CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province. Miss Evelyn McAleer, city, is visiting friends in Clyde River. W. W. Stanley, city, was a passenger west yesterday afternoon. C. R. Smallwood, City, returned from the east yesterday afternoon. Frank Kiggins, City, returned yesterday afternoon from the east. The S. S. Trinidad is due today from New York. The Bonavista is due from Montreal via Summerside about ten o'clock this morning. Neil McQuarrie, Summerside, was a passenger to the city yesterday morning. The S. S. Cascapedia arrived last night from Montreal with a very large number of passengers and a large general cargo. Before J. A. McDonald, Stipendiary Magistrate for Queen's County, the case of Mr Blackmore vs James and Eunice Watts, an action for an assault, was concluded the two defendants being fined $5 each. The following were registered at the Hotel Victoria yesterday: Harvey Mitchell and wife, Fredericton; Jack W. McAdam, A. J. McAdam, Halifax; A. C. Saunders, Neil McQuarrie, Summerside; C. F. Angell, F. G. Walinder, Providence, R. I. Edwin E. and Mrs. Ward and Miss Theresa Corkum of Brockton, Mass., are the guests of Reuben and Mrs. Barrett, Kingston. Mr. Ward, who served his time as blacksmith with Mr. Barrett, has many friends here and is considered a successful "Islander abroad." The following were registered at the Queen Hotel Saturday: H. D. McEwen, Morell; Geo. H. Laidlaw, Halifax; W. McLeod, Pictou; G. M. Arsenault, St. Chroyston, M. W. Macomber, Boston; Miss Magomber, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Mrs. H. Watson, Boston; T. H. Allen, Cape Traverse; Mrs. H. T. Martin, Miss Popham, Miss E. Popham, Montreal; S. M. Scott, Halifax; M. Clarke and wife, K. A. Clarke, Newnan Point; E. S. Aeado, Ottawa; W. N. Wishard, Indianapolis; T. W. Fitzgerald, Boston; L. A. Foyser, Montreal; Ephraim Phillips, Tyne Valley; D. A. Wedlock, city. The show at The People's Theatre last night was certainly one worth going to see. It comprised three of the finest subjects chosen for the first of the week for a long time. The first picture—Captain Neil—told of the redemption of wayward son by the influence of a Salvation Army Captain who afterwards became his wife. It held a strong interest also through the question of Capital and Labor and was followed by an interesting Indian picture. But the star number was a colored Pathe picture—entitled Robert the Silent—and it gave the history of the battle of Normandy in a way that no reading could ever impress it on the memory. The beautiful costumes—the graceful dances—the magnificent scenery—the grand dramatic force of the subject—were equalled by the superb portrayal of the story by the clever artists who enacted it; and it was a forcible lesson told forcibly. Ralph Fischer was in splendid voice and his catchy illustrated song got the audience at once, while his specialty—a section from the Alaskan—was superb. It was a splendid throughout. Summonses will be issued for all parties who have not paid their dog-on or before the 31st day of August. By order of Peter Bradley, 8-17410.

A gentleman from Dallas, Texas, who has been visiting in this Province told The Guardian yesterday that he had travelled extensively throughout the United States and Canada and the continent of Europe and had not seen a prettier place than Charlottetown. A treat is in store for three hundred people tomorrow night in the Caledonian Club Room. The 78th Pipe Band assisted by local talent will give a grand concert. Major Baillie will not only play the Scotch bagpipes, but will also give selections on the Irish pipes. Another new feature will be a piano and Scotch bagpipe duo. The admission will be twenty-five cents. Tickets on sale at Paton's and S. A. McDonald's. The Fredericton, N. B., exhibition is to be held this year from Sept. 16 to 23rd, and many new special features and improvements in every department are being made. The fair is open to Canada and the State of Maine and great preparations are being made to make it the best ever held. The prize list is a large one and the awards liberal. The prize list will be furnished any one who writes the secretary W. S. Hooper, Fredericton, N. B. A very large attended Convention of the Liberal Conservative party was held at Cardigan on Saturday the 19th, to nominate two candidates to contest the district for seats in the local Legislature. John A. McDonald of Cardigan and John A. Dewar of New Perth were unanimously nominated. They both were in fitting speeches. The leader of the Opposition, Mr. Mathieson then addressed the meeting. He spoke for about three quarters of an hour after which James Duncan, Patrice Keogh and Martin McKinnon spoke.

The following were registered at the Hotel Victoria Saturday: W. H. Prowse, Murray Harbor; H. E. Nickerson and wife, Providence; W. F. and Mrs. Hamilton, New London; John M. Carr, Ed. Frances, Toronto; H. W. Palmer, John and Mrs. Fairchild, Montreal; C. H. Sutherland, Miss Jean Sutherland, New Glasgow; G. E. Moberly, Montreal; J. W. Bailey, Fredericton; A. N. New and wife, Toronto; H. S. Crane and wife, Halifax; Miss A. Munroe, Boston; Miss Rudtke, Miss E. Mang, Miss C. Rosa, New York; Miss Ethel M. Owen, Sherbrooke; T. N. Beaulien, Montreal; L. and Mrs. Moffatt, Amherst; F. P. Hayden, Halifax; J. B. McMunn, St. John; Miss L. M. Hegan, New York.
