B. F. KEITH'S.

Several brilliant innovations in vaudeville will characterize the bill at B. F. Keith's Union Square Theatre, New York, during the week commencing January 20th.

Quite the most important venture of the day is the first presentation of a one-act comedy called, "The Diamond Dinner." The play was written by Bayard Veiler, author of the most sensational and greatest of this year's Broadway success, "Within the Law," and, though in but one act, it comes into the class of tabloid comedies, having abundant material for a five act farce.

Another new act is that of Harry Williams, the composer of songs sung in every home, and Nat Ayer, a well known pianist. This duo of clever entertainers will give a musical specialty, in which they will offer some of the most popular song hits of the day.

Still another new act is that of Fred Watson, an amazingly funny, who present a musical potpourri of comedy, song and dance, quite out of the ordinary. These people also come with the highest recommendations and may be relied upon to give us fifteen minutes of highly interesting entertainment.

The most wonderful display of animal intelligence is the exhibition of "Dick," the handwriting dog, the only canine in the world that writes and draws with pen and ink on plain paper. He also performs many marvelous feats.

EDEN MUSEE, NEW YORK.

That famous group at the Eden Musee, New York, "The Kings and Queens of the whole world," has been remodelled and rearranged. The main cause for this is that the additional interest in the movement of certain rulers throughout the universe and recent events that bring them before the public.

The extra attractions which are included in the one admission price, are the Band Concerts, every afternoon and evening, the Cinematograph de Luxe every hour, the Magician Hewes, called the "Great White Yogi," in an alluring program of sleight of hand, Ajeeb the wonderful checker player and many other attractions.

PROCTOR'S 5th AVENUE THEATRE.

At Proctor's 5th Avenue Theatre, the bill has been lengthened to consist of twelve-all-star acts, and intending patrons are requested to come early and stay late.

Others on the wonderful list to be presented are "Honor Among Thieves," a stirring playlet of financial doings; Butler Haviland and Alice Thornton in a "A Question of Policy"; Billy McDermott, hobo comedian; Aerial Shaws, trapeze sensationists; Ralph Smalley, 'cello virtuoso; Carson and Brown, dancers of the new school and the Three Samsons, Herculean athletes.

PROCTOR'S 58TH STREET THEATRE. That screamingly funny satire on apartment house existence, "Fixing the Furnace" will top the bill and cause many a hearty guffaw. Others programmed are The Five Brocktons in a comedy skit; Jerome and Lewis, blackface entertainers; Rita and Paule, character singers and dancers; Belle Onra, trapeze expert; Conrad & Reed, comedians of the new school and latest photo plays.

PROCTOR'S 23RD STREET THEATRE. Heading the bill will be that everlasting convulsing pantomime "Tate's Motoring." Others on a breezy program are The Castillians, modern poseurs in well known statuary groups; Watson and Little, singers and dancers; Nichols and Croix Sisters in a comedy skit; Leonard and Alvin, song dance and patter; Sharp and Flat, musical eccentricities and photo plays that thrill, amuse and interest.

F. F. PROCTOR'S

Proctor's Popular Priced Playhouses are certainly setting a pace these days. The bills are the most diversified of any programs in town, and the capacity business seems to be the rule. The performances are continuous from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m., with changes of bill every Monday and Thursday and daily changes of photo plays.

"NA-DRU-CO DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

There is only one explanation for the numbers of enthusiastic letters that we receive praising Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and that is that these tablets certainly do cure any kind of stomach trouble.

Here is a typical letter from Miss Eliza Armsworthy, Canoe, N.S.: "It is with pleasure I write to inform you that your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets have proved of great value to me.
