CHINESE GENERAL WAS MURDERED YESTERDAY

MONCTON DOUBTS THAT I. C. R. WILL MOVE PART OF SHOPS

MONCTON, N. B. Nov. 6.—The statement that Hon. L. P. Pelletier had said in Quebec that he had promised that portion of the Intercolonial railway shops at Moncton would be transferred to River-Du-Loup naturally aroused excitement here. Inquiries, however, fail to obtain from I. C. R. officials here or any other responsible person any information sustaining the statement.

It may be possible that some additional men may be employed to operate the shops which were rebuilt at River Du Loup, but that a portion of the shops will be removed from Moncton is not believed by those whose judgement is valuable.

While Asleep in Tent. Report of Fall of Peking Unfounded

PEKING, Nov. 7.—(By Wire)—General Wu, the brilliant young military officer recently appointed governor of Shan province, was assassinated this morning.

He was asleep in his tent at Shika Chuang when thirty Manchus soldiers rushed in past the guard and murdered him.

When the officers of the General's staff arrested the Manchus the latter stated that Wu had gone over to the revolutionaries and was secretly betraying the Manchus.

Reports that this city has fallen into the hands of the revolutionaries are without foundation.

There has been no fighting whatsoever here and no evidence that the Emperor or Regent has fled.

Prince Ching continues to act as Premier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—A cablegram to the Chinese daily paper, says that Peking was captured late yesterday by the Revolutionists, as was not verified.

A despatch was also received announcing that the fall of Peking had been reported at Shanghai, but was not verified.

The despatch stated that all the officials of the city had fled.

The rebels are in peaceful possession after spirited fighting.

HONG KONG, Nov. 6.—Six companies of British troops, including engineers, artillery and two regiments of Indian troops, are in readiness to proceed to Tien Tsin.

There was an extraordinary outburst of joy here today upon the receipt from Shanghai of a report that the rebels had captured the native city of Peking. Without waiting for confirmation from other rebel sources the city was soon in holiday array. Rebel flags appeared everywhere and crowds cheering, exploded bombs and fireworks.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 6.—Shao Hing in the province of Che Kiang, famous for its mines, Quinsan and Kashing in the same province, surrendered peacefully to the rebels late today. Order is being maintained. With the exception of Wush all important points on the railroad from Shanghai to Chih Kiang are now in the hands of the revolutionists. Nanking is still outwardly loyal and quiet, but the Tartar general is so unpopular that an upheaval threatens.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 6.—The most interesting development in Shanghai today was the completion of the organization of a local cabinet by the revolutionaries. Wu Ting Fang, who formerly had been appointed head of the ministry of foreign affairs, Wang Yih Ting, trade of commerce, Shen Wan Yung, finance; Li Ping Hui, civil administrator, and Lee Hsieh, military administrator.

The appointments, however, are not taken seriously, the appointees denying knowledge of the action of the revolutionaries, except in the case of the civil administrator, who has been acting in that official capacity throughout.

Wu Ting Fang, while declining to acknowledge any participation in the revolutionary administration of Shanghai, openly sympathizes with it although criticizing some of the methods. He is bitterly opposed to the Manchu clique in Peking. Dr. Wu says that if the revolution hopes to win it must scrupulously regard the rights of foreign nations and individuals.

As time progresses, will be found difficult because of the conflicting views held in different provinces.

The government at Peking has instructed the viceroy of Nanking not to oppose the reformers. Nanking there is expected to turn over to the revolutionaries in a few days.

Perfect order prevails at Shanghai. The arsenal which was captured by

CONNAUGHT TO APPEAR SECOND DAY

Short Session. The Georgian Bay Canal to go on

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—(By Wire)—The Duke of Connaught will not be on hand for the first day of Parliament. The real opening of the twelfth parliament will be on Thursday.

The swearing in of members will begin on Wednesday at noon.

The expectation is growing that the session will be short. Provision will be made for beginning the Georgian Bay ship canal and sum has been placed in the estimates for that purpose.

There will also be an appropriation to enlarge the Welland canal at the same time.

PRESIDING PATRIARCH OF MORMONS

Dead After Short Illness At Salt Lake City

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—(By Wire)—John Smith, for thirty years presiding Patriarch of the Mormon Church, and nephew of its founder and first President, Joseph Smith, is dead here after three days illness of pneumonia.

CHICAGO WOMAN FACES MANY MURDER CHARGES

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Louis Vermilya, charged with the murder of Policeman Arthur Bissonette, and suspected of many other murders, was formally placed under arrest today. Afterwards she remained quiet on the bed during a preliminary hearing held in her home. The case was postponed to Nov. 28, and she was ordered committed to the county hospital.

The hearing was held in Mrs. Vermilya's home owing to her illness. Municipal Judge Walker and the court attaches all crowded into the little bedroom. She manifested little interest in the proceedings.

Two new witnesses came forward today to accuse Mrs. Louis Vermilya of having knowledge of the witness and he disclosed himself as another who had encountered the mysterious stomach complaint while in the Vermilya home. That encounter, he said, he still suffered.

The other witness was Miss Elizabeth Nolan, former fiancée of Frank Brinkamp, who in an affidavit charged that her intended husband had made statements on his death bed virtually charging his step-mother with having done away with him.

Bissonette said: "I went to visit my son the day before he was taken to the hospital. He had two meals at the Vermilya home. After eating ham and eggs, on which put pepper from a tin box, I had severe pains in my stomach. I got an emetic at a drug store and was relieved for a while but the pains still are with me."

Miss Nolan's affidavit brought in the name of Undertaker C. C. Boyson, who had been mentioned by a number of persons interrogated concerning the poisoning of Bissonette, and concerning the mysterious death of another Vermilya roomer, Conductor Richard T. Smith. She averred that young Brinkamp on his death bed, said to his mother: "Well, I am about done for. You might as well let Boyson come and bury me."

She also declared young Brinkamp said repeatedly he was "going the way dad did," and that he had expressed to her his suspicions that the father had not died of natural causes.

CHARGED CAPTAIN WITH CRUELTY

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Charges of gross cruelty practiced by Captain James Robinson, of the British steamer Druelorie, were made to the British Consul today by three sailors who had just arrived here on the steamer from South American ports. They declared that they were treated with which they were new, alleged blows and curses from the captain, and the forcing of fever-stricken men to work long hours had driven some of the crew to mutiny at sea and to plot to poison the captain.

Six of the alleged conspirators were taken off the vessel at Monte video, and sent to a British prison, and after that, these sailors assert the treatment that the remainder of the crew received grew worse. One of them told of being dragged from his bunk while he lay sick with fever and forced to go aloft.

The three men declared that they would rather go to jail than serve the remainder of their two years' contract under Capt. Robinson. The Consul took the case under advisement.

MR. BRYAN DEMANDS CRIMINAL ACTIONS

"Mr. President, why do you begin a suit in equity instead of a criminal prosecution against the officials of the equity suits that have been instituted, is the demand made by W. J. Bryan, in a letter to President Taft, made public here today, Mr Bryan in his letter says:—

The galleries were filled with spectators, and in a section facing the speaker's platform were the members of the Diplomatic Corps.

NEW YORK WOMAN ATTENDS FUNCTION IN A FLYABOUT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A novel touch was added to a tea given by Mrs. Helen Marsh at Belle Rose yesterday afternoon when Mrs. W. Irving Twombly arrived in a flyabout with A. L. Welsh instructor in the Wright school at the Nassau Boulevard aerodrome. There was no suitable place for landing near the Marsh home and Mr. Welsh had to let his passenger down some little distance from the grounds, but it was near enough for the eighty guests to see her as she dropped from the clouds.

THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS ACTIVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—An aggressive campaign in opposition to every attempt at religious legislation in Congress or in any state legislature was started by the fall council of the General Conference Committee of Seventh Day Adventists, when it was voted to hold religious liberty conventions in all parts of America the coming winter.

This action was in accordance with the recommendations of the committee on religious liberty. In starting the campaign the Adventists reiterate their belief in absolute religious equality and their opposition to Sunday laws and all movements which would tend to unite churches and state. Among the conventions, which are to continue for ten days each, will be the following: Calgary Alberta, March 6-19, Toronto, Ont., June 27-July 6.

Owing to the growth of the work among German-speaking people in America that branch of activity was divided into two sections. Elder G. A. Burnham, of Alberta, Canada, was elected president of the Montana Conference.

BLACK DEATH IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Nov. 6.—A case of bubonic plague has been discovered in the naval barracks at Shotley, on the Suffolk coast, England, near Harwich. The disease is the same which caused frightful havoc in Manchuria last winter, killing from nine to ninety-five per cent, of the persons attacked.

There were a few cases of it in East Anglia, England, some time ago, and experts expressed the fear that the country might be on the eve of a serious outbreak, but the matter had been almost forgotten until the Shotley case was diagnosed under the name of the "black death," a bubonic plague destroyed nearly a third of England's population in middle ages.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 6.—That United States mail pouch, routed from Raleigh to New York and containing $30,000 disappeared two weeks ago in a manner similar to a recently reported $20,000 theft of a pouch at Lynchburg, Va., became known here today. Beyond admitting the loss of the package officials refuse to discuss the matter.

TO SOAR ABOVE THE STORIES AND CURRENTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Willis L. Moore, Chief of the Weather Bureau, thinks an aviator might cross the Atlantic Ocean if he could take his airship six miles up and remain at that level at least two days. At that height there is said to be a placid level, free from the conflicting storms and currents which swirl below.

Chief Moore has expressed that opinion to Melvin Vaniman, the aviator, who has been planning a transatlantic flight from Atlantic City.

SHIN BONE GRAFTED INTO MAN'S SPINE

SEATTLE, Wash, Nov 6.—Rather than go through life with a humpback, John Alness, twenty-five years old, who has softening of the spine submitted to one of the rarest operations known to surgery at Spokane Sacred Heart Hospital and now lies in his cot with five inches of his shin bone grafted into his back bone. The operation is believed to be the third or fourth of its kind.

Alness began to suffer with spinal trouble a year ago. He had the alternative of going through life as a humpback or taking the fighting chance offered by science.

An incision was made in the back and the bones exposed. Dr. Alexander Lungren then used a chisel and split four of the vertebrae. He then opened the left leg and split a strip from the patient's shin. It was covered with muscular tissue. The piece was five inches long, an inch wide and half an inch thick. It was laid into the cavity and bound over with other muscular tissue.

The operation was successful, and Alness is recovering.

WHAT PAPER TO READ

(Contributed.)

Did you ever learn the real facts, the actual details, of any important event EXCEPT through the reports of your morning newspaper? And if you, and all other people, must look to the morning paper for news—facts, is it not natural that people who want "opportunity-facts" should rely chiefly upon the ads in their morning newspaper for them?

THE CARE OF THE HAIR

Dr. Justin Berthold of Vienna an eminent authority on diseases of the hair and scalp asserts the fact that dandruff is the prime cause of baldness and that baldness is preventable by a little care in eradicating dandruff in its early stages. Too many people treat dandruff as a trifling matter allowing it to proceed until it has infected the hair roots and permanently injured these delicate organisms. The first appearance of dandruff should be the occasion for a determined warfare on the germs. A good hair preparation such as Rexall's "32" Hair Tonic which contains an antiseptic capable of destroying the dandruff germ bulbs should be used. The hair should be combed and brushed daily taking care to see that the brush and comb are clean and free from extraneous matter as these ut-

ART IN THE HOME

If solid happiness we prize, Within our breast this jewel lies, And they are fools who roam; The world has nothing to bestow; From our own selves our joys must flow, And that dear hut our home.

To be able to judge of the beauties of our surroundings we must not only have been born with the "art instinct," but our natural perceptions must be quickened by travel and our knowledge extended to study.

Whether a home be poor or rich matters little—for art is not confined to sculpture and painting, but should be shown in all the objects collected in a home. A collection of fine pictures and elegant furniture—with hideous wall decorations, floor coverings and hangings—will not go to make the home artistic.

Art cannot be introduced into a house like water and gas, or the electricity. It must be already in the house, in the eyes of the occupants.
