

The Cream You Have Hoped For

You have often wished for a disappearing cream which doesn't dry the skin—and now we have it. The name is Penslar Vanishing Face Cream.

It is delightful, soothing and refreshing. At the same time, it is free from ingredients that deprive the skin of its natural oil; therefore, it doesn't have the drying effect occasionally noticed after the use of disappearing cream.

Penslar Vanishing Face Cream is sold only at our Penslar Store and we have it in two sizes, at 25 and 50 cents. Look for the Penslar sign.

FIRE.

(By Lieutenant-Colonel Kaden.)

As children many of us have played with it; some of us have seen an outbreak of fire. First a small tongue-like flame appears, it grows into a devastating fury of heat. We out here in the field have seen more than enough of it.

But there is also the fire of joy, of sacrificial altars, from mountain heights of Germany, and lit up the heavens at the same time of solstice and whenever the home countries were in danger. This years fires of joy shall flare from the Bismarck Columns throughout the length and breadth of Germany, for on 1st April, just one hundred years ago, our country's greatest son was born. Let us celebrate this event in a manner deep, far-reaching and mighty! BLOOD AND IRON.

Let every German, man or woman, young or old, find in his heart a Bismarck Column, a pillar of fire now in these days of storm and stress. Let this fire, enkindled in every German breast, be a fire of joy, of holiest enthusiasm. But let it be terrible, un-fettered, let it carry horror and destruction! Call it HATE! Let no one come to you with "Love thine enemy!" We all have but one enemy, England. How long have we wooed her almost to the point of our own self-abasement. She would none of us, so leave to her the apostles of peace, the "No War" disciples. The time has passed when we would do homage to everything English—our cousins that were! "God punish England!" "May we punish her." This is the greeting that now passes when Germans meet. The fire of this righteous hate is all aglow.

You men of Germany, from East and West, forced to shed your blood in the defence of your home-land through England's infamous envy and hatred of Germany's progress, feed the flame that burns in your soul! We have but one war-cry, "GOD PUNISH ENGLAND!" Hiss this to one another in the trenches, in the charge, hiss as it were the sound of licking flames.

Behold in every dead comrade a sacrifice forced from you by this accursed people. Take ten-fold vengeance for each hero's death!

You German people at home, feed this fire of hate!

Your mothers, engrave this in the hearts of the babe at your breast!

You thousands of teachers, to whom millions of German children look up with eyes and hearts, teach HATE—unfathomable HATE!

You homes of German learning pile on this fire! Tell the nation that this hate is not un-German, that it is not poison for our people. Write in letters of fire the name of our bitterest enemy. You guardians of the truth, feed this sacred HATE!

You German fathers, lead your children up to the high hills of our home-land, at their feet our dear country bathed in sunshine. Your women and children shall starve; be-stall, devilish conception. England wills it! Surely all that is in you rises against such infamy!

Listen to the ceaseless song of the German forest, behold the fruitful fields like rolling seas, then will your love for this wonderful land-slide, irresistible, from generation to generation.

You fathers, proclaim it aloud over the billowing fields, that the toiling peasant below may hear you, that the birds of the forest may fly away with the message; into all the land, that echoes from German cliffs send it reverberating like the clinging of bells from tower to tower throughout the country-side.

"HATE, HATE, the accused English, HATE!"

You peasants, guard this flame, fan it anew in the hearts of your toilers, that the hand may rest heavy on the plough that throws up the soil of our home-land.

What CARTHAGE was to ROME, ENGLAND is to GERMANY. For ROME as for us it is a question of "to be or not to be." May our people find a faithful mentor like Cato. His "ceterum censeo, Carthaginiem esse delendam" for us Germans means—

"GOD PUNISH ENGLAND."
