Mills' new and pretty residence on Milk Street adjoining the residence of her son, Mr. Ernest Millie into which she will move in the spring.—S

—DEATH OF WELL KNOWN RESIDENT—After about two year of failing health, Mr. Fernan Wedge passed away at his residence in Summerside on Sunday morning, at the age of 67 years. The deceased was a well known and honored member of the Workmen's Association, whose flag was flown in respect at half-mast until after the funeral. He was of a quiet and industrious character, a good citizen and being of jovial nature with much native wit enjoyed the esteem of many friends. There are left to mourn an only daughter Miss Leona Wedge, and one brother, Simon, of Summerside, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended. The funeral took place on Monday and was attended by members of the Workmen's Association, who marched in a body in the procession to St. Paul's Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. J. J. MacDonald. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Urban Gilchrist as the remains were laid to rest beside those of the late Mrs. Wedge who predeceased her husband by some years. The pall bearers were Messrs Jack McInnis, Samuel Galant, John F. Wedge, Robert Grady, Joseph Perry and Bruno Arsenault.—S

—LAKEVILLE INSTITUTE—Lakeview Institute held its October meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Rose, Lakeville, with an attendance of sixteen members, and opened with the Ode and Creed. School Committees were re-appointed. The members received copies of the "Institute News". $3.50 was collected for the Library Fund. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. J. H. Baker for the use of her home on the evening of the District Convention. Roll-call was answered by suggestions to make our meeting more interesting. Program consisted of Community Singing, a reading by Mrs. E. D. Fraser, song by Mrs. J. H. Baker, and a demonstration on making crab-apple jelly by Mrs. Frank Rose. Next meeting was invited to home of Mrs. E. D. Fraser, roll-call to be answered by "Sing, Say, Play or Pay." Meeting closed with National Anthem.

—WEDDING BELLS—The bells of St. Margaret's rang out merrily on Wednesday morning, 31st, announcing the marriage of Mr. Donald F. McEachern, well known lobster packer of Hermanville, and Miss Mary Bushey of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of St. Margaret's, Rev. Father K. McPherson. The groom was supported by Mr. John P. McIsaac, Rockbarra, and the bride-aid was Miss Julie Bushey, sister of the bride. Both ladies were becomingly attired in stylish wedding garments and looked very pretty. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party motored home to breakfast after which they took a trip round about to Souris, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was being prepared at the Cox Hotel of which the bridal party, including some Souris friends pleasantly par-took. The table was beautifully decorated for the occasion. In the late afternoon the party returned to the home of the groom, where a large party of friends and acquaintances awaited their home coming. A splendid supper was prepared of which some 150 guests partook. Dancing soon began and a most enjoyable old time "wedding" was enjoyed, during the remainder of the night. The popularity of the bride and groom was evidenced by the numerous and costly presents presented to the happy couple. The wide range of the assembled guests present symbolized the wide acquaintance of the contracting parties, all with one accord wishing Mr. and Mrs. McEachern many years of wedded bliss.

—IMPRESSIVE SERVICE FOR LATE MISS CATHERINE M. CAMERON

The funeral of the late Miss Catherine Mary Cameron, took place Thursday, Nov. 1, from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cameron, Sunny Brae. The service at the house at two o'clock was conducted by Rev. J. L. Lund, Pastor of St. Margaret's Memorial church, Sunny Brae, and the choir of the church under the leadership of Mr. E. J. Lloyd, was present and rendered the hymns, "Shall We Gather at the River," "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The Scripture reading by Rev. J. L. Lund was from Revelations, chapter 21. The deceased's school mates, under the leadership of Principal William Jonah, together with the Pastor, led the funeral procession to the cemetery, while four of the pupils, William Adams, Victor MacDonald, Garth Robinson, and William Milton, acted as pallbearers. In paying a tribute to the deceased, Pastor Lund said: "Though only 15 years of age, she had developed a Christian character and his position was one that many such older persons might well envy. Her teacher and school companions had observed this in the days when they studied and played together, and during the six months that she was confined to her bed she ripened into a real Saint. She always trusted her Saviour and never murmured or complained for she had set her house in order, as few do. She viewed her passing as a home-going and without the slightest suggestion of fear. She made plans for the journey, choosing her own hymns and Scripture reading, also her going away gown and the casket that bore her frail body after the beautiful spirit had taken its flight.

"She is gone but not forgotten, and although of such tender years, her influence is like a beacon on time's headlands, wooing the loved ones and friends she left behind to a quiet harbour of safety, "where tidesless sleep eternal seas, soft on the city of the Saints of God." Among the out of town friends attending the funeral of the late Miss Catherine M. Cameron, were Mr. Sampson Walsh, Mr. Lloyd Walsh, of Albany, P.E.I., Mr. and Mrs. Percy Down, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., Mr. Alex. Cameron, of Sackville, N. B., Mr. Albert Thomas, of Irishtown, N. B. Telegrams of sympathy were received from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cameron, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron, Charlottetown, P. E. I. The beautiful floral tributes were: Pillow—Family. Wreath—Teachers and Pupils of Sunny Brae School. Spray—Humphrey Memorial Sunday School. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. J. Leopold. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Jones. Spray—Mrs. Harry Price, Mrs. Gilbert Smith, Mrs. F. Wilson, Mrs. Don. Blaney. Spray—Miss Annie Walsh. Spray—Uncle Jack and Aunt Blanch Cameron. Spray—Uncle Robert and Aunt Annie McWilliams. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson Crossman. Bouquet—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Holsen. Spray—Francis, Catherine and Winnie Wallace. (Moncton Transcript).
