VALENTINE SOCIAL—A highly successful Valentine social was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Linkletter, by the Linkletter Women's Institute, with approximately one hundred people present. The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion with valentine streamers. Mrs. Emery Linkletter was in charge of the fish pond and huge basket appropriately decorated with hearts, which was the centre of attraction for the kiddies. The three dollars raised from this was given to Miss Kathleen Pickwick, teacher, for Junior Red Cross. The general Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Frank Gamble, had a busy session auctioning off the parcels which had been donated. He was assisted by Mrs. Frank Linkletter who opened the many and varied packages for display, causing much excitement. The proceeds of the auction amounted to $85. A special guest was Mr. James Carver of Scotland, a former resident of Linkletter, who enjoyed meeting his old friends, but noted many changes in his fifteen years absence. The remainder of the evening was spent in games, music and the singing of old favorites. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the host and hostesses for the use of their home after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." S.
