The annual Camp for Militia Training 1907, will be held this year commencing June 25th and continued for twelve days. It will be gratifying to the citizens of Charlottetown to know that the troops will be "tenting on the old camp ground." For the past two or three years some malarial influence was at work to prevent the troops occupying the ground used for so many years. That "influence" has been happily removed to another sphere. The staff will be:—

Camp Commandant, Lt. Col. F. S. Moore, D. O. C.
 Brigade Major, Captain W. Harry Watts, R. O.
 Principal Medical Officer, Lt. Col. H. D. Johnson, A. M. S.
 District Intelligence Officer, Major W. A. Weeks.

 82nd Regiment, Lieut. Colonel D. Stewart.
 No 9 Field Ambulance, Major D. McLaughlan, A. M. C.
 No. 12 Signalling Section, Lieut. W. K. Rogers.

The troops of this District occupy a deservedly high place in the opinion of the heads of the Department and it is expected that the training this year will add still more to the efficiency of the force. Greater attention than ever will be given to musketry, only those who can do good work at the ranges will be entitled to efficiency pay.
