

Let's Talk Things Over

When young people get married, these days, one of their biggest problems is to balance the budget.

knows he's taken care of the little lady should anything happen to him. Don't forget, sometimes young husbands die.

Justified in marrying a man for whom she has a great and absorbing passion, even if she knows beforehand that she will always have to work to support him.

As you are a business woman, of course, you appreciate the value of money and know just how far it will go and how much is required to run a family.

Not all husbands and wives are chummy, and no people in the world are lonelier than those married people who do not even speak the same language.

The thing people marry for oftentimes is companionship and it is this which seldomest get. So before you give up a good job for a husband make sure that he will be a pal and not a dummy in your house.

LEFT ON RETURN TO E. C. — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart and daughter Margaret and niece Evelyn McNeill who have been vacationing in Mermaid and elsewhere. On Thursday they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cameron, Albany. They also visited Margaret's pen pal, Miss Proud, Hampshire. It was Mrs. Stewart and her daughter and Miss McNeill's first visit to the Island and they were very appreciative of their welcome accorded them by their newly made friend. The hospitality of the Island people greatly exceeded their expectations. On Sunday the party worshipped in Zion Presbyterian Church which church Mr. Stewart attended in his boyhood days. Mr. Stewart is a milk producer from high grade Holstein cattle in the fertile Fraser River valley where three crops of hay are cut yearly. Their many friends wish them a safe return home after a most enjoyable motor trip.

IN MEMORIAM

SYLVIA JEAN MACKEY Seldern have the hearts of both young and old been so shocked and so deeply grieved as they were when it was learned that Sylvia Jean Mackay had been the victim of a tragic highway accident on the St. Peter's Road, Saturday evening, July 16th, 1949.

Sylvia, who was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Mackay, Parkdale, was born February 11th, 1934, and was truly blessed with a knowledge of all that was pure and good. Her modest and gentle manner, her friendliness and thoughtfulness towards others endeared her to all who knew her, and won for her a supreme place in the hearts of friends and classmates. Her keenness of mind and diligence in study were a source of joy to all her teachers and gave promise of the continuance of a brilliant scholastic career. Talented musically, she will be greatly missed in her school's musical activities where she played an important part. Those who worked, played and grew up with Sylvia will recall fond memories of a faithful and beloved friend whose noble and promising life just blossoming into young womanhood was ended so tragically.

A member of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, she took an active part in church work and was a member of the Girls' Choir, Sunday School and Young People's Society. Interested in Guiding, she was a member of the Parkdale Girl Guides.

Besides her sorrowing parents there are left to cherish her memory four brothers and three sisters, Shirley, Ernest, Evelyn, Brenda, Niall, Gordon and Carl; also her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collbeck who reside with her.

The many floral tributes, the messages and cards of sympathy and the sympathetic handshakes of a multitude of friends brought comfort and solace to the family in their hour of trial and showed the love and esteem which was borne to their darling young daughter.

The funeral service which was held from the Baptist Church on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended. The minister, Rev. J. D. Davidson, brought an impressive, thought-provoking and comforting message. The Girl's Choir was in attendance, as were also the Girl Guides. The pallbearers were: Harry Cook, Vernon MacDonald, Sterling Moore, Charles Peters, Leonard Arsenault and Noel MacMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Collbeck, Parkdale, wish to express their sincere thanks to their friends and neighbours for the many kindnesses shown to them in the tragic death of their grandchild, Sylvia Jean Mackay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Mackay and family, wish to gratefully acknowledge the many acts of kindness shown them in their recent sad bereavement. The floral tributes, messages of sympathy and personal calls at the home brought much comfort. To the Doctors and Nurses and to all who, in any way helped to lighten their burden, thanks is sincerely extended.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of Norma Giddings, who departed this life August 3rd, 1948.

When God calls a loved one home it seems so hard to part. And memories of that loved one are locked within our hearts. But the memory that we cherish most.

That we love best of all, Are the memories of dear Norma Who has gone beyond recall.

And when the shadows deepened And the light for her grew dim, We knew that God had called her home To be in Heaven with Him.

Lovingly Remembered by Mother, Sisters and Brothers.

time, Co-operation plus long and arduous hours of toil has spelled the difference between success and failure. There is no royal road to farming.

Several years ago the Jewell family thought to supplement their earnings and, at the same time, have a farm hobby apart from the usual farm lines. The thought was put into action. The result: One and a half acres of strawberries. Success has crowned their effort in this field of endeavour as it had in previous farming ventures. This year and last, particularly heavy crops have been harvested from the family berry plot, showing a good net profit after all expenses had been deducted.

Now fifty years of age, Robert Jewell can look back over the years and thank his lucky stars that he chose farming for his occupation.
