

GUARDIAN SPORTING NEWS

TUESDAY FORUM

CHILDREN'S SKATE

11c - 22c

EVENING

8-10

BIG

Special Skate

Children 1c Adults 25c

GRAND ICE

New Popular Music

Louis Scores Technical K.O. When McCoy Fails To Come Out For Sixth

(By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer)

BOSTON, Dec. 16—(AP)—Joe Louis made the 13th successful defence of his World Heavyweight Championship tonight by stopping Al McCoy of Boston after five completed rounds before a crowd of about 15,000 in the Boston Garden.

After taking a pummeling for five rounds, during which he was floored once and his left eye was closed to a split, McCoy was unable to answer the bell for the sixth round and Louis was awarded a technical knockout victory.

A "boo" rolled down from the fans as the announcer stated through the public address system that McCoy refused to continue.

McCoy was on the floor from three rights to the ribs in the first round. He tried to cut Joe down with straight lefts and a few swinging rights, but just didn't have enough to do it.

ROUND BY ROUND

Round One: McCoy went into a half crouch as Louis feinted with his left and shuffled forward. Both were short with straight lefts. McCoy flicked Louis' cheek and was wide with his right. McCoy bounced a left off Joe's nose and repeated the process. Joe clubbed a left to the body. McCoy flicked two more lefts to Joe's nose and it was red. Louis bounced a left off McCoy's forehead. Joe banged a right hand off the jaw and McCoy staggered. Louis hit McCoy with three rights to the body and McCoy sank to one knee. He was up without a count. Louis nailed Al with a hard left to the cheek.

Round Two: McCoy flicked Joe's face with his left. Louis bounced two short left hooks off Al's jaw. They traded short lefts and McCoy fell into a clinch. Louis clubbed McCoy with a hard right to the ear. Louis straightened McCoy off a crouch with a short right uppercut then clubbed his right against Al's ribs as McCoy tossed his straight left to the face. McCoy threw an overhead right that grazed Louis' forehead. They stood near Joe's corner and traded a left and right apiece. Joe again clubbed his right to the ribs. McCoy bounced another left off Joe's nose. They traded more short lefts then Louis backed McCoy into a neutral corner and landed a short left and right. Louis pummelled McCoy with half a dozen punches at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Three: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Four: Louis connected twice with his left but was short with a follow-up right cross each time. They traded lefts near a neutral corner. Louis straightened McCoy up with a short left uppercut and bounced a left off McCoy's jaw. McCoy's right landed on Louis' forehead. In close Louis ripped a right to the body and a long left to the nose. McCoy bounced a hard left off Joe's cheek. McCoy's left eye was nearly closed now and he was throwing desperate right hands. Louis smashed a right against the ear. Joe's left twice ripped into Al's face. In close Joe snapped Al's head back with a short left uppercut. The bomber landed left and right to the face at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Five: For half a minute there wasn't a punch thrown as McCoy shuffled away and Louis shuffled in. McCoy flicked off again with his left but Louis' lefts in return. The action was slow as they sparred in mid-ring. They traded straight lefts to the face. Louis dug a left into the body. McCoy bounced a left off the cheek, but Louis connected with a smash to the left jaw. He banged Al three times with hard rights. McCoy nailed Louis with a smashing right to the jaw. Al was barely able to see out of his left eye now. Louis ripped left and right to the body. In close McCoy bounced a short left hook off Joe's chin. Louis took three short lefts and rights to the head and a left to the mid-section at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Six: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Seven: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Eight: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Nine: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Ten: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Eleven: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Twelve: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Thirteen: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Fourteen: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Round Fifteen: McCoy stuck his left into Joe's face. Louis flicked with his left to the nose. McCoy came back with the same thing. McCoy backed Louis against the ropes and landed three left hooks to the head. Louis shuffled forward jabbing with his left and trying to break McCoy's defence. Louis beamed a left to the chin and crossed a right high on the cheek. Louis hopped in again with his left to the face. Another left drew blood from Al's nose. A right hand bounced off McCoy's and another left drew more blood from Al's nose. A short right raised a mouse under Al's left eye at the bell. Louis' round.

Three Leafs to Report in Boston

TORONTO, Dec. 16—(CP)—Manager Conny Smythe of Toronto's National Hockey League Maple Leafs announced today that Gus Marker, regular right-winger, and Norman Mann and Bucko McDonald of Providence Reds would report to the Leafs in Boston tonight.

S' side man Heads Curlers

Mr. B. W. Robinson of Summerside, was elected president of the Prince Edward Island Curling Association at the annual meeting here last night. Lieutenant Governor B. W. LeFase is honorary president.

Athletics, White Sox in deal

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16—(AP)—Philadelphia Athletics announced today they traded infielder Darin Lodigiani to Chicago White Sox for Jack Knott, big right-hand pitcher. No money was involved.

Kelly gains On Desilets

Joffre Desilets went pointless during the week's American Hockey League scoring race, but remained out in front among former Marlboros now in the A.H.L. The former Saint John Beaver held a two-point lead over Pete Kelly of Charlottetown, who picked up one assist during the week. Desilets had 15 points on five goals and 10 assists, while Kelly has scored one goal and has 12 assists.

How They Stand

National Hockey League		P W L D F A Pts
Toronto	15	13	2	0	50	24	26
Detroit	15	7	4	4	36	29	18
Chicago	15	5	7	3	31	38	13
Boston	13	5	5	3	44	33	13
Rangers	14	5	7	2	27	38	12
Canadiens	14	4	8	2	29	41	10
Americans	14	3	9	2	24	48	8

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

THIMBLE THEATRE—STARRING POPEYE

By Edwina

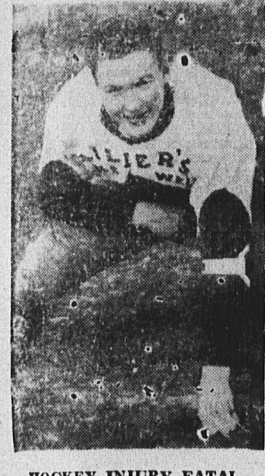

TIPPLE AND "CAP" STUBBS

By Edwina

TILLIE THE TOILER — EITHER WAY, IT'S A WORRY.

By Westover

HOKEY INJURY FATAL
Vernon Loughheed, 19-year-old general player, died in Toronto general hospital, Dec. 12, from an injury in a practice game. He was believed to be making a successful recovery after a brain operation.

Bill Cowley Leading scorer

MONTREAL, Dec. 16—(CP)—Two assists that Boston's Bill Cowley picked up during the last week, kept him perched at the top of the National Hockey League scoring race, according to official league figures released tonight.

Maritimers led By Bill Cowley

MONTREAL, Dec. 16—(CP)—Bill Cowley, former Halifax Wolfenbuter who now makes the plays for Boston Bruins, retained his leadership among former Maritimers in the National Hockey League during the last week.

N.H.L. Games Tonight

TORONTO at BOSTON.
DETROIT at AMERICANS.

"That recruit from out West is awful stubborn."

Sydney in First-place tie With Miners

GLACE BAY, N.S., Dec. 16—(CP)—Sydney Millonaires squeezed out a 2-1 win tonight over Glace Bay Miners in a Cape Breton Hockey League game.

REMEMBER WHEN

(By The Canadian Press)

New York Yankees went to the Pacific Coast League 15 years ago today to pluck Tony Lazzeri for the second-base position. He was with the Yankees until released in October 1937 so that he could "dicker" for a managerial job. He spent the past two seasons managing the Toronto Maple Leafs.

SWEDISH-GERMAN TRADE AGREEMENT

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 16—(AP)—Sweden has concluded an agreement with Germany for a trade overrun of about 2,000,000,000 crowns (approximately $480,000,000) in 1941, a substantial increase over this year's trade, it was announced tonight.

Germany will get much wood pulp and paper and Sweden will get 5,700,000 tons of coal and coke, processed steel and synthetic cloth.

India is trying to raise the standard of Indian goods.

Summary

First Period
1—Sydney, Atchinson
Penalties—Bastarache, 2

Second Period
2—Sydney, McEachern (Snowdon) 17:14
Penalties—None.

Third Period
3—Glace Bay, Baird (Gallagher) 2:00
Penalties—None.