IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of George Francis Stevenson, of New Glasgow, P.E.I., who died on October 11, 1918.

There on the throne of David,
And there from care released,
The shout of them that triumphed,
The song of them that feast;
And they who with their leaders
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever,
Are clad in robes of white.

PROPERTY BIDS.—The three properties opposite St. Dunstan's Cathedral were offered by public auction yesterday, but did not sell. The corner shop property was withdrawn at $4,100; the dwelling next, $3,200 and the Sydney St. dwelling at $1,200. The bids on the different properties did not reach the reserve bid placed on them.

PASSED AWAY.—An aged and highly respected master mariner, Captain Robert Murray, of New Richmond, C.B., passed away on Tuesday evening at the residence of his son, Captain Howard Murray, of this city. The deceased who was 87 years of age, had made many trips between Charlottetown and Sydney in his day. Four years ago he came to reside in Charlottetown. His wife predeceased him, and there are several sons and daughters in Point Tupper, C.B. He will be laid to rest at New Richmond, C.B., the body leaving here this morning.

GOOD-BY BUDDY.—Among the storm casualties reported in the press was the tidy little racing yacht Buddy, which disappeared from her moorings at Buntin Bell and Co.'s wharf on the night of the big gale, and has since been unheard of. Exhaustive draggings of the dock and harbor have availed nothing. Whether she now lies deep in dock mud with her white wings furled, or has drifted out to sea to join the flotsam and jetsam of the ocean, will never perhaps be known. The search was extended as far as St. Peter's Island, and it is remarkable that not a sign of wreckage of any craft was picked up.

Big Rush For New Dictionary Expected

BUSY WORKERS HOLD COUPONS FOR NEW PENSIONATION ON HALF-HOLIDAY

Extraordinary efforts have been made to get a big rush to get copies of The New Universities Dictionary, the book offered by this paper to its readers exclusively. Thousands beyond all expectations were distributed during the week.

"When we set our thoughts down in written form," says Professor Forrest M. Lunt, A. B., Instructor of English in Horace Mann School, Teachers' College, Columbia University, "we are without the aids of voice and manner to make clear what we are trying to say. Our thoughts must be understood because the relations which exist between the various parts of our sentences are clear, if the relations between the parts of our sentences are not clear, the thoughts we are trying to express will not be understood." This is Professor Lunt's introduction in The New Universities Dictionary to his article on "Practical Syntax," which shows readers of this new dictionary how to build correct sentences.

"Good usage, common practice, society—whatever you will—has decided what is good form, what is proper, in this field of syntax, just as it has in morals, etiquette or fashions," continues Professor Lunt; "therefore, the man or woman who has occasion to set his thoughts down in writing should observe the common practice, he universally understood rules which govern the relationship of words, if he fails to do this, or if he attempts to make his own rules, he will be considered without the pale of cultured, educated people. From this it will be seen that the ability to construct sentences properly is hardly less important than the power to speak."

FAREWELL GATHERING

On the evening of September 15 about seventy-five in number of the friends and neighbours assembled at the late residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Younker, New Wiltshire, to bid their farewell before leaving for their future home. Mr. F. C. Dollar very capably presided in the chair and called on Mr. Charles Proude to read the following address, while Mr. Thomas Dollar and Mrs. Fred Proude presented Mr. and Mrs. Younker with two beautiful arm chairs. Mr. Younker although taken by surprise made a very suitable reply on behalf of himself and Mrs. Younker thanking his friends and neighbours for their kindness shown towards them and assuring them that whatever new friends he might make he would not forget the old ones he was leaving. After singing "For They are Jolly good Fellows" short speeches were made by F. H. Sanderson, A. McLean David Proude, W. G. Drake and Charles Proude. Mr. Nel-

Gas In The Stomach Is Dangerous

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia To Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any drugist a few ounces of Bisulphated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisulphated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form) never hurts (or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

another. And although you are about to leave us it is pleasing to know that you are making your abode in the near distance, so we will be able sometimes to meet and share the fellowship which we have so long enjoyed.

We hope and trust that you and your faithful partner may both be spared for many years to come to enjoy the blessings of life in your new home in Kingston with this and in gifts we ask you to accept these gifts as a small token of our respect and friendship.

Signed on behalf of Church and Community,
H. F. Sanderson, Fred Proude, Percy McIntyre, Alex. McLean, Thomas Dollar, F. C. Dollar, W. G. Darke, Chas Proude.

Dear Friends:

On learning that you are about to leave our midst, to live elsewhere, on far fair Isle, and considering the many years you have resided in this community, we feel it would be an injustice not only to you, but also to ourselves, were we to allow you to depart without giving expression to some token of regard. Words fail to express our sincere regrets, and the memory of the friendly greetings you gave to all of us, when we visited your home as well as the intelligent manner in which you discussed all subjects of general interest will linger long in our minds.

In the church, you are leaving vacant a place which will be hard to fill both as trustee and member of the O. O. B. where you have served faithfully, so many years, you will be greatly missed, but we feel our loss will be another's gain.

In the community you have been a true friend to all, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need, never counting your own loss, as long as it was going to help
